EUROPE.

The Spanish Monarchy—Animated Debate in the Cortes.

MADRID, June 7.—The debate on the question of electing a King began in the Cortes yesterday. It opens with animation, and bids fair to become exciting. The most prominent among the speakers yesterday was Señor RIVERO. He created a marked sensation by declaring that the restoration of the BOURBONS in Spain would never be permitted by the majority. He then proceeded to denounce monarchy in general, maintaining that it had produced all the evils from which Spain suffered. The speech was received with frequent cheers, and had an undeniable effect on the members. Replies were made by the supporters of royalty. The discussion lasted until a late hour, when, without taking action on the question, the Cortes adjourned. Today the Cortes is engaged in the consideration of various railroad schemes.

The French "Left" and the Ministry—Great Fire in the Forest of Fontainebleau—The American Bishops at Rome Disgusted—Political Trouble in Italy.

PARIS, June 7.—The breach in the party of the "Left" in the Corps Legislatif is complete. Differences of opinion as to the attitude to be maintained toward the Ollivier Ministry led to the separation. The Paris journals are attacking M. OLLIVIER for his course toward the party of the Left....Owing to the long-continued dry weather fires in the woods have occurred quite frequently throughout Europe lately. These have been attended in many cases with loss of life and property. Yesterday a fire occurred in the beautiful forest of Fontainebleau only a few miles from this city. It raged fiercely nearly all day, sweeping over hundreds of acres, and doing much damage. The people of the City of Fontainebleau turned out in large force and succeeded at last in checking the flames....The small-pox is decreasing in this city. The type of the disease is not so virulent as at first....Gen. MELLINET has been reelected Grand Master of the Masonic Order in France by 160 votes. CARNOT, formerly a Republican Deputy to the Corps Legislatif, was also a candidate, and received 125 votes....A man has been arrested at Marseilles who is supposed to have made the murderous assault on the Austrian General GRENNEVILLE, at Rome, in 1868.

ROME, June 7.—The Augsburg Gazette says that the American delegates in the Ecumenical Council show a growing disinclination to the Papal infallibility dogma and are disgusted with the sophistry and sycophancy of its advocates.

FLORENCE, June 7.—The discovery of a secret political movement in Leghorn has led to prompt action for its suppression. Twenty-two persons implicated in the affair have been arrested, and the Police are searching for other parties. All needful precautions have been taken by the officer in command of the garrison.

Telegraph Interruption in Ireland—Stanley Hospital, Liverpool—Trade Matters.

LONDON, June 7.—The news is meager today. The telegraph lines are still deranged in some directions, and particularly in Ireland. Dispatches to and from that island are somewhat delayed.

LIVERPOOL, June 7.—Yesterday afternoon Lord DERBY laid the corner-stone of the new Stanley Hospital in this city. Appropriate speeches were made by Lord DERBY and other celebrities. A large crowd of people witnessed the ceremonies.

BOMBAY, June 6, via LONDON, June 7.—The prospects of the cotton crop are improving. Heavy rains have fallen in the planting districts and the apprehensions of a short crop have been removed.

FRANKFORT-ON-THE-MAIN, June 7.—What is known as the dead season has fairly set in in commercial circles here. A few transactions are made in mortgage bonds, and there is but little doing else.

THE PACIFIC COAST.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Subsidy—Escape of a British Vessel from the United States Marshal—The Oregon Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—A special election will be held to-morrow to determine whether the City of San Francisco shall donate $1,000,000 toward the construction of the Southern Pacific Railroad. There is considerable opposition to the donation, arising from the fact that the Southern Pacific Railroad is but another name for the Central Pacific Company, which owns all the railroads in the State, and will thus control the Southern Pacific route from this coast to the East....The British ship William Wilson sailed for Baker's Island yesterday. The vessel was in the possession of the United States Marshal, pending a suit in the District Court. The Captain forced the Marshal overboard and put to sea. It is rumored that a revenue-cutter will be sent in pursuit....During the last week $122,000 in gold was remitted overland to New-York....The Chollar and the Hale and Norcross Mining Companies have declared dividends; the former $1 and the latter $7 50 per share....The returns of the Oregon election are meager. The indications are that the Legislative contest will be very close. GROVER, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is probably elected by 400 majority. A Portland telegram says the election passed off quietly. The Republicans claim a majority in that city and county, and some gains in other counties, and believe the vote in the State is very close.

A Million Voted by San Francisco to the Southern Pacific Railroad—Chinamen for New-Orleans—The Oregon Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—The special election in this city today on the question of issuing $1,000,000 of bonds to aid the Southern Pacific Railroad passed off quietly. The question was decided in the affirmative. The vote was small. Colored people voted for the first time in the State....The revenue cutter Wayanda has returned from an unsuccessful cruise in search of the runaway British ship William Wilson....B. J. DORSEY yesterday shipped 150 Chinamen to New-Orleans to work on plantations....The entire Democratic State ticket is probably elected in Oregon. The Republicans claim the member of Congress. The Legislature is doubtful. The indications are that the Democratic majority will be from five to eight on a joint ballot. The general result shows large Republican gains. GARFIELD, Republican, is elected delegate to Congress from Washington Territory.

THE INDIANS.

A Council at the Indian Bureau—The President's Views Made Known—Red Cloud's Oration—He Demands the Removal of Fort Fetterman.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The great council between the Indian delegates, the Secretary of the Interior, and Commissioner PARKER was held at the Indian Office this morning. Several gentlemen holding official positions under the Government, having relations with Indian tribes, were present, including Gen. SMITH, Messrs. COLLYER and BRUNOT, of the Peace Commission, and others. The red men took their seats in the Council Chamber about 11 o'clock, and the conference lasted until 1. They were arrayed in all the finery they possess, and were evidently much impressed with the importance of the occasion. After the usual formalities of hand shaking hands, the Commissioner announced to the Chiefs that what RED CLOUD had spoken to them had been thought over, and the Secretary of the Interior would now give our reply. His words were the words of the President on the subject of RED CLOUD's speech.

THE REPLY.

The Secretary then addressed the Indians at considerable length in relation to the requests they had made and the feeling of the Government concerning them. He explained to them that when our people grew so fast as to crowd upon the plains we wanted to find a place for the Sioux to live where they would not be disturbed. For that reason our great soldier (Gen. SHERMAN) made the treaty to give them the country which they now have, and to take our own people out of it, so they might live there alone. Lately some of our young people wanted to go there again to look for the gold in the hills, but the President refused to let them go, saying it had been promised to the Sioux, and they must keep it. They may be sure, therefore, that the President will do what he said, and they shall not be disturbed while they are peaceable in that Territory. We have asked Congress to give us plenty of money to continue feeding them, so that their rations may be sure. We expect them to do that; so, therefore, we feel that that part of their request will be granted. We shall send them, also, the goods which we have promised, so that they and their wives and children shall have clothing to wear. They asked for powder and lead. I want to tell them just what we feel about that. The white people who live on the frontier have been frightened. They say that RED CLOUD and his people have been threatening them. They are afraid they will hurt the people along the frontier. We want RED CLOUD and his people to say to us here, before they go away, that they will never do so, and that they will keep peace with all our people who are there. when they have said that and we can tell the people so, we think they will be no longer afraid to let them have arms to hunt with. There have been people killed near the Union Pacific Railroad and we do not know who did it; some say it was the Sioux, others that it was the Cheyennes, and still others lay it upon the Arapahoes.

At this point RED CLOUD, who was a very attentive listener to what the Secretary was saying, remarked that he had heard this reported before he left his country. There were no Sioux south of the railroad. They were across the Platte.

Secretary COX, resuming, said we will believe what RED CLOUD says, but as our people are frightened, we cannot say that we will give them guns. We must wait till there is a peace with all the Indians before we can do it. Our people are not to come on the Indian reservation, but they will come out along the line of the railroads and be near them in that way. The Government will send Mr. BRUNOT (whose presence at the council was indicated to the Indians) this Summer, to see them, and to see that they get the rations which will be sent to them. When he goes he will ask which is the best thing we can do for them. He will ask if anybody has done them any wrong, and they can tell him when he comes back. We will try to do what he says they need to have done. The great thing we want to say to them is that if they will keep peace we will try to do everything they ask that is right.

This concluded the Secretary's speech to the Indians, and after a few moments, during which RED CLOUD seemed to be in a very deliberative mood, that distinguished Chief arose and came to the table where sat the officials. He shook hands with those at the table in the Council room, and delivered the following oration:

AN INDIAN ORATION.

"I came from where the sun sets. You were raised on chairs. I want to sit as I sit where the sun sets. (Here the Indian warrior sat upon the floor, in Indian fashion, and proceeded.) The Great Spirit has raised me this way. He raised me naked. I run no opposition to the Great Father who sits in the White House. I don't want to fight. I have offered my prayer to the Great Father so that I might come here safe and well. What I have to say to you, and to these men and to my Great Father is this: Look at me. I was raised where the sun rises and I come from where he sets. Whose voice was first heard in this land? It was the red people who used the bow. The Great Father may be good and kind, but I can't see it. I am good and kind to the white people, and have given my lands, and have now come from where the sun sets to see you. The Great Father has sent his people out there and left me nothing but an island. Our nation is melting away like the snow on the side of the hills where the sun is warm; while your people are like the blades of grass in Spring when Summer is coming. I don't want to see the white people making roads in our country. Now that I have come into my Great Father's land, see if I have any blood when I return to my home? The white people have sprinkled blood on the blades of grass about the line of Fort Fetterman. Tell the Great Father to remove that fort, then we will be peaceful and there will be no more trouble. I have got two mountains in that country—Black Hill and Big Horn. I want no roads there. There have been stakes driven in that country, and I want them removed. I have told these things three times, and I now have come here to tell them for the fourth time. I have made up my mind to talk that way. I don't want my reservation on the Missouri. Some of these people here are from there, and I know what I say. What I hear is that my children and old men are dying off like sheep. The country don't suit them. I was born at the Forks of the Platte. My father and mother told me that the land there belonged to me. From the North and the West the Red nation has come into the Great Father's house. We are the last of the Ogallalas. We have come to know the facts from our Father why the promises which have been made to us have not been kept. I want two or three traders that we ask for. At the mouth of Horse Creek, in 1852, there was a treaty made, and the man who made that treaty (alluding to Gen. MITCHELL,) who performed that service for the Government, told me the truth. Goods which have been sent out to me have been stolen all along the road, and only a handfull would reach me to go among my nation. Look at me. Here I am poor and naked. I was not raised with arms. I always want to be peaceable. The Great Spirit has raised you to read and write, and has put papers before you; but he has not raised me in that style. The men whom the President sends us, soldiers and all, have no sense and no heart. I know it today. I didn't ask that the whites should go through my country killing game, and it is the Great Father's fault. You are the people who should keep peace. For the railroads you are passing through my country I have not received even so much as a brass ring for the land they occupy. I wish you to tell that to my Great Father. You whites make all the ammunition. What is the reason you don't give it to me? Are you afraid I am going to war? You are great and powerful and I am only a handfull. I do not want it for that purpose, but to kill game with. I suppose I must, in time, go to farming, but I can't do it right away."

Each sentence of this speech was received with loud grunts, denoting hearty applause, from the Indians present.

LITTLE BEAR'S SPEECH.

After RED CLOUD concluded, LITTLE BEAR made a short speech, complaining of bad treatment by soldiers and others while he was engaged in farming operations. Several of his young men, he said, were shot while out hunting, and that ended his corn raising. He reiterated the main features and complaints of RED CLOUD's speech.

Secretary COX promised to report all that had been said to the President, and arrange a time for meeting with him.

AN APPEAL FOR THE PARDON OF RICHARD.

The present conference practically ends the business of hearing complaints and determining action on them, as was evidenced by the speech of the Secretary. Both RED CLOUD and SPOTTED TAIL made strong appeals today for the pardon of JOHN RICHARD, the half-breed, who recently killed a soldier at Fort Fetterman, and who is here with RED CLOUD's party as interpreter. This, they have been informed by the Commissioner, is being considered by the President.

RED CLOUD DELIBERATING.

They were invited to an entertainment at the deaf and dumb asylum, but RED CLOUD declined, saying if he was to see the Great Father again he wanted time to deliberate upon what to say.

INTRUSION ON INDIAN LANDS.

The following order from the War Department, dated June 4, 1870, is published:

"When lands are secured to the Indians by treaty against occupation by the whites, the military commanders shall keep intruders off by military force if necessary, until such time as the Indian title is extinguished of the lands are opened by Congress for settlement."

The Outrages on Bear Creek—Cold-Blooded Murders by Savages.

ST. LOUIS, June 7.—Capt. MITCHELL, of the Fifth Infantry, arrived here yesterday from the Indian country. He furnishes an account of a recent attack on Bear Creek station, forty miles south of Fort Dodge. Thirty-five Indians came to the station, which was guarded by Sergt. MURRAY and four men of the Third Infantry, who represented themselves as Arrapahoes. After cooking and eating some time in a friendly manner, all but seven left. Those remaining then shot two of MURRAY's men and severely wounded the Sergeant himself, after which they fled. Sixty mules, belonging to Mr. TRIAING, a trader of Camp Supply, were run off, and one herder was killed. Two or three other men were also killed at different places.

A STEAMER ASHORE.

The Cunard Steamer Tripoli on the Rocks of Cohasset, Mass—Probability of Floating Off at High Tide.

BOSTON, June 7.—The Cunard steam-ship Tripoli, from Liverpool for Boston, in attempting to make this harbor ran ashore, at 11 o'clock this forenoon, on the rocks off Cohasset. She lies about two miles from the beach. She leaks some in her forward compartments, but has as yet received no serious injury. The passengers are all safe on board. The steamer Charles Rearsons and several tugs have gone to her assistance. As she went on at low water, it is believed that she will float on the rising of the tide, and come off in good shape, with the assistance of the steamers that gone to her aid.

The Steamer Floats Off at High Tide—A Compartment Full of Water.

BOSTON, June 7.—The steam-ship Tripoli, before reported ashore off Cohasset, was got off without much difficulty on the flood tide, and, after being extricated from her dangerous position, proceeded for the city, reaching her berth at 7 P. M. The extent of the damage is not exactly ascertained, but it is probably confined to the forward part of the vessel's bottom, where a hole was stove so that one of the compartments was filled with water. The injury is not serious. The vessel was in charge of a Boston pilot when she struck. The passengers are all well.

CANADA.

Fenian Designs Against the Red River Force—French Sentiment—The Manitoba Bill.

TORONTO, Ontario, June 7.—It is stated that about 100 Chicago Fenians threatened a raid on a camp at Sault Sainte Marie. Preparations having been made to meet them, it is believed they decided to go to Duluth. Intelligence has been received from Fort Garry that a large meeting of French settlers had been held at White Horse Plains, when fighting and resistance to the Red River expedition was unanimously favored. It is believed that a declaration of independence will be issued. REIL is making no preparations to oppose the expedition. The Manitoba bill will probably be adopted by the Red River Legislature. Two companies of United States Infantry have arrived at St. Joseph's.

The International Typographical Union—Meeting at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, June 7.—At the meeting of the International Typographical Union, this morning, the reports of the President and Vice-President were read. The Treasurer's report shows that the receipts were $2,544 49 and the disbursements $1,345 69. The new officers were then installed, the retiring President welcoming the incoming President, who replied in a neat speech. Various invitations were accepted. The following Committees were announced:

On Finance—John H. Wharton, C. H. Bates, John Vincent, William C. Vaughn, George H. Kelly, F. Schlagel.

On Appeals—E. J. Lafferty, M. G. Rainwater, A. A. Pomeroy, V. B. Chase, A. Roberts, John McGill.

On Subordinate Unions—C. C. Coffinberry, R. E. Jones, Thomas Quinn, William Amison, James A. Rogers, George W. Fowler.

On Returns—G. A. R. McNeir, T. W. Flood, W. R. Henningsworth, J. B. Strickland, C. N. Cullen, Chas. Ellis.

On Unfinished Business—F. Freckleton, W. C. Gillies, C. Meyerhoeter, C. B. Edwards, John C. Armstrong, Edward H. Parker.

On New Business—P. F. Croghlan, E. W. Flynn, William McCrellish, D. Hayes, V. B. McCord, C. E. Bronson.

On the President's Report—Crosby Kells, Hammond Palmer, —— Temple.

The Union adopted a resolution discountenancing the plan of some subordinate Unions of giving their printing to the lowest bidder. The delegates went into secret session, remaining in session until 1 P. M., after which they resumed open session, and without transacting further important business, adjourned until to-morrow.

Base-Ball—Games in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—About two thousand persons witnessed the game of base-ball, this afternoon, between the Haymakers, of Troy, and the Keystones, of this city. The game opened with the Haymakers at the bat Each Club scored three runs on the first inning, and at the end of the third inning the score stood 8 to 8. After the third inning the Haymakers, by heavy batting, scored 33 to their opponents' 12 runs, winning the game by a score of 41 to 20.

Umpire—JOHN SENSENDERFER, of Athletics.

In consequence of the fine general play and heavy batting of the Haymakers today, great interest is felt in the result of the game to-morrow with the Athletics.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 7.—The game of base-ball this afternoon, between the Stars, of Brooklyn, and the Marylands, of this city, resulted in favor of the Stars, 23 to 7, as follows:

Stars	3	3	2	1	2	3	3	4	2—23
Marylands	0	0	0	1	1	2	2	1	0—7

About 1,500 spectators were present.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7—The Forest City Club, of Rockford, Ill., played the Olympics, of this city, again today. The Forest City won the game by the following score:

Forest City	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	2	4—8
Olympics	3	1	1	0	1	0	1	0	0—7

Boston, Hartford and Erie—The State Irregularities.

BOSTON, Mass., June 7.—The Senate today assigned Thursday next, at 12½, for taking the question on ordering to a third reading the bill in aid of the Boston, Hartford and Erie Railway. In the United States Circuit Court today, Judge CLIFFORD overruled the application for the arrest of judgment in the cases of CHAS. H. WARD, CHAS. MELLEN and JULIUS HARTWELL, convicted of being principals in the famous State-street "irregularities," two years ago, and Saturday next was assigned for their sentence. Rev. DAVID REED, for forty years widely known as proprietor of the Christian Register, which he founded, died last evening at his residence at Boston Highlands, aged seventy-nine years.

APPOINTMENTS.

Confirmations by the Senate and Nominations by the President.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Senate in Executive Session today confirmed the following nominations:

NOMINATIONS.

The President today nominated to the Senate:

Albert M. Farney, to be Collector of Customs at Brazos de Santiago, Texas; James B. Delford, of Indiana, to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Colorado; Samuel D. Houston, to be Receiver of Public Money at Junction City, Kansas; O. H. Sheldon, to be Postmaster at Burlingame, Kansas.

Murder and Suicide in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—About 9½ P. M., at the house of P. A. HALLOWAY, in Ninth-street, near Wharton, in the south-western part of the city, AMELIA MCLAUGHLIN, aged twenty-one, a domestic, was shot and killed by a young man, a gas-fitter, named WILLIAM STRATTON, who immediately afterwards shot himself in the head, dying in a few minutes. STRATTON was of intemperate habits, and had been in the habit of visiting the girl. He was forbidden the house a few weeks ago. When he fired at her this evening he was close enough to set fire to her clothes. Two bullets entered her breast.

Miscellaneous Telegrams.

ITHACA, N. Y., June 7.—Hon. HORATIO SEYMOUR has accepted the invitation to be present at the Commencement Exercises of the Cornell University on June 30, and to deliver the address on the previous evening before the College of History. The other leading addresses will be delivered by Hon. GEORGE B. LORING, of Massachusetts, before the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, and C. D. BRIDGMAN, of Albany, before the College of Literature and Philosophy.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 7.—THOMAS WILLS, arrested here, at the instance of his son, on a charge of being an escaped convict from Blackwell's Island, N. Y., and also on a further charge of bigamy, had an examination last evening on the latter charge, and was committed to await the action of the Grand Jury. WILLS resided in England, where he married his first wife in 1842. He deserted her twice and came to Baltimore, where on the 28th of October last he married a Miss HARVEY, a milliner, under the name of Henry Roberts.

BOSTON, June 7.—The dead body of J. J. MERRILL, a resident of Haverhill, was found this morning lying on the Common. It was taken in charge by the Coroner....In Amesbury, Mass., today, JOHN CAMPBELL, who has been married five years, shot his wife in a fit of jealousy. She is supposed to be mortally wounded. CAMPBELL has been arrested.

The Smithsonian Institution at Washington—Leave of Absence to the Secretary—Action of the Regents.

At a meeting of the Regents of the Smithsonian Institution, held in Washington on the 23d day of May, it was resolved:

That Hon. SALMON P. CHASE, Chief-Justice of the United States, and Chancellor of the Board of Regents; Hon. LYMAN TRUMBULL, a Senator from the State of Illinois, and Hon. LUKE P. POLAND, a Representative from the State of Vermont, be appointed to prepare, on behalf of the Board of Regents, a letter accrediting Prof. JOSEPH HENRY, the Secretary of said Institution, who is about to visit Europe, to the various learned institutions, societies and persons in the European States.

Accordingly the following has been drawn up:

The undersigned, cheerfully accepting the duty thus conferred, do on behalf of the Board of Regents most cordially commend the learned and venerable Secretary of our Institution to the kindly consideration and good offices of the learned institutions, societies and persons of such European countries as he may find time to visit. Our Smithsonian was founded by the liberality of a friend and promoter of science in Europe who never resided in this country. It must be, therefore, that the learned men of Europe take peculiar interest in the success and advancement of the Institution, in increasing and diffusing knowledge among men. The Board of Regents are ever happy to acknowledge that the great success of the Institution, and the great contributions it has made to the science and knowledge of the world, are very largely due to the labors and efforts of Prof. HENRY, who has had the active charge and control of it from its infancy.

The Board of Regents have advised a cessation of his severe labors for the Institution, for this visit to Europe, and they hope that it may be both agreeable and profitable to him. Again commending him to the hospitality of the learned savans of Europe, we have the honor to subscribe ourselves, &c.,

(Signed)

SALMON P. CHASE,
Chief-Justice United States and Chancellor of Smithsonian Institution.
LYMAN TRUMBULL,
United States Senator.
LUKE P. POLAND,
Representative from Vermont.

Dangers of the Morris and Essex Railroad.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

In the account, in your Sunday morning issue, of the last "smash-up" on the Morris and Essex Division, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, which occurred at Newark on Saturday forenoon, 4th inst., your readers got but a faint idea of the great peril in which the passengers by that train were placed. Now that the Railroad Company are in the constant practice of running their heavy coal-trains between the passenger-trains throughout the day, and not, as formerly, mostly at night, I do not see but that every passenger-train standing at the depot at Newark, bound for New-York, incurs the same danger. The train in question arrived at Newark about one hour behind time. It consisted of three cars only, the last of which was the smoking-car. Almost upon our arrival at Newark, the signal for the drawbridge being open was given, and was continued for some ten minutes or more, when the sudden outcries of people on the platform at the station aroused the passengers from their fancied security, causing a rush to get out. At the same time our engineer slowly started his train as far ahead as he dared with the open draw of that high bridge before him, and while so doing the coal-train came smashing into the smoking-car, grinding the floor and seats into fragments. What a "growling commuter" wants to know is, what right or business had that coal-train to follow the passenger-train down the hill at all, with the open draw signals in full sight and operation? Two providential circumstances saved many lives from sacrifice and the Company from a fearful responsibility. One is, that the train was so short an one, and the other that the smoking-car, with its half dozen passengers, was in the rear. It would have been simply impossible for all the occupants of the middle car to have escaped. Having been a passenger on that train, I speak knowingly of the circumstances. Is it too much to ask Mr. President SLOANE to compel his coal conductors to stop their trains at the top of the heavy grade, on which experience proves that they cannot always hold them, until all trains at the foot of the grade are out of the way.

Our National Bank Circulation—Statements from the Controller—Schemes of the Opponents to Free Coal—The Senate and the Tax and Tariff Bills—San Domingo—Miscellaneous.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Some very interesting figures have been prepared at the office of the Controller of the Currency, showing various things relative to the present condition of our national bank circulation. The following table shows how the $25,000,000 provided for in Mr. GARFIELD's pending bill would be distributed, on the basis of the population as under existing laws:

Virginia would get $1,845,732; West Virginia, $479,622; Illinois, $2,096,136; Michigan, $894,486; Wisconsin, $1,068,278; Iowa, $758,262; Kansas, $111,196; Missouri, $1,818,692; Kentucky, $106,000; Tennessee, $157,752; Louisiana, $1,819,932; Mississippi, $905,580; Nebraska, $312,187; Georgia, $1,620,826; North Carolina, $1,297,985; South Carolina, $1,301,352; Alabama, $1,277,100; Oregon, $637,260; Texas, $681,292; Arkansas, $468,528; Utah, $400,764; California, $715,516; Florida, $166,088; Dakota, $4,644; New-Mexico, $8,599; Washington Territory, $1,490; Delaware, $80,441; Ohio, $2,249,357; Indiana, $215,153. Total, $25,000,000.

The Controller goes into a long examination of this bill and our laws, making an estimate of the tax and interest accounts of the Government with the banks; and concludes it by saying that, under this proposed measure, Government would pay $475,000 interest in gold, annually, on the four and one-half per cent. bonds required to secure the proposed $95,000,000 of circulation; and the receipts from taxes on circulation would be reduced $1,500,000, in currency, annually, when the four and a half per cent. bonds should be deposited to secure the existing $300,000,000 of circulation. At the same time there would be saved by the exchange of gold-bearing bonds $4,362,021 in gold annually in the difference of interest which would be paid, and by the proposed retirement of three per cent. temporary loan certificates, the $1,365,000 currency interest now paid thereon would be saved annually, and the receipts of the Government on circulation capital deposits and net earnings would be increased $1,608,338 in currency annually, making altogether an annual net gain to the Government of $1,085,352. He further shows that in 1861 there were 1,603 State banks, with capital of $430,702,913, and a total circulation of $202,175,167; while on the 1st of last October there were 1,620 national banks, with a capital of $432,163,611. and a circulation of $299,789,895. He finally shows that under a provision scaling down Eastern banks so as to get $25,000,000 for redistribution, Massachusetts would lose $11,182,045; New-York, $9,140,955; Rhode Island, $2,397,974; Connecticut, $2,169,026, and Maryland, $110,000.

THE FREE COAL BILL.

The art of putting things is to be cunningly illustrated on the Free Coal bill when it reaches the House. The Ways and Means Committee were instructed yesterday to report this bill, and Gen. SCHENCK promised that the order would be obeyed today. It seems, however, that the duty of drawing up the measure was passed over to MAYNARD, who is decidedly opposed to it, and will take his own time to do it. He half promises to report it to-morrow. Being in the hands of a high tariff man, no effort will be made to get early action upon it; but it is to be allowed to go to the foot of the calendar, where it can scarcely be reached at the present session. In case it is called up by any of its friends, the game of its opponents is said to be to move all sorts of amendments, and thus bring forward a general tariff debate, and talk the bill to death in the interest of the monopolists. How well this nice scheme will work remains to be seen; but Pennsylvanians are very confident that no such thing as free coal will be obtained at this session, and they have probably studied the field and calculated their resources.

THE TAX AND TARIFF BILL.

The Tax and Tariff bill reached the Senate at 1 o'clock today, and was at once referred to the Finance Committee, which meets at 10 to-morrow A. M. to begin its consideration, in the hope that they may be able to report upon it early next week. Senators seem to be a good deal divided in opinion as to the action upon it of their body; but it is evident that there will be an effort to strike out all the first part so as to abolish the whole system of special or license taxes. Mr. SHERMAN thinks the income clauses should be retained, and will vigorously oppose the movement to strike them out.

THE TREASURY CLERKS.

The Secretary of the Treasury has sent a letter to a member of the House in relation to the clerical force and expenses of his department. He says that since he came into office there has been a decrease of 314 employes. The force in the Printing Bureau has been increased by twenty-four per cent., while the work has increased fifty-eight per cent. He says that in the year ending on the 1st of last March, the net saving in the Bureau of Engraving was at the rate of about $353,000 per annum. The Department is not able to do all the stamp work for the Internal Revenue Bureau; but so far as it can execute it, the saving is nearly one-half over the rates of the Bank-note Companies.

THE SAN DOMINGO TREATY.

The Senate, in Executive session today, had a warm and somewhat personal debate on the question of investigating the stories about corruption in connection with the San Domingo treaty and purchase. The friends of the treaty held that no investigation should be made till these reports were indorsed by some sort of responsible authority, and the resolution upon the subject was finally tabled, though it can be called up again if thought desirable. The resolution authorizes the Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire into the history and character of the negotiations for the purchase of San Domingo by the United States Government and the circumstances attending them, and also to make an investigation of the truth of current statements relative to the franchise grants of lands, &c., dependent upon the ratification of said treaty, the Committee to have power to send for persons and papers.

COUNTERFEIT TOBACCO STAMPS.

Supervisor FULTON has made some important discoveries of counterfeit or photographed tobacco stamps. On tobacco boxes and pouches in Baltimore, he made seizures of a lot of tobacco in that city yesterday, which had been shipped from North Carolina and Virginia to houses there. He found the sixty-pound stamp had been photographed, and the ruling printed across the stamp had been made by pen or stencil, and then marked with similar ink. Mr. FULTON also reports that today his officers discovered a lot of tobacco stamped with counterfeit forty and twenty-five pound stamps.

THE CUBAN REPORTS.

The majority and minority Cuban reports from the House Foreign Committee will probably be made public here to-morrow. That of the minority is signed by Messrs. ORTH, JUDD, AMBLER and WILLARD. The accompanying bill was drawn and brought in by Mr. ORTH, but the report, it is now ascertained, was written by Mr. AMBLER, though also submitted by Mr. ORTH as the senior member of the minority. It should be borne in mind that the action of the Committee on which these reports are based was had some weeks ago, and there is strong reason to believe that, if the matter were to be reconsidered in committee now, the minority report would be signed by at least two more members, and thereby become, in fact, the report of a majority.

GEN. HOWARD'S DEFENSE.

Gen. HOWARD today began his defense before the Freedman's Bureau in Investigating Committee of the House. He submitted copies of his annual reports, and also some written documents relative to the financial operation of the Bureau. He also explained, as he could, certain real estate operations near Washington, about which the prosecution has put in a great deal of evidence.

THE BELGIAN CABLE PROJECT.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today somewhat considered the American-Belgian cable project. The gentlemen therein interested, citizens of our country, have a twenty years' grant from the Belgian Government, and ask nothing from Congress but permission to land, subject to State jurisdiction, and operate the cable under such rules as Congress may, from time to time, establish for the government of international telegraphic lines. It is understood that the project meets some opposition from Mr. CYRUS W. FIELD and others, but it is believed that the Committee will give it a favorable report next week.

THE WASHINGTON CITY ELECTION.

The Republican reform victory here yesterday was very complete. EMORY for Mayor, carried every ward in the city, and has 3,219 majority. His supporters elected five out of seven Aldermen, fifteen out of twenty-one Councilmen and six out of seven Assessors.

PERSONAL.

Among the confirmations today by the Senate was that of Gen. MARSTON as Governor of Idaho, in place of BARD, of Georgia, recently appointed and resigned. Gen. MARSTON was formerly a member of Congress from New-Hampshire, and is one of the numerous candidates before the Legislature of that State for Mr. CRAGIN's place in the Senate. The nomination of State Senator POTTS, of Ohio, for Governor of Montana, in place of ASHLEY, was further debated without conclusion. The friends of Mr. POTTS profess to have made a canvass of the Senate, and say they do not doubt his confirmation when the vote is reached.

Secretary ROBESON is attending commencement at the Naval Academy today. The Board of Visitors will be relieved from duty there as soon as the premiums are distributed. Secretary BELKNAP has gone to West Point. Gen. SHERMAN has not yet returned here, and it is understood he will also go to West Point. The President had intended to leave to-morrow with Senators CAMERON, HOWE and EDMUNDS, for a few days fishing in Pennsylvania, but there seems to be a hitch somewhere in the arrangements.

MEXICAN CLAIMS.

The mixed Commission for the settlement of the claims between Mexico and the United States will resume its session next Monday. Some of the cases which have been prepared during the month's recess will then be considered. A gentleman largely interested says that there are upward of two thousand claims, which may occupy five years in adjudication.

GEORGIA AND TENNESSEE.

The Reconstruction Committee this morning attached to the Georgia bill a proviso that nothing therein should interfere with an election in Georgia this Fall, as provided by the Georgia Constitution; and the Committee resolved to postpone action with regard to Tennessee until the next session.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

SECOND SESSION.

SENATE....WASHINGTON, Tuesday, June 7.

Mr. SHERMAN, from the Committee on Finance, reported the House bill providing for an Assistant Treasurer at Baltimore.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Bills were introduced to change the location of a certain railroad in the State of Minnesota; granting condemned ordnance for soldiers' monuments at Providence, R. I., and at Bucksport, Me.; and to grant the right of way to the Arkansas and Delta Railroad, and to aid in the construction of the same.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The Senate set apart Tuesday next, the 14th inst., for consideration of business from the Committee on Commerce, and the bill for appointment of Representatives in Congress among the several States was made the special order for Thursday the 9th inst.

LAND DISTRICTS.

Mr. THAYER called up the bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to change the boundaries of land districts without increasing their number. Passed.

THE PREVIOUS QUESTION.

The unfinished business of the morning hour, the proposed amendment of the rules by providing for calling the previous question in the Senate, &c., was discussed until 1 o'clock.

INDIAN APPROPRIATIONS.

The Indian appropriation bill came up in order, when a motion to pass the bill over was rejected, and the bill proceeded with.

Mr. POMEROY offered as an amendment the bill for the removal of the Osage Indians in Kansas, the sale of their reservation to actual settlers at $1 25 per acre, and the settlement of the tribe in the Indian country. He advocated his amendment in the interest of the settlers of land, as a means of securing peaceful homes for the Indians, and advancing the prosperity of the State.

Mr. DAVIS inquired whether there was any "stealage" in the bill?

Mr. POMEROY replied if there was, the Committee on Indian Affairs should have found it out. He did not know of any.

Mr. DAVIS said he would admit, if the honorable Senator (POMEROY) did not know of any stealage in the bill, there must be none.

Mr. MORRILL, of Maine, opposed the amendment as an attempt to take unfair advantage of the Indians. He said a portion of the lands had been received by the United States in trust by treaty, and submitted an amendment to provide for receiving the balance in trust with a view to their disposal at $1 25 per acre for the benefit of the Indians and providing homes for them in the Indian Territory.

Mr. DRAKE said he was not in favor of running Indians off their lands to make room for any railroad that might be projected to run upon them. He preferred to let such enterprises take care of themselves.

Mr. MORTON said as soon as the lands of Indian reservations became valuable the Indians were run off to other reservations, and that Indian land titles did, in fact, depend solely upon the will of Congress for validity. The Indian Territory was said to be one of the most fertile and beautiful tracts of country in the United States, and from what he had learned of the desire already to occupy those lands, he believed the next Indian war would occur there; that the Indians could not long be kept from contact with the whites there. At this time there were people on the Kansas border actually living in camps in the expectation of occupying those lands. He believed the Indian reservation system a failure. Instead of pushing the Indians further westward, he would have civilization go to the west of them, and bring them under its influences.

Mr. YATES argued that the present policy had been followed from the beginning, and that pioneer settlers of the West in pushing the Indians before them, were following the example of their predecessors as far back as the Puritan fathers. He considered the retirement of the Indians a necessary sequence to the advance of civilization, and that the Western wilds would sooner or later be opened to modern improvement.

Mr. MORRILL's amendment was rejected—17 to 25.

The Senate then at 4¼ went into Executive session, and subsequently adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. SCOFIELD, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported back the Senate joint resolution for the relief of Commander A. B. BISSELL, with an amendment extending its provisions also to Commander JOHN C. CARTER. Passed.

Mr. FINKELNBURG, from the Committee on Commerce, reported the bill to establish a port of delivery at Kansas City, Mo. Passed.

Mr. DAVIS, from the Judiciary Committee, reported the bill to provide for the care and custody of persons convicted in United States Courts who have or may become insane, authorizing their transfer to the Insane Asylum of the District of Columbia. Passed.

Mr. MERCUR, from the Judiciary Committee, reported the bill authorizing terms of the United States Courts to be held at Helena, Ark. Passed.

COMPENSATION IN CONTESTED ELECTION CASES.

The House then resumed the consideration of the bill reported from the Committee of Elections, regulating payments of members in cases of contested elections.

Mr. DAWES renewed the argument which he had commenced when the bill was up last week. He desired the House to consider whether any proper remedy could be devised for the evil, as under this state of things elections were contested in such number that the House had been compelled this session to make five different and separate Committees of Election, involving the House in the absurdity of five different Courts, making five different independent and conflicting rulings, perhaps on the same questions of fact. He favored the principle of the bill to pay only half compensation to the sitting member whose seat is contested, until the contest is decided. He admitted that there were difficulties in the matter of contested elections which lay deeper than could be reached by statute. They lay in the prejudices and passions of party.

Mr. WILLARD argued that the bill did not cure the evil complained of, but simply legalized it. He was in favor of saying to contestants, that unless they made their claim good, nothing would be paid to them either for expenses or gratuity.

Mr. MARSHALL admitted that there had been great abuses in the matter of contested elections, but he believed that the pending bill would produce still greater evils. He was therefore opposed to it.

Mr. PAINE, Chairman of the Committee, advocated the bill, and moved the previous question. The previous question was seconded.

Mr. KERR moved that the bill be laid on the table.

Mr. INGERSOLL called for the yeas and nays, remarking that the bill ought to go to the table; that it was the best place for it.

The bill was laid on the table—yeas 90, nays 80.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN FLORIDA AND HAVANA.

Mr. BANKS introduced a bill to promote postal and commercial intercourse between Cedar Keys, Fla., and Havana, Cuba, authorizing a contract with JOHN F. PATTERSON and associates for a weekly mail service, at a cost not exceeding $70,000 a year. Referred.

THE FINANCIAL QUESTION.

The House then, at 12½, proceeded to the consideration of the bill reported by Mr. GARFIELD, from the Committee on Banking and Currency, to increase banking facilities, and for other purposes.

Mr. GARFIELD spoke in explanation and advocacy of the bill, and hoped to have the attention and sympathy of the House in undertaking such a delicate and difficult task. In view of the angular chaos of opinions on the subject, he confessed himself utterly unable to realize his own views on the bill, which could possibly pass the House, and had, therefore, to prepare a bill under these difficulties, and under the additional difficulties of instructions from the House, and of expressions of views in the Senate. After discussing the general subject of the distinction between coin and paper money, he quoted from a recent publication, The Science of Finance, by ROBERT H. PATTERSON, of Scotland, to show that the paper circulation of the United Kingdom had remained practically stationary for the last twenty-five years, since 1844, when the great Currency act of Sir ROBERT PEEL forbade the increase of paper money except in a very limited way, and then under great restrictions. And yet within that time the United Kingdom had trebled its wealth and quadrupled its trade. The great instrument of British trade was neither coin nor paper, but the check, the commercial bill, the draft on the bank. Not five per cent., according to this writer, of all the business of the United Kingdom was transacted in coin or paper money, more than ninety-five per cent. of it being transacted through the banks, in the form of drafts, bills and transfers of credit. This was a remarkable fact, which should be taken into account in all discussions of currency and trade facilities. It showed that the bank was today the great mechanism for facilitating trade, rather than coin or notes. He believed the first great want of the country was a sound currency exchangeable into coin; but as that was impossible at present, and beyond his aspirations, he would say that the second great want of the country was increased facilities for making exchanges, whether in the form of paper, notes or banking credit. That was the great and pressing demand of the hour. He replied to the argument as to the distribution of currency, arguing that no matter how distributed it would flow in channels regulated by the laws of trade, and could not be restricted by any absolute provisions of statute law. He said, in reply to an observation by Mr. WOOD, that it was not the mere inequality in the distribution of currency of which complaint was made; it was of the inequality of banking capital and banking facilities that was complained of most. There was a glut of currency in the market. He read from the money article of a New-York morning paper a statement that the associated banks of New-York had, on the 28th of May, 1870, $228,000,000 on deposit, and a circulation of $33,000,000, being a total of $261,000,000. The reserve of twenty-five per cent. on that would amount to $64,500,000. But the banks actually held $94,500,000 of cash reserve, being a surplus of $30,000,000. What was the key to that situation? The succeeding sentence furnished it: "Rate of money four per cent.; money easy. The speculation in the Gold-room is dull." There were scarcely to be found more important facts crowded into a small compass, standing in the relation of cause and effect to each other, and showing the difficulties, than what he had read from that article. What was the cause of the glut in the currency? Because, at the present moment, there was a remarkable lull in the gambling-houses known as the Gold Exchange and the Stock Exchange of New-York. The gamblers were unable to prognosticate the signs of the times; they were waiting to see what Congress would do, and were not using their reserve, but letting it be idle. If Congress were to adjourn without legislation on the financial question, the scenes of July, August and September, 1869, would be repeated, and the whole business of the country would be tossed up and down, and torn by the gamblers of Wall-street. While money was at four per cent. in New-York, respectable merchants in the West, with the best business paper and security, were to try in vain to get loans at fifteen and twenty per cent. Legitimate business was suffering, while the rascals and gamblers who dealt in the nation's life-blood had money easy at their command. And this was one of the conditions that grew out of the unequal circulation and unequal distribution of banking facilities. The Committee on Banking and Currency had been subjected to newspaper attacks, growing out of the bill; one paper denouncing the bill as one of contraction, and another denouncing it as one of inflation. He stated facts to show it was not a bill of contraction, and wished it was as easy for him to prove that it was not one of inflation. That was the great difficulty which he had with the bill. As to the suggestions in favor of issuing greenbacks, he was entirely opposed to it. But if that difficulty were not in the way, there was still another and a greater one. A greenback currency issued not in connection with banks was not regulated by the wants of business. It was just so much the year round, while every man knew that in some seasons of the year more circulation was needed for business than at others. He deemed the issue of currency by the Government as unphilosophical, unsafe and ill-adapted to the wants of business, and he reminded the House of the late decision of the Supreme Court against the Legal-tender act. He went on to discuss, briefly, the sections of the bill relating to gold banks, saying, that on the Pacific coast, in Texas, in New-Orleans, in Charleston, and in New-York, these banks would be established. He declared himself unmistakably in favor of continuing, and amending, if need be, the national banking system, contrasting its security to the public under the old full banking system.

Mr. COX opposed the bill. The sine qua non of all legislation on the subject was a successful scheme of resumption.

Various amendments were offered and ordered printed.

Mr. SMITH, of Vermont, next addressed the House in support of the bill, and Mr. MORGAN made an argument against the bill, beginning his remarks with comments upon the inattention of members to the important subject of the bill, as evinced by so many empty seats.

SALE OF CHARLESTOWN NAVY-YARD.

Mr. LYNCH introduced a joint resolution authorizing the sale of the Navy-yard at Charlestown, Mass., and the removal of the materials to Kittery, Maine, which was referred.

THE CENSUS.

On motion of Mr. GARFIELD, the Senate amendment authorizing an increase of compensation to census-takers was taken from the Speaker's table and passed.

The House then, at 5 o'clock P. M., took a recess till 7½ P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

There were but few members present at the evening session. Mr. AMBLER was in the chair. Several prepared speeches on the Currency bill were read or were ordered to be printed in the Globe. The proceedings had no public interest.

VENEZUELA.

Capture of Porto Cabello—The Port of Maracaibo Closed.

By the last accounts received here from Caracas on the 9th ultimo, GUZMAN BLANCO had taken Laguayra and Caracas, and was preparing an expedition to attack Porto Cabello and Maracaibo. We have now intelligence by a cable dispatch received in this City, dated Havana, 5th June, as follows: "Porto Cabello taken by President GUZMAN BLANCO. Maracaibo closed to commerce."

Assessor NEEDHAM, of the Fifth District of Kentucky, reports that there were fourteen distilleries in operation in that district during the year ending April 30, 1870, and that they produced 1,096,397 gallons, a decrease of 61,367 gallons, as compared with the year previous, when there were but eleven distilleries. None of the distillers have been charged with any fraud since the law of July 20, 1868, went into operation.

CURRENT NOTES.

Minnesota has had much trouble with its railroad bonds. Even St. Paul is anxious to be relieved from "these bonds."

ROBERT TOOMBS is to deliver the oration at the decoration of the graves of the Confederate dead in Knoxville, Tenn., on Friday next.

A game at marbles between two boys in Tennessee, on Sunday week, was abruptly ended by the skillful use of his penknife by one of them. Marble now marks the grave of the other.

Philadelphia papers are continually complaining that their city is "snubbed" (that is their word) by the General Government, and they seem to take a curious pleasure in reiterating the statement.

JOHNNY CLEM, the drummer boy of Chickamauga, expresses the opinion, in a letter from West Point to a Pittsburg paper, that MICHAEL HOWARD, the colored cadet from Mississippi, is "not bright at all."

A woman offered the customary prayer at the opening of the Connecticut House on Friday for the first time in the history of the State, and one of the New-Haven papers admits that she "made a most commendable invocation."

A widow in Boston, who was under age, recently signed papers giving up her child to another, and Chief-Justice CHAPMAN has decided that the writings have no legal force, she having no legal right merely as a mother and a widow. Exceptions were taken, and the case goes to the full Bench.

Hon. GEORGE P. FISHER refuses to be reckoned among the candidates for the United States Senatorship from Delaware, not that he loves Delaware or the Senate less, but because he loves his professional life in Washington more.

The Columbus (Ohio) State Journal asserts that the newspapers in Judge LAWRENCE's district oppose his renomination, on the ground, chiefly, that he has made more promises than there are offices. But it says it knows nothing as to the truth of the charge.

Some mad wag in Richmond, Va., has sent to one of the local papers, as original, an extract from the Song of Solomon, and the editor introduces it by styling it trash, and saying that it is a fair specimen of the poetical effusions which are daily thrown into his waste-basket.

Eleven Pittsburg jurymen greatly annoyed the twelfth, a staid and respected citizen, on Saturday, who after stating his opinion, lighted his pipe and refused to listen to what they called reason. On returning into Court he informed the Judge that they would not give in, and even his Honor couldn't beat brains into their heads.

An item has been going the rounds of the Press to the effect that "the Greeks are the most sensible people in the world, as they wear one style of dress all the year round." It has at length reached Milwaukee, and last appears in the Sentinel, but with a slight change, the word Greeks being printed Irish.

The Topeka (Kansas) Record has been much enlarged and improved, (it was a good paper before,) and its proprietors rejoice, with a pardonable enthusiasm, at the success which has attended their efforts, claiming that they have more regular readers and a larger general business than any other paper in the State.

The Kansas State Central Committee of colored men has issued a call to the colored men of the State, urging them to attend a mass convention in Leavenworth, on Monday, Aug. 1, to organize, that they may vote unitedly with the Republican Party, under the new privileges secured to them by the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment.

Mr. CHARLES E. MCMURTRIE, of Tyrone, Blair County, Penn., found on Saturday in the depot at Pittsburg, Penn., a wallet containing $21,880 in greenbacks and a check for $3,000. Learning its owner, he restored it, and when offered $1,000 as a reward, refused it, and only after much urging accepted $500, saying that he would devote it to some charitable object.

On Saturday Mrs. BLY, of Baltimore, complained to the police that her husband had shut up her eye by striking her with his fist. She explained with tears (from the other eye) that he sang a different song when they were young, but time had opened her eyes (both of them.) And the paradox puzzled the Police, but they shut up the husband, eyes, mouth and all, and since then Mrs. BLY has slept peacefully.

A Boston merchant, who received two invoices of the same Paris goods, one for 638 francs and the other for 1,038 francs, took them straightway to the Custom-house, handed them to the Collector and paid the larger amount. And all Boston proudly points to him and says: "Behold an honest man, the noblest citizen of the noble citizens of the Athens of America." We hope such honest merchants are not rare in Boston.

The Leavenworth (Kansas) Times says that on Thursday evening last, as Miss OLIVE LOGAN stepped from a carriage in that city, a short time before the hour announced for her lecture, she turned her ankle and was so painfully injured that she fainted. She was conveyed to the residence of her brother, Dr. LOGAN, where she will doubtless be confined for several days. The limb swelled so rapidly that the exact nature and extent of the injury could not be ascertained, but it is supposed to be nothing more than a sprain.

There is just and righteous wrath in Pittsburg. Some fellow, with really, more wit than brains, has sent by mail to the most respected and honored families in the city, a pamphlet, which, the Gazette says, is neatly printed, but altogether without mark of artisan or author, and contains ten pages of rhyme, assailing with scurrilous epithets and vile abuse merchants and gentlemen of fair fame, and, not satisfied with this, spares not their wives nor their daughters.—ladies of the highest standing, irreproachable in character and position.

The Missouri Historical Society recently listened to an address, and a member moved a vote of thanks to the orator for his valuable contribution. The orator objected to thanks for his valuable contribution, saying he had but done his duty and deserved no thanks. The member said it was the custom to return thanks for valuable contributions, and the orator responded that it was a custom more honored in the breach than in the observance. Everybody was getting excited, perhaps exasperated, and the member said he would withdraw his motion for thanks for the valuable contribution, if it was offensive to the orator. Whereupon the orator withdrew his objections, and was duly honored with a unanimous vote for his valuable contribution. In what literary society is this little farce not frequently repeated?

The Produce Exchange Election.

The Produce Exchange election, which elicited unusual attention from the members, and which was deemed of more than ordinary importance in its bearings on the management of the institution, resulted in the choice of what was known as the reform ticket, with the exception of two names of managers—those of Mr. ALEXANDER E. ORR, of the firm of Messrs. DAVID DOWS & Co., and Mr. FRANCIS A. RAY—adopted from the members' ticket. The officers chosen for the ensuing year were as follows:

President—Isaac H. Reed.
Vice-President—Wm. W. Wickes.
Treasurer—Benj. C. Bogert.
Managers—James McBride, Edward Hincken, John W. Thorne, C. H. Meday, E. S. Brown, Ed. C. Rice, John S. Sutpher, James McChesney, Alex. E. Orr, Francis A. Ray, W. R. Foster, Gilbert Oakley.
Inspectors—Josiah Penfield, Theo. J. Husted, Alfred Romer.

The new President, Col. ISAAC H. REED, has been identified with the produce trade of the port for more than the average of a generation. He is thoroughly conversant with the growth of the trade, with the sources of its prosperity, and the agencies on which it has to rely for its conservation and advancement. He was in active business, and successful as a flour and grain receiver, long before there was either a Corn Exchange or a Produce Exchange to represent the important interests with which he has been connected. He is distinctively a New-York merchant, and feels all the pride of one who is a native of the City, in the marvelous progress of New-York, especially in the commercial line. His friends are confident that he will make his administration of the affairs of the Produce Exchange eminently satisfactory to the members.

The new Vice-President, Mr. WM. W. WICKES, is widely known in connection with the provision interest as a member of the old firm of WALLACE & WICKES, Front-street. He is one of the most deservedly popular of the older members of the Exchange.

Mr. BENJAMIN C. BOGERT, a prominent flour merchant of Barclay-street, has been continued in the position of Treasurer.

In the new list of managers the various interests which look to the Produce Exchange as their common business centre are more than ordinarily well represented.

In the canvass, which preceded the election, the main issue discussed was the right of the management to incur expenses, and to make assessments out of the usual order without due consultation with the members, who have to "foot the bills." The interest of the election hinged on this. The result decides practically that the members, in choosing a board of officers to conduct the routine business of the Exchange, do not relinquish the right to counsel and advise with those whom they regard as their official agents, in relation to the collection and expenditure of the revenues of the institution.

DEPARTMENT OF DOCKS.

What the Commissioners are Doing and What They Propose to Do.

The new Dock Commission is busily engaged in collecting information and preparing to inaugurate the thorough system of dockage for the City contemplated in the creation of the Department. They will make another tour on Tuesday next to complete the inspection of the docks on the North River side of the City, after which they will proceed to Staten Island and examine the docks now being constructed by the Government there. The organization of the Department has been fully perfected and a complete staff of officers appointed. Those of the officers who are to have the custody of any of the moneys of the Department, as well as the Superintendents, have been required to file bonds with the Controller for the faithful discharge of their duty. The Superintendents of Docks, of whom there are ten, will commence a survey of the condition of the wharves and piers owned by the City on Monday next, at which time they are ordered on duty. They will be required to report: First—The present condition of each pier and bulkhead owned by the City. Second—The amount necessary to put each in good condition. Third—The depth of water in each slip at low tide. Fourth—The present incumbrances in the slips. This survey is preparatory to the work of putting the present wharves and piers in first-class condition and of dredging the slips to such capacity as will accommodate vessels of the largest draught. The City has been divided into ten dock districts and one Superintendent assigned to each district. The Department is investigating the latest improvements that have been made in the construction of docks; and before determining upon any new system for any portion of the City, the Commissioners are desirous of becoming thoroughly familiar not only with what has been done, but with what the best scientific minds think ought to be done toward inaugurating a permanent dock system. Advocates of the various systems of dockage—stone, iron and wood—are zealously urging their different theories upon the attention of the Commissioners, but none will be adopted until after a thorough examination and a public hearing of the claims of each. The first meeting for the presentation and hearing of the rival plans will be held at the rooms of the Commission on the 23d inst., at 2 P. M. The offices provided for the new Dock Commission on the south-east corner of Leonard-street and Broadway are nearly ready for occupation, and as soon as money is realized from the Dock Improvement bonds issued by the Controller, the practical work of the Commission will begin.

THE PUBLIC PARKS.

Meeting of the Commissioners—The Zoological Garden—A New Treasurer.

At a meeting of the Department of Public Parks, yesterday, a report was received from the Controller as to engagements as to the use of lands, buildings, or any part of the Park, with any persons, societies or corporations, and also on the outstanding engagements of the late Commissioners expedient for the action of this Department. A report from the Auditing Committee authorizing the payment of bills was approved. A resolution appropriating money for the payment of claims and labor was adopted. A resolution calling upon the Controller of the City for additional funds for the improvement of City Hall Park was also adopted. A resolution authorizing the laying out of a Zoological Garden in the Central Park and the erection of the necessary buildings therefor was adopted, and the Executive Committee was charged with the duty of locating and laying out such garden, and procuring the plans and specifications therefor.

Resolutions offered by Mr. PETER B. SWEENY, directing that hereafter all park laborers be "paid by the day's work of eight hours' duration," were adopted.

ANDREW H. GREEN resigned the position of Treasurer of the Department, and HENRY HILTON was appointed his successor.

A resolution was adopted directing the Controller of the Department to request the Supervisors of the town of West Farms to issue certificates of indebtedness to this Department, in pursuance of provisions of chapter 797 of laws of 1870, to pay expenses incurred by the late Commissioners of the Central Park, on account of surveys made by their direction in the town of West Farms.

After considerable routine business the Board adjourned.

The Sale of Thorough-bred Racing Stock Today.

Today, as announced in yesterday's TIMES, the important sale of thorough-bred racing and trotting stock belonging to the distinguished breeder, Mr. LEWIS G. MORRIS, of Westchester County, will take place at Mount Fordham. The trotting stock has been reared and trained under the superintendence of Mr. MORRIS himself, by Mr. MORGAN HAIGHT, at the Scarsdale Breeding Farm, which also belongs to Mr. MORRIS, and is located about twenty miles from the City, on the line of the Harlem Railroad. The racing stock has been trained and looked after by the colored man ALBERT, for many years in the employ of the experienced Monmouth County trainer, Mr. CHARLES LLOYD. The stock have been brought to Mount Fordham merely for the conveniences of sale, but the accommodations are everything that wealth, judgment and experience could suggest. The rich grass-land around the family mansion has been divided into paddocks for the brood mares, many of which are now dropping their produce. Our first visit was paid to the trotting stock, of which Mr. MORRIS has got some of the best bred strains in America. We were first introduced to True Messenger, a gray stallion of grand, imposing appearance, sixteen and a quarter hands in height, and fifteen years old. He was bred in Seneca County, N. Y., and is sired by Texan, out of a Dey's Messenger mare; Dey's Messenger being a grandson of the old imported horse Messenger, on the dam's side, and a great grandson of his on the sire's side. This horse is the sire of Mr. MORRIS' two famous stud matrons, May and June, full sisters, both grays, and fast trotters. Mr. MORRIS was so pleased with these mares after he had owned them some time, that he visited Seneca County for the purpose of seeing their sire, and he did not leave until he had become his purchaser. He is a remarkably powerful, grand-looking stallion, can trot fast himself, and must prove a very valuable sire. Near him stands Gray Messenger, another gray stallion of fine appearance and action, and having a strong infusion of the original Messenger blood on both sides of the house. Mr. MORRIS purposes breeding his True Messenger mares to Gray Messenger, and vice versa. Orion, a steel-gray stallion four years old, by RYSDYK's Hambletonian, out of May, was next exhibited. He is a handsome-looking horse, fifteen and a half hands high, with perfect trotting action, and can go fast. Arcturus, another son of RYSDYK's Hambletonian, is a blood bay, with three white feet, like so many of Hambletonian's sons; his dam is June, and he is consequently full brother-in-blood to Orion; their dams, May and June, being by True Messenger, out of a mare by Revenge. Arcturus is a perfect ideal of a trotting stallion, possessing size, power, symmetry and splendid style of moving; he can trot fast, although only a three-year old. Sirius, a two-year-old blood bay stallion, by Prize-fighter, a second Hambletonian, was next led out. His dam is June, and he thus combines on both sides of dam and sire the old Messenger blood. This magnificent-looking young colt is under such perfect control that his trainer can exhibit him at his full trotting speed without bridle or halter, guiding him simply with his whip, and turning or stopping him instantly as desired. A finer trio of trotting stallions than the above has rarely ever been owned by the same party. Beside them there is a yearling chestnut colt by Major Winfield, dam Bella, by Vermont Hambletonian, named Mad Anthony, and a brown yearling colt by The Marshall, dam Jennie by imported Monarch. One of these, but which Mr. MORRIS has not yet determined, will be reserved for a trotting stallion for the Scarsdale breeding establishment—the other will be offered for sale.

The brood mares next were visited, but as they are not for sale, an extended notice is unnecessary. Beside the mares May and June, already noticed, there are the chestnut mare Belle, by Vermont Hambletonian; Jennie, a brown mare, by imported Monarch, dam a fast Canadian mare; the chestnut mare Effie, half sister to Jennie, by a second Trustee; the chestnut mare Truthful, by imported Trustee, out of a Malcolm mare; the chestnut mare Maid of Huntingdon, by Smith Burr, (the sire of General Butler,) dam Alice; the gray mare Juno, four years old, by RYSDYK's Hambletonian, dam June, who had dropped a fine colt foal to The Marshall the day previous to our visit; Marietta, a bay mare yearling filly by Bellfounder, dam May, and the chestnut yearling filly Euphemia, by The Marshall, dam Effie. All the above mares have been bred to The Marshall. The thorough-bred brood mares were Ariel, by Sarpedon, dam Lancess; Narcissa, by Trustee, dam by Emulous; Belle, by imported Monarch, dam Lady Spang; Verbena, by Knight of St. George, dam Evergreen, by Glencoe, and Viola, by Balrownie, dam Verbena, who is still in training. All the above except Viola, are in foal to The Marshall, but Mr. MORRIS purposes breeding Verbena to Lexington this season. The thorough-breds for sale are all two-year [illegible] all by The Marshall except Vim, a bay yearling colt by Kentucky, (who escaped from his groom while we were looking at him, and ran wild among the brood mares in the paddock, evidently enjoying his unexpected liberty,) and Bronx, a bay yearling colt by Lexington, dam Belle, by Monarch. The others are the bay colt Marius, dam Belle; bay colt Marvel, dam Lady Spang; bay yearling colt Nonpareil, dam Narcissa; Mimosa, dam Miss Trustee; Myrtle, dam Rebecca; Mignonette, dam Ellen Bateman, and Anemone, dam Ariel—all by The Marshall. After inspecting the above, we were next introduced to The Marshall, the king of the stud at Scarsdale. He is a grand-looking blood bay, without white, full sixteen hands high, and is now seven years old. He was sired by Lexington, dam Ariel, by imported Sarpedon, who was also the sire of Lexington's dam, Alice Carneal. He never appeared on the turf, the effects of a severe attack of distemper preventing his being trained; but Col. MCDANIELS, who handled him as a two-year old, states that he was a remarkably fast colt. Mr. MORRIS declares his great object has been to improve the breed of horses for general use, and to attain it he has gone direct to the thorough-bred horse, which he has crossed with mares of the trotting strains of Messenger, Mambrino, Abdallah, Bellfounder, Hambletonian and Major Winfield. His thorough-bred stock possess the blood of American Eclipse, Monarch, Trustee, Boston, Sarpedon, Glencoe, Leamington, Lexington and Kentucky. Turfmen and trotting men have now a highly-favorable opportunity afforded them for forming the nucleus of a powerful stable, and Mr. MORRIS' first public sale of his stock will attract a large attendance of horse men from all parts of the country. The sale will be found advertised in another column.

THE HERNAN HOMICIDE.

Continuation of the Inquest—Evidence of McCarthy and Varley—An Unwilling Witness on the Stand.

Coroner ROLLINS continued his investigation yesterday in the case of PATRICK HERNAN, the young man who was killed by pistol shots fired by Officer WM. BURKE, of the Fourth Ward, on the morning of the 3d inst. The examination room, under the Coroner's office, was filled with a suggestive assemblage of Fourth Ward roughs and the friends of the deceased, among whom were the two witnesses, VARLEY and MCCARTHY. Prominent among the crowd was "Reddy the Blacksmith," who came to see what became of MICHAEL VARLEY, his brother. The close atmosphere of the room reeked with the fumes of tobacco and bad rum, and rendered it both unpleasant and unwholesome for those whose duties compelled their attendance. The Coroner having been scandalized by the behavior of a portion of the spectators on Saturday, called in the aid of the Police to maintain order and keep the crowd within bounds. Officer BURKE came in leaning on the arm of a brother policeman, and seemed very weak from his wounds.

The first witness called was JOHN MCCARTHY, of No. 5 Batavia-street, an express driver, who testified that he was with HERNAN and VARLEY in James street, on the night of the 2d inst., and that they were standing in front of HERNAN's residence, a few minutes after midnight, and laughing about a picnic. The officer came up and ordered the party away. HERNAN said he had a right to stand in front of his own door. The officer said, "Well, get away from here, anyhow." Some angry words were then exchanged by BURKE and HERNAN, when the former drew a revolver; the witness saw the weapon, and told HERNAN to look out, for BURKE would shoot. HERNAN paid no attention, and grappled with the officer, and soon after they separated; at that moment witness saw a flash, and HERNAN staggered toward the door, which was partly open, and said he had been shot. In answer to a juror the witness said he saw no struggle, but was finally induced to admit that the officer had either fallen or been thrown down, as he had endeavored to separate BURKE and HERNAN. Witness said he took no part in the struggle. In describing the beginning of the disturbance the witness stated that BURKE had ordered them away in a rude manner, and the party paid no heed to his order; the officer then brandished his club, and after giving the alarm rap, came up and assaulted HERNAN, who was struck in the arm, and seized the club in order to prevent BURKE striking him again; both men clinched and rolled over each other on the sidewalk several seconds before they were separated; witness believed the men were struggling for the possession of the club; both VARLEY and MCCARTHY endeavored to separate the combatants, and told them there was no need for any difficulty; the officer was not under HERNAN, as both men lay side by side; when the officer got up HERNAN had the club, and BURKE drew his revolver; witness took the club from HERNAN just before he was shot.

When cross-examined by the jury, the witness stated that the whole struggle occurred inside the railing, near the door; the first shot was fired while BURKE and HERNAN were struggling; the second shot was fired while the witness was hiding the policeman's club behind the door; he was positive that an alarm rap had been given by the officer, and the witness supposed BURKE thought he was going to be hit by one of the crowd; the witness did express business on his own account.

MICHAEL VARLEY, of No. 11 James-street, was next examined, and having listened attentively to the testimony of MCCARTHY, he proceeded to relate a rapid corroborative story, the details being only slightly changed. The witness insisted that he had taken no part in the assault upon BURKE, and had asked the officer not to shoot but arrest them. The pertinacity with which VARLEY repeated this assertion caused several of the jury to smile, as its absurdity was manifest to all present. The statement of VARLEY, as it fell in rapid confusion from his lips, was garnished with several singular expressions. The officer "went for" HERNAN, and the latter "slung his 'billy'" round his hand as he gave the "go down" on the sidewalk. The manner of VARLEY while giving his evidence before it was reduced to writing was of so nervous a character that the impression gained rapid ground that he was largely inventing, especially as in one or two instances he made the story quite improbable. When asked by a juror why he gave himself up to the Police, VARLEY replied that he "supposed they wanted him because the officer was hurt." He did not think he had done anything wrong, however, and while thus cross-examined he again threw in the assertion that he had asked BURKE not to shoot but arrest them. He failed to satisfactorily explain, however, why he and MCCARTHY hid themselves just after the affray.

During VARLEY's examination a slight ruffle of excitement was occasioned by the arrest of MARK LANAGAN, who has been conspicuous in his endeavor to influence public opinion against the officer who shot HERNAN. The arrest was made on a civil order of arrest, the warrant having been issued by Judge BARNARD, on a charge of seduction, the damages being placed at $20,000. The prisoner was removed, and the case proceeded very quietly. LANAGAN afterward reappearing in the custody of a Deputy Sheriff, continued a spectator to the end.

THOMAS SMITH, of Brooklyn, was introduced as a witness, but stated he knew nothing of the matter; he was on the opposite side of the street, and did not go across; he denied having said that he saw three men knock down a policeman; he admitted he was intoxicated at the time, and acted in such a manner as led the audience to believe he was afraid to tell what he did know, and as he refused to open his lips, he was dismissed.

Mr. HOWE, counsel for BURKE, desired to have his client examined, but the Coroner remarked that there was abundant time for that. As other witnesses were to be examined, the case was adjourned until Thursday next, at 1½ o'clock.

VARLEY AND M'CARTHY REARRESTED.

As soon as Coroner ROLLINS announced that he had no further use for the witnesses, MICHAEL VARLEY and JOHN MCCARTHY, those worthies left in high glee, and surrounded by their exultant friends. No sooner had the men reached the open air, than Capt. ALLAIRE ordered their rearrest, on a charge of having committed a felonious assault upon Officer BURKE, with intent to kill him. This new move in the case rendered the Fourth Warders furious, and they followed the Police down to the Tombs in excited groups, and soon filled the Court-room with their unenviable physiognomies. As soon as Justice DOWLING had cleared off his routine he called up the case. Superintendent JOURDAN had taken a seat beside him and explained the charge about to be preferred. As soon as the prisoners were arraigned the Magistrate decided to hold an examination today at 9 o'clock relative to the events before the shooting of HERNAN, and accordingly granted a temporary commitment. Officer BURKE will today make a formal affidavit against the accused.

Arrivals of Emigrants Yesterday.

The steamer City of Brussels arrived at this port, yesterday, from Liverpool, with 1,044 passengers; the ship Constantine also arrived, having on board 304 steerage passengers, and the passengers by the Abyssinia which anchored at Quarantine on Sunday, to land her passengers, 608 in number, making in all 1,956 emigrants landed in this City within the past twenty-four hours.

Business at the Federal Court Building.

Everything is very dull at the offices attached to the United States Court building in Chambers-street, at the present time. District-Attorney PIERREPONT has gone to Washington for the purpose of ascertaining something definite about the official disposition of his resignation and the appointment of a successor to fill his place. He started from this City on Monday evening. It is said that the authorities at Washington will endeavor to induce him to reconsider his action in regard to his resignation, and to remain in his present position.

Yesterday SAMUEL TONY, of No. 387½ Water-street, was brought before Commissioner SHIELDS on a charge of not having filed a revenue bond as a lottery-dealer. He was held to answer in $1,000 bail.

A New Rival to the Morris and Essex Railroad.

The residents of Orange are now discussing the proposed building of the Watchung Railroad, to connect with the Montclair Railroad, so as to give them a shorter route to New-York than the Morris and Essex Railroad, with the officers of which Orange people have lately had many difficulties. The Watchung Road is destined to run from a point near St. Mark's Church, in Orange, past Llewellyn Park, to Doddtown, thence in a straight line to Woodside, crossing the Bloomfield at Wakesang. At Woodside it is to connect with the Montclair Road, which is now being built rapidly, 500 men being at present employed in its construction. From Woodside the Montclair Road will run to the New-Jersey Railroad bridge over the Hackensack River, where connection will be made with the New-Jersey Railroad. The cost of the Watchung branch will be $200,000.

Base-Ball—Mutual vs. Social.

The game yesterday at the Union Grounds, as will be seen by the score, was one-sided and uninteresting.

The Mutuals were short both WOLTERS and FLANLY, but their places were well filled by MARTIN and SWANDELL.

The Mutuals and Unions play today on the Union Grounds. An interesting game may be expected.

LAW REPORTS.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—EASTERN DISTRICT.

Before Judge Benedict.

IN ADMIRALTY.

Wm. Muir et al. vs. Alfred Morme.—This was an action brought by the libelants, claiming to be the sole and only owners of the British brig Brisk, to obtain possession of that vessel from the defendant, who claims to hold the vessel as the master thereof, and denied the right of the libelants to remove him.

The defendant by his answer put the libelants to their proof of ownership, and set up in opposition to the demand of the libelants the fact that he had a claim against the owners for wages and advances as master, which the libelants have not offered to pay, and for which, by the law of England, he had a lien upon the vessel and her freight. By reason of which fact he insists that the Court should refuse the decree prayed for by the libelants.

The evidence introduced by the libelants he considered to be sufficient to entitle them to the relief prayed for, certainly in the absence of any countervailing evidence, or any suggestion of any parties as being the owners of the vessel. As to the fact that the defendant has an unpaid demand for wages and disbursements, which by the law of England gives him a lien upon the vessel and freight, it is only necessary to say that assuming the facts to be as set up, they afford no reason for refusing to the owners the possession of the ship to which they are entitled as being the sole owners. A lien for wages and disbursements cannot give to the master a legal right to the possession of the vessel as against its owners. After a lengthy review of the evidence in the case, the Court entered the following decree:

If the libelants deposit in the Registry of the Court the amount of the inward freight by them collected, less only the usual inward charges, including unloading and crew's wages, such freight to remain subject to the order of the Court as security for any sum which defendant may recover against the owners of the vessel or said freight in an action to be brought within twenty days in case he be so advised, the Court will entertain jurisdiction and a decree be entered in favor of the libelants without costs. If such freight be not so deposited within forty-eight hours after the notice of this determination, a decree will be entered dismissing the libel.

SUPREME COURT—GENERAL TERM—JUNE 7.

Before Presiding Justice Ingraham and Judge Cardozo.

THE OLYMPIC THEATER CASE—MOTION FOR A REARGUMENT.

Bolles, Receiver, vs. Duff, Receiver.—This case, which has been for some time past before the Courts on various motions, was before the General Term again today on a motion made by the defendant, Duff, for a reargument.

The facts, briefly stated, are as follows: An order was made in this action at Special Term, on the 3d of August, 1868, by Judge Barnard, on the application of Mr. John A. Duff as receiver, authorizing him to lease the Olympic Theater property for the term of three years, at the rate of $15,000 per year, to James E. Hayes, a son-in-law of Mr. Duff. The amount for which this property could be leased was one of the questions in dispute. As to what it was worth there were various opinions submitted, under oath, by competent theatrical managers. It was the judgment of such professionals as Messrs. Earle, Hess, Gibson, Barnum, Tamaro and Morris that $20,000 would be a fair annual rental without the scenery, &c., and the verified opinions of several of them were that, with scenery, &c., from $22,000 to $25,000 would be a fair rent, and that to rent the theater without the scenery would be a sacrifice both to the estate and to the scenery; also, that the latter would be of little use if removed from the theater. Barney Williams made an offer to take a lease for one, two, three, four, or five years, at the yearly rent of $21,000, with security—this offer to include the scenery. He subsequently offered to give $25,000 per year. Mr. Hess and Mr. Linn offered to take a lease for one, two or three years, the one at $22,000, the other at $25,000, both with satisfactory security. Hence it was that the plaintiffs were dissatisfied with the decision of Judge Barnard, at Special Term, authorizing the leasing by Mr. Duff to his son-in-law, Hayes, at a rental of $15,000 per year, and they appealed to the General Term, held by Presiding Justice Clerke and Judges Sutherland and Barnard, the latter sitting a portion of the time during the argument in review of his own decision in the Court below. The case was heard at the January term of 1869, and a decision given soon after. Judges Clerke and Sutherland agreed that Judge Barnard's order should be reversed. The latter gave a dissenting opinion. Then the defendants appealed to the Court of Appeals, where it was heard and a decision given, Lott, J., writing the opinion in which it is decided that the appeal must be dismissed. He says, "the original order, and that reversing it, were made in this action, which is still pending and undetermined. It is true that Duff has entitled the appeal in the matter of the application of John A. Duff, receiver of the Olympic Theater, for authority to lease the same, &c.; but the order appealed from was not so entitled or made in a proceeding of that title, but, as before stated, it was made in this action; it is therefore to be treated as such, and cannot be considered as an order made in a special proceeding. The only orders made before judgment in an action from which an appeal to this Court is allowed are those affecting a substantial right, particularly specified in subdivision 2 of section 11 of the Code. This is not one of those designated, nor does it affect a substantial right. The application was addressed to the discretion of the Court, and neither party could claim as a legal right that the relief asked should be either granted or withheld."

The Court of Appeals having dismissed the appeal, the next move by defendant Duff was a motion to this General Term for a rehearing or a reargument of the appeal taken from Judge Barnard's order. This motion was based mainly on the opinion of Judge Lott in the Court of Appeals.

Mr. B. C. Thayer, in opposing the motion today, contended that it is an unprecedented one; that it seeks to introduce a new and dangerous feature into the practice of the Court. The decision of the General Term has, he said, remained the law of the case, and an established precedent for more than a year. If there is to be any end to litigation, and any confidence reposed in the determinations of our Courts, it is time that this particular order should be considered final, at least by the Court by which it was made. The rule relating to motions for reargument, adopted by the Court of Appeals, is as follows: "Motions for reargument should be founded on papers, showing clearly that some question decisive of the case, and duly sub[illegible] has been overlooked by the Court, or that the decision is in [illegible] controlling decision [illegible] of the Court was not drawn, [illegible] neglect [illegible]." [illegible] this motion is founded to bring the case within that rule. The General Term held that the order of the Special Term was appealable, and there is no foundation for a pretence that the Court of Appeals arrived at a different conclusion. There is no intimation in the opinion of Judge Lott that the order of the Special Term was not appealable to the General Term. It by no means follows that because an order is not appealable to the Court of Appeals, it is not appealable to the General Term. The decision of the Court dismissing the appeal is placed upon the ground that the order could only be reviewed in the Court of Appeals on appeal from the final judgment. If that Court had held that the General Term improperly entertained the appeal, the orders of the General Term would have been reversed instead of the appeal dismissed. The remark of Judge Lott to the effect that the order does not affect a substantial right was foreign to the decision of the Court, and is the merest dictum; the Court having determined that it had no right to review the order at all, except upon an appeal from a final judgment in the action. A previous General Term has held that, however members of the Court might be disposed to question the decision of a previous General Term, they would, nevertheless, regard it as conclusive upon the same facts. The defendant, Duff, made his election of remedies when he appealed to the Court of Appeals. He should be required to abide by the result of that appeal.

The Court granted the motion for a re-argument.

For the motion, A. J. Vanderpoel; opposed, B. C. Thayer.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM—PART I.—JUNE 7.

Before Judge Spencer and a Jury.

FAST DRIVING—THE VALUE OF HUMAN RIBS.

Daniel Belton vs. Edward Baxter et al.—This action is brought to recover $5,000 damages for the fracture of three ribs of plaintiff, alleged to have been caused by the carelessness of the servant of the defendants. It appeared that on the 28th of March, 1868, the plaintiff was crossing Second-avenue, near Fourth-street, when he was suddenly struck by defendants' wagon, resulting in the fracture of three ribs. The evidence on the part of plaintiff was: That when the plaintiff arrived at the corner of Fourth-street and Second-avenue, he saw the wagon a block and a half off, while the street-car was only half a block off; that he made the attempt to cross in front of the street-car, and had cleared it, when he was struck by the wagon of defendants.

The cause has been already tried and reported in the TIMES, on which occasion a verdict for $1,560 was found in favor of plaintiff. On the former trial, Chief-Justice Barbour charged the jury that the defendants were guilty of negligence. On appeal to the General Term on exceptions to this charge, it was held that, on the question of the negligence of the defendants, there was some testimony to be submitted to the jury, and on that ground they reversed the judgment and ordered a new trial. The defendants set up contributive negligence on the part of plaintiff, and a want of negligence on the part of defendants. Among other testimony of defendants' witnesses, it came out on cross-examination that the occurrence took place about the time of quitting work in the evening; that the horse was a little restive and anxious to get home, but that, notwithstanding, the driver was guilty of no negligence.

The cause was presented to the jury by Ex-Judge A. J. Requier on behalf of plaintiff, and by Homer H. Nelson for defendants.

At a late hour the jury had failed to agree.

TUESDAY, June 7—P. M.

Now that the text of the new Funding Bill is before the public, its provision relating to the use of Gold by the Treasury on 3 ₽ cent. interest, returnable on ten days' notice, for the purpose of paying off 5-20s, due twelve years' hence, is more freely criticised in Wall-street than yesterday. In all our inquiries to-day we have not heard a single word of approval of this extraordinary "tail" to a measure of finance otherwise sensible, if not immediately practicable.

In regard to the uniform rate of 4 ₽ cent. adopted by the Ways and Means Committee for refunding the 6 ₽ cent. 5-20s, no complaint is made save on the score of delay in making such a stock available; but even on this point there is really less anxiety on the part of the public to hasten the reduction of the rate of interest, than confidence that the full reduction to 4 ₽ cent. will come in good season. If political matters go right abroad, as we have every reason to believe they will at home, this result will be attained before the first term of President GRANT expires.

The Tax and Tariff measures before the House of Representatives have been happily combined and successfully disposed of under the able and adroit leadership of Mr. SCHENCK. The proposed aggregate reduction of Taxes and Customs Duties is about $60,000,000 on the basis of the Revenues of 1869, say 12 ₽ cent. on Customs and 25 ₽ cent. on Taxes. On the basis of the current Revenues of 1870 (Fiscal Year,) the reduction in Customs is about 10 ₽ cent., and on Taxes about 22½ ₽ cent. The Bill has yet to pass the Senate, but as on the final vote in the House, the division was on party lines, it is fair to presume that it will—substantially in its present shape—become a law.

Only partial progress was made with the $95,000,000 Currency Bill in the House today. It would be difficult to predict its ultimate shape and fate between the two Houses. The Bill as reported proposes to draw $95,000,000 in Greenbacks and Greenback Certificates out of the lawful Money reserve or basis of banking in the National Banks, while the new Funding Bill proposes to draw all the Gold in these Banks into the Treasury on the temptation of 3 ₽ cent. interest. If both measures are passed in their present crude state, the Banks would soon find themselves with little or no lawful Money reserve whatever.

In the Wall-street markets, to-day, there was a fair demand for money from the brokers at 4@5 ₽ cent. Some of the large banks, if not most of them, are free lenders, and are holding over the Summer months large country bank balances. While some drafts are being made upon these balances on account of the internal revenues being paid into the Treasury this month, the movement thus far has scarcely produced a ripple on the market.

Gold and Exchange appear, alternately, to influence or react upon each other. Gold fell yesterday and continued to decline today on the weakness in Exchange, while Bills on London, after falling to 109¾ ₽ cent., were in somewhat better demand for the mail steamer of Wednesday. The trade demand is not for large sums, and where special considerable amounts require to be placed, a brokerage of a sixteenth or one-eighth of one ₽ cent. is allowed off the standard quotation. The sales of Gold this forenoon ranged 113⅝@113⅜@113⅜@113⅜@113⅜, the quotation standing at the close of regular hours 113⅜@113⅜ ₽ cent. The Customs demand for Gold today amounted to $503,000, the shipments of Specie of all descriptions by the Hamburg steamer, $362,000.

On the Stock Exchange the Public Funds were weaker on the Coupon 5-20s, in sympathy with Gold, while the Currency 6 ₽ cent. bonds loaned to the Pacific Roads advanced to 114¼@114½ ₽ cent. and accrued interest, being one ₽ cent. above the price of Gold. The 5-20s of 1867 sold in large sums in the afternoon, on the decline of price to 113¾ ₽ cent., about $850,000. The 10-40s 5 ₽ cents fell off to 108⅜ ₽ cent.

In the Southern State Bonds there is no new feature. There was a recovery of ½ ₽ cent. from yesterday in Tennessees. The threats of repudiation of certain issues of the new Bonds, telegraphed from Nashville, seems to have little or no effect upon the market here, where the dealings in Tennessee credit have assumed all the appearance of what, in the Railway and Miscellaneous Shares, would be called a "fancy speculation."

The Railway market moved with a show of hesitation in the forenoon, and prices on some of the New-York and Western Roads were partially lower. Late in the day there was a vigorous advance in Toledo and Wabash Stock to 60@60½ ₽ cent., which more or less imparted steadiness to the general market, and the ultimate changes from Monday to 5¼ P. M., are noted in the following quotations:

DRUGS, DYES AND DYEWOODS—Business in all articles in these lines has been on a restricted scale within our previous range of prices.

FEATHERS—Live Geese have been in light demand at 80c.@85c. ₽ lb.

FIRE-CRACKERS—Have been unusually active at advanced and buoyant prices; sales, 8,500 boxes No. 1 Canton at from $2 75@$2 90, now held at $3 ₽ box.

FISH—A fair trade has been reported in the leading articles, but at rather easier prices, including Dry Cod at $6 25@$7 12½ ₽ cwt.; No. 1 Mackerel, $27@$28 50; No. 2 do., $14 50@$16; No. 3 do., $12@$13 ₽ bbl.; Pickled Herring, $5@$7 50 ₽ bbl.; Smoked Herring, 35c.@37½c. for Scale, and 28c.@30c. for No. 1 Box.

FOREIGN LIQUORS—Have been very quiet at about previous figures.

FLOUR AND MEAL—A livelier trade has been reported in State and Western Flour, though checked in part by the reduced offerings and the advanced claims of holders. Shipping extras, particularly State have been scarce and wanted at an improvement of from 5c.@10c. on Western, and 10c.@20c. on

State, ₱ bbl., the market closing buoyantly for desirable lines, for prompt and forward delivery. Sales have been reported since our last of 14,100 bbls., including poor to very choice Superfine State and Western at $5 00@$5 20; inferior to good Extra State at $5 40@$5 60; poor to good shipping brands round-hoop Ohio at $5 35@$5 60 ₱ bbl. Included in the sales were about 5,650 bbls. shipping Extras within our range. We quote:

Superfine State and Western	$5 00@$5 20
Extra State	5 40@ 6 15
Extra Illinois, Indiana, &c.	5 30@ 6 00
Extra Ohio round-hoop shipping brands	5 35@ 5 60
Extra Ohio, trade and family brands	5 65@ 6 90
Extra City, shipping	5 45@ 6 50
Extra Genesee	6 20@ 8 25
Poor to fancy extra Missouri	5 90@10 00

Southern Flour continues in fair demand at hardening prices; sales have been reported since our last of 800 bbls., in lots, at $6@$6 80 for poor to good Ordinary, and $6 85@$10 for good Ordinary to choice Extra, ₱ bbl. Rye Flour has been in moderate request at $4 50@$5 75 for Inferior to Choice, ₱ bbl.; sales 270 bbls. Corn-meal has been quite dull at $5 25@$5 75 for Yellow and White Western; $5 20@$5 30 for Jersey; $5 75 for Brandywine, ₱ bbl.

FRUIT—Raisins have been steady, but not active; Layer $4 ₱ box. Currants have been in brisk demand, and some 2,000 casks have been disposed of at very full prices, closing buoyantly at about 11¾c. for Prime New Crop, ₱ lb. There has not been much movement in any other description; prices have been fairly supported. About 500 cases Sardines changed hands at 15¾c.@16c. ₱ quarter box, showing a slight improvement.

GUNNY BAGS AND BAGGING—Have been quoted firm, but have been without activity. Some 40,000 Linseed bags, to arrive, were disposed of at 25c.@25½c.

GRAIN—An active export and speculative inquiry has been noted for Wheat, since our last, at a further decided rise in prices, particularly for Amber Winter, and Nos. 1 and 2 Spring, which have been most sought after at the improved figures, closing strong and buoyant. Some holders have withdrawn their supplies, having been unwilling to sell at even current rates. Considerable purchases have been made for forward delivery, partly on speculative account, at very full quotations. Sales have been reported since our last of 210,000 bushels, including White Western at $1 65@$1 75; Red and Amber Western at $1 38@$1 42½ in store and delivered, the latter an extreme rate for small lots of choice; No. 1 Spring, $1 37@$1 37½, to arrive and delivered; No. 2 Spring at $1 27@$1 28½, chiefly at $1 27 for Chicago, and $1 30@$1 31 for Milwaukee, closing buoyantly at $1 31 for prime, here, and $1 30 for do. to arrive; No. 3 Spring at part $1 20; Rejected Spring at $1 08@$1 13; White Genesee at $1 80; Amber State at $1 40@$1 42, in store, and extra choice Amber Tennessee, in store, at $1 62½, ₱ bushel. Included in the sales were about 75,000 bushels Nos. 1 and 2 Milwaukee Spring, to arrive, chiefly at $1 37, and $1 37½, respectively, ₱ bushel. Corn has been depressed and lower, under freer offerings, especially of other than strictly prime samples. At the reduced figures a more active business has been transacted. Sales have been reported since our last of 69,500 bushels at $1 08 for old Mixed Western; $1@$1 08 for poor to very choice new Mixed Western; $1 08@$1 12 for Yellow and White Jersey, Pennsylvania, Western and Southern, delivered, and 95c.@98c., for Unsound, ₱ bushel. Included in the sales were nearly 50,000 bushels poor new Mixed Western at $1@$1 00¾ ₱ bushel. Rye has attracted but little attention, yet has been quoted about steady, on the basis of 93c.@95c. for Canada, in bond; and at $1 08@$1 14 for Western and State ₱ bushel. Barley and Malt continue inactive at about former figures. Oats have been in less demand, but without notable alteration as to values. The offerings have been comparatively moderate. Sales have been reported since our last of 44,500 bushels at 64½c.@68c. for Mixed Western, in store and delivered, chiefly at 65c.@66c. in store; 69c.@71c. for White Western, from track and delivered; 70c.@71c. for State, ₱ bushel. The export clearances have been 4,224 bbls. Flour and 27,004 bushels Wheat for Liverpool; 19,543 bushels Wheat for Gloucester, and 10,777 bushels Wheat for Havre.

HAY—Bale Hay has been in fair request at 80c.@85c., chiefly at 80c., for shipping, and 90c.@$1 10 for local use, ₱ 100 lbs. Straw continues in demand at 65c.@$1 05 for Short and Long, ₱ 100 lbs.

HEMP—There has been very little call for any description; prices have not varied much. Some 250 bales Jute were sold at 3¾c., gold, ₱ lb.

HIDES—Have been very quiet, and in view of the increasing supplies in first hands, prices have favored buyers. We quote: Dry Hides—Buenos Ayres, 21@23 lbs., 22½c.@23c.; Buenos Ayres, 25@27 lbs., 23c.@23½c., gold, selected. Buenos Ayres. Seconds, 20@22 lbs., 18c.@19c., gold, as they run. CITY GOVERNMENT.

Board of Aldermen—Special Session.

[OFFICIAL.]

SATURDAY, June 4, 1870—10 o'clock A. M.

The Board met in their Chamber, number fifteen City Hall, pursuant to a call signed by a majority of the members.

Present—Thomas Coman, Esq., President, in the chair, and the following members:

Aldermen Cuddy, Miller, Murray, Welch, Seger, O'Brien, Woltman, McKiever, Dimond, Cregier, Jackson—11.

The minutes of meetings to date were read and approved.

RESOLUTION.

By Alderman Miller—

Relative to the number of copies of minutes and documents.

Which was adopted.

MESSAGES FROM HIS HONOR THE MAYOR.

The President laid before the Board a message from the Mayor returning, without his approval, resolution to pave Fiftieth-street, from Fourth to Sixth-avenue, as follows:

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

The Mayor returns, without approval, the annexed resolution to pave Fiftieth-street, from Fourth-avenue to Sixth-avenue, with Stafford wooden pavement, with the objection that the protests are too numerous to be disregarded. Although the street has never been paved, yet the spirit of the provision of a recent act would seem to indicate that even in new streets the patent or special pavement should not be put down against the protests of the property-owners in number. This street, between one of the blocks, has also been authorized to be paved with Belgian pavement by resolution duly approved.

A. OAKEY HALL, Mayor.

JUNE 3, 1870.

Referred to the Committee on Streets.

The President laid before the Board a message from the Mayor, returning, without his approval, resolution and ordinance to pave Seventy-eighth-street, from First to Fifth-avenue, with Stafford pavement, the message being as follows:

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

The Mayor returns, without his approval, the annexed resolution to pave Seventy-eighth-street, from First-avenue to Fifth-avenue, with Stafford wooden pavement, with the objection that the protests are too numerous to be disregarded. Although the street has never been paved, yet the spirit of the provision of a recent act would seem to indicate that even in new streets the patent or special pavement should not be put down against the protests of the property owners in number.

A. OAKEY HALL, Mayor.

JUNE 3, 1870.

Referred to the Committee on Streets.

The President laid before the Board a message from the Mayor, returning, without his approval, resolution and ordinance to pave Fifty-third-street, from Fourth to Sixth-avenue, with Stafford pavement, the message being as follows:

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

The Mayor returns, without approval, the annexed resolution to pave Fifty-third-street, from Fourth-avenue to Sixth-avenue, with Stafford wooden pavement, with the objection that the protests are too numerous to be disregarded. Although the street has never been paved, yet the spirit of the provision of a recent act would seem to indicate that even in new streets the patent or special pavement should not be put down against the protests of the property-holders in number.

A. OAKEY HALL, Mayor.

JUNE 3, 1870.

Referred to Committee on Streets.

The President laid before the Board a message from the Mayor, returning, without his approval, resolution and ordinance to pave Sixty-second-street, from Fifth-avenue to East River, with Stafford pavement, the message being as follows:

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

The Mayor returns, without his approval, the annexed resolution to pave Sixty-second-street, from Fifth-avenue to the East River, with Stafford wooden pavement, with the objection that there is already an existing contract for paving said street with Belgian pavement, bearing date December thirty-one, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, as appears by the papers on file.

A. OAKEY HALL, Mayor.

JUNE 3, 1870.

Referred to Committee on Streets.

The President laid before the Board a message from the Mayor, returning, without his approval, resolution and ordinance to pave Eighty-third-street, from Third to Fourth-avenue, with the New-York Improved Nicholson pavement, the message being as follows:

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

The Mayor returns, without his approval, the annexed resolution for paving Eighty-third-street, from Third-avenue to Fourth-avenue, with Stafford pavement, with the objection that the protests are too numerous to be disregarded. Although this street has never been paved, yet the provision of a recent act would seem to indicate that even in new streets the patent or special pavement should not be put down against the protests of the property-owners in number.

A. OAKEY HALL, Mayor.

JUNE 3, 1870.

Referred to the Committee on Streets.

PAPERS FROM THE BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN.

Resolution, Directing the compiling and publication of leading cases, in which the Mayor, &c., of the City of New-York has been concerned as plaintiff or defendant.

Which was adopted.

TIME OF FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

By Alderman Seger—

Resolved, That when the hour of eleven arrives, this Board do adjourn sine die.

The President pro tem. put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

RESOLUTION DISPOSING OF PENDING PAPERS.

By Alderman Cregier—

Resolved, That the papers pending before this Board as "General Orders," in the list of "Unfinished Business," be laid on the table; that the several committees of the Board be and they are hereby discharged from the further consideration of all papers now in their possession, and the same laid on the table; and that all papers of one thousand eight hundred and seventy, indefinitely postponed, be taken from the file and laid on table.

The President pro tem. put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON THE MAYOR.

Alderman Reilly moved that a Committee of three be appointed to wait upon the Mayor and inform him that the Board of Aldermen, having transacted the business before it, were about to adjourn sine die.

The President pro tem. put the question whether the Board would agree with said motion.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

The President pro tem. named as such Committee.

Alderman Reilly,
Alderman Murray, and Alderman Woltman,

and the Committee proceeded to the discharge of the duty assigned to them.

Subsequently the Committee returned, and through their Chairman, Alderman Reilly, reported that they had waited upon the Mayor and delivered the message of this Board; that the Mayor had thanked them and the Board of Aldermen for their courtesy, and said that he had no further communication to make to the Board of Aldermen.

The report of the Committee was accepted, and the Committee was then discharged.

COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON THE BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN.

Alderman Welch moved that a Committee of three be appointed to wait upon the Board of Assistant Aldermen and inform that body that the Board of Aldermen were about to adjourn sine die.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

The President pro tem. named as such Committee:

Alderman Welch,
Alderman Dimond and Alderman Croker.

And the Committee proceeded to discharge the duty assigned to them.

Subsequently, the Committee returned, and through their Chairman, Alderman Welch, reported that they had delivered the message of this Board to the Board of Assistant Aldermen; that the President of the Board of Assistant Aldermen thanked them and the Board of Aldermen for their courtesy, and said that the Board of Assistant Aldermen would presently communicate with the Board of Aldermen by a like committee.

The report of the Committee was accepted, and the Committee was then discharged.

RESOLUTIONS COMPLIMENTARY TO THE PRESIDENT.

By Alderman Miller—

Resolved, That as presiding officer of this Board of Aldermen, the conduct of Hon. Thomas Coman has been so kind, courteous, dignified and impartial, as to merit, in the most marked manner, this expression of the approbation and thanks of its members. He has secured for himself the esteem and regard of his associates in this Board, and now, in severing the official and personal relations that have so pleasantly existed between us, he takes with him our most earnest and sincere wishes for his future welfare.

The President pro tem. put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution.

Which was unanimously decided in the affirmative.

By Alderman Reilly—

Resolved, That the resolution just adopted, complimentary to the President, be engrossed and framed and presented to him as an additional evidence of our esteem.

The President pro tem. put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution.

Which was unanimously decided in the affirmative by the following vote:

Affirmative—Aldermen Moore, Cuddy, Reilly, Hughes, Miller, Murray, Welch, Seger, O'Brien, Woltman, McKiever, Dimond, Croker, Jackson, Cunningham, Long—16.

RESOLUTIONS COMPLIMENTARY TO THE CLERKS AND ATTACHES.

By Alderman Murray—

Resolved, That our thanks are due, in an especial manner, and we hereby cordially tender them, to Joseph Shannon, Esq., Clerk of this Board and of the Common Council, for the very able and faithful manner in which he has performed the delicate and responsible duties of his office, and the uniform courtesy and kindness that has characterized his intercourse with the members. We also hereby take occasion to tender our acknowledgments to the Deputy and other clerks and officers of the Board for the faithful manner in which they have performed the duties of their respective offices.

The President pro tem. put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution.

Which was unanimously decided in the affirmative.

RESOLUTIONS COMPLIMENTARY TO THE REPORTERS.

By Alderman Cuddy—

Resolved, That the thanks of this Board are justly due and are hereby cordially tendered to the reporters of the Press for the impartiality that has characterized their reports of the proceedings of this Board of Aldermen, and the courtesy and kindness that has marked their official and personal intercourse with the members and officers of the Board of Aldermen.

The President pro tem. put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution.

Which was unanimously decided in the affirmative. (The President here resumed the chair).

COMMITTEE FROM BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN.

The Sergeant-at-Arms here announced the presence of a Committee from the Board of Assistant Aldermen.

The Committee, comprising

Assistant Alderman Schlichting,
Assistant Alderman Lysaght, and Assistant Alderman Rogers,

were conducted to the bar of the house, and the members of the Board of Aldermen arose to receive them.

The Committee, through their Chairman, Assistant Alderman Schlichting, stated that they were deputed by the Board of Assistant Aldermen to announce to the Board of Aldermen that the Board of Assistant Aldermen was about to adjourn sine die, and ask if this Board had any further communication to make to the Board they represented.

The President, on behalf of the Board, thanked them, and through them the Board of Assistant Aldermen, for their courtesy, and stated that the Board of Aldermen had no further communication to make to the Board of Assistant Aldermen.

The Committee of the Board of Assistant Aldermen then withdrew, and the members of the Board of Aldermen resumed their seats.

MOTION TO TAKE A RECESS.

Alderman Cuddy moved that the Board do now take a recess until five minutes to eleven o'clock.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with said motion.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

Aldermen Moore, Cuddy, Hughes, Welch, Seger, Woltman, Barker, McKiever, Dimond, Cregier, Croker, Jackson, Cunningham, Long—14.

READING OF THE MINUTES.

The minutes of this meeting were here read and approved.

VALEDICTORY OF THE PRESIDENT.

The President then addressed the Board as follows:

Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen:

I am deeply moved by this expression of friendship. I rejoice that my conduct has been such as to merit your approbation, and beg of you to receive my most grateful acknowledgments for this and the many other expressions of your partiality. I shall forever treasure them in my recollection, and regard each as a refreshing oasis in the great desert of political life, to which I can always resort with pleasure when wearied with private cares and responsibilities and public mortifications inseparably connected with active participation in the busy scenes of every-day life in this great City.

Thanking you again for your expressions of esteem, and hoping that each of you may be the recipient of those blessings certain to be the reward of a life well spent, I now declare the Board of Aldermen adjourned sine die.

And the Board stands so adjourned sine die.

JOSEPH SHANNON, Clerk.

DISPOSITION OF UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

On resolution, presented by Assistant Alderman Robinson, the Clerk was directed to arrange, classify and file all papers pending before the Board.

COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

On motion of Assistant Alderman Schlichting, the President appointed Assistant Aldermen Schlichting, Rogers and Lysaght a committee to wait upon the Board of Aldermen and apprise them that the Board are about to adjourn sine die. The Committee subsequently reported that they had fulfilled such duty, and that the Board of Aldermen had no further comment to make to this Board.

COMPLIMENTARY TO THE PRESIDENT.

By Assistant Alderman Gibney—

Whereas, Pursuant to an act of the Legislature of this State the term of office of this Board is soon to cease, and

Whereas, At its organization John Reilly, Esq., was unanimously chosen President, thereby evidencing the full confidence of all his colleagues in his integrity and ability; and

Whereas, The confidence thus reposed has been faithfully respected in his every act as President of this Board, and gives additional evidence of his worth as a man and public officer; and

Whereas, The present is a fit and proper time to renew the expression of our respect and esteem for him, also to express our appreciation of the urbane manner and impartiality of ruling which have characterized the exercise of the duties devolved upon him as President of this Board; therefore be it

Resolved, That we cordially tender to our President, John Reilly, Esq., the oblation of our personal regard for him as our official associate, our earnest thanks for the faithful and agreeable manner in which he has performed the responsible duties of President of this Board, and our heartfelt wishes for his future welfare and prosperity.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be suitably engrossed and framed, attested by the Clerk, and presented to the President.

Which was unanimously adopted.

COMPLIMENTARY TO THE CLERK AND ATTACHES.

By Assistant Alderman Schlichting—

Resolved, That the thanks of this Board are hereby tendered to the Clerk, the Deputy Clerk, and the several attaches of the Board, for the prompt, faithful and thorough manner in which they have respectively fulfilled their duties.

Which was unanimously adopted.

COMPLIMENTARY TO THE REPORTERS.

By Assistant Alderman Lysaght—

Resolved, That we heartily tender to the respective Reporters for the public Press, who have attended and reported the meetings of this Board, our thanks for the gentlemanly and impartial manner in which they have performed their duties in connection with this Board.

Which was unanimously adopted.

READING OF THE MINUTES.

The minutes of this meeting were here read and approved.

VALEDICTORY OF THE PRESIDENT.

The President then addressed the Board as follows:

GENTLEMEN OF THE BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN: I return you my thanks for the honor you have paid me, and I must add that I feel a great sense of satisfaction to know, that at the close of the short period of five months, during which I have officiated as your presiding officer, my actions in that capacity are so warmly and unanimously indorsed. By an act of the Legislature, the Board of Assistant Aldermen for one thousand eight hundred and seventy is to organize anew on next Monday, and when the roll shall then be called, there will be missed from this Chamber the names and countenances of a number of gentlemen who have become endeared to me—men of intelligence and integrity, whose respect, and that of the other gentlemen composing this Board, and so graciously manifested in the resolutions complimentary to myself, I shall fondly cherish. Our political relations, as established in this Board, are about to be severed, but our social relations may, I sincerely trust, always continue as happily in the future as they have existed during the brief period of our association together here; and for myself, I shall always be glad to meet each of you. I wish to tender my thanks to our Clerk for the faithful aid he has given me at all times, and his kindly consideration to facilitate and make easy and pleasant the duties devolved upon me as President of the Board. And now, the hour of eleven having arrived, in conformity to the resolution passed fixing this as the time of final adjournment of this Board, I declare that the Board of Assistant Aldermen stands adjourned sine die.

And the Board so stands adjourned sine die.

WILLIAM H. MOLONEY, Clerk.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

EUROPE.

The debate on the question of the Monarchy began on Monday in the Spanish Cortes, and was quite animated. One speaker declared the majority would never submit to the return of the Bourbons to the throne, denounced monarchy generally. No action was taken....The division in the "Left" in the Corps Legislatif is complete. The separation grew out of different views on the attitude to be assumed toward the Ministry. The Paris journals have attacked M. OLLIVIER for his course toward the "Left."....The French Masons have elected Gen. MELLINET Grand Master of the Order by 160 votes. An Ex-Republican Deputy, M. CARNOT, received 125....Small-pox is decreasing in Paris....A fire broke out on Monday in the forest of Fontainebleau, which swept over hundreds of acres. It was not checked until evening. The forests in Europe are afire in many countries, owing to the dry season....The telegraph lines, particularly in Ireland, are still deranged....The American Bishops in Rome, according to the correspondent of the Augsburg Gazette, show a growing disinclination to dogmatic definition of infallibility, and are disgusted with the sycophancy of its advocates.... Prompt action has been taken for the suppression of a secret political movement in Leghorn, and twenty-two arrests have been made.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, yesterday, the bill providing for an Assistant Treasurer at Baltimore was reported. The rest of the morning hour was devoted to discussing the amendment to the rules providing for the termination of debate on appropriations by a two-thirds vote. The Indian Appropriation bill was then taken up. The bill for the removal of the Osage Indians from Kansas, and the sale of the lands held in trust for them to settlers, was offered as an amendment. A debate ensued, at the close of which the amendment was rejected by 17 to 25. At 4½ P. M. the Senate went into Executive Session and afterward adjourned.

In the House, after a few reports had been received from committees, the bill regulating the pay of members in contested election cases was taken up, discussed awhile, and then laid on the table by a yea and nay vote of 90 to 80. A bill was introduced by Gen. BANKS authorizing a contract for a weekly mail service between Cedar Keys, Fla., and Havana. Mr. GARFIELD'S Financial bill, "to increase banking facilities, and for other purposes," was taken up, and occupied the entire afternoon session. The Senate amendment to the Census bill, authorizing an increase of pay of census takers, was passed. A 5 o'clock recess was taken, and the evening session was devoted to a debate on the Currency bill, speeches being either read or ordered to be printed.

THE INDIANS.

The great council between the Indian delegates now in Washington and the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, took place yesterday, at the office of the latter. The Secretary of the Interior stated the views of the President, and RED CLOUD replied, making known his desires, among which were that Fort Fetterman and the "stakes" in Black Hill and Big Horn should be removed. He accused the whites of being the aggressors in the wars upon him, and complained of not receiving so much as a brass ring for his lands through which railroads had been run. LITTLE BEAR also made a speech reiterating the complaints of RED CLOUD. The Indians present manifested their approval of what was said by grunts. Mr. COX promised to report what had been said to the President, and arrange for a meeting with him. An order has just been issued from the War Department directing the military commanders to keep whites off lands secured to Indians by treaty, by military force if necessary, until such time as the title becomes extinct. Capt. MITCHELL, of the Fifth Infantry, brings to St. Louis particulars of the dastardly murder of two soldiers and wounding of a sergeant at Bear Creek Station, forty miles from Fort Dodge. There were but four soldiers in the station, and the savages had just enjoyed the hospitality of the place. The party, consisting of thirty-five, left, except seven, who fired on the soldiers and then fled.

GENERAL.

The dates from Honolulu by the steamship Ajax, at San Francisco, are to the 23d of May. The Legislative Assembly was in session. The receipts of the National Treasury for two years were $998,000, and the expenditures $968,000. The public debt was $112,000. The United States ship Jamestown sailed for the Micronesian Islands April 30. The Austrian frigate Donau sailed for Callao May 1. Several New-Bedford whalers sailed on the 26th.

A Toronto dispatch has a statement that Chicago Fenians who threatened to attack a camp at Sault Ste. Marie had, in view of preparations to receive them, changed their designs and gone to Duluth.

Fort Garry advices represent the French settlers as having determined to resist the Red River expedition. RIEL, however, was making no preparations for resistance, and the adoption of the Manitoba bill by the Red River Legislature was regarded as probable.

The special election in San Francisco to decide on the proposed subsidy of $1,000,000 to the Southern Pacific Railroad, was held yesterday.

The British ship William Wilson, which was in custody of the United States Marshal at San Francisco, pending a suit, put to sea on the 5th inst., after forcibly putting the Marshal overboard. A revenue cutter will probably be sent in pursuit of the vessel.

A San Francisco dispatch says the returns from the Oregon election on Monday are very meagre, but it is believed that Mr. GROVER, the Democratic candidate, is elected by about 400 majority. Dispatches received in Washington confirm this, but say the Legislature is Republican.

The majority for Mr. EMORY, the reform candidate for Mayor of Washington, is 3,214. The total vote polled is 16,978, falling only 993 behind the registration. The Bowen Republicans elect two Aldermen and five Common Councilmen, of whom two are colored. Of the Emory Republicans elected, five are colored. The Emoryites are largely in the majority in the Common Council, while in the Board of Aldermen, with those holding over, there is a tie.

The International Typographical Union continued its session yesterday in Cincinnati. The new officers were installed, the retiring President welcoming the new incumbent. The Treasurer's report shows receipts equal to $2,544, and disbursements amounting to $1,345.

The Ohio Republican State Executive Committee yesterday issued, from Columbus, a call for a Republican State Convention, to take place on the 10th of August, to be composed of 473 delegations.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, at Annapolis, Md., on Monday, Hon. JAMES C. CLARK, State Senator from Baltimore County, was elected President. The salary of the President was raised from $2,500 to $10,000 per annum.

The candidates for United States Senator from New-Hampshire, to fill the vacancy which occurs on the 4th of March next, are actively canvassing the Legislature. Senator CRAGIN leads, but the result cannot be foretold. On the adjournment of the House yesterday, the Republican members held a meeting and decided to hold a caucus for the nomination of a United States Senator on Thursday evening.

The Cunard steam-ship Tripoli ran on the rocks off Cohasset yesterday forenoon in endeavoring to make the port of Boston. She floated off at high tide; and reached her berth in East Boston at 7 P. M., with one compartment full of water. She was in charge of the pilot.

In the Executive Session of the Senate on Monday a resolution was submitted authorizing the Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire into the history and character of the San Domingo negotiations, and to investigate current statements relating to grants of lands contingent on the ratification of the treaty. The subject came up at yesterday's session, and, after debate, the resolution was laid on the table.

The Grand Lodge of Masons assembled yesterday, and the Grand Master's address was delivered. In the afternoon an imposing display of Knights Templar was made to escort visiting lodges from Philadelphia and other cities. The arrangements for the grand dedication ceremonies today are complete, and a full programme will be found elsewhere.

The New-York Baptist Association held its annual meeting, yesterday, in the Fifth-Avenue Baptist Church, (Rev. Dr. ARMITAGE'S.) The principal business transacted was at the evening session, when it was resolved that the Association should withdraw from further co-operation with the New-York City Mission and Tract Society, and support missions of its own.

Another Convert to Revenue Reform.

There is hope for the people. The monopolists grow ashamed of monopoly. The bitterest opponents of a reduction of taxes are compelled to toss up their hats and shout hurrah! The very men who have disparaged revenue reform are forced by public opinion to do homage to the work by taking to themselves credit for its performance.

Even the Tribune cries peccavi. To the few remaining monopolists, that must be the unkindest cut of all. Members of Congress might succumb to a pressure that is irresistible; but the Tribune seemed to be fixed and unchangeable. It has vowed a thousand times that it would perish in the last ditch of monopoly. Though all else should prove faithless, it has declared again and again, it would remain true to the cause which it has made peculiarly its own. It has been the oracle, par excellence, of the high tariff men. The combined interests which, under the pretense of protecting industry, have embarrassed and impoverished the people, have regarded the Tribune with almost reverential admiration. They have stuck to it as to their closest ally. They have sworn by it as their doughtiest defender. And now even the Tribune discards them. Even the Tribune abandons them to their fate. Even the Tribune drops monopoly, swallows all that it has said against reduction of taxes, and actually attempts to get on to solid ground disguised as a tariff reformer.

If it were possible to doubt the evidence of the senses, we should refuse to accept the editorial utterances of yesterday's Tribune as those of the ancient organ of monopoly. We should believe that some enemy had stolen a cherished title, and attempted thus to sully the fair fame which has identified itself with high taxes. But under the circumstances, skepticism is impossible. It is the Tribune which uses these words:

> "The revenue reformers have been forced to show their hands. Henceforth they may be better known as the revenue destroyers. The question was one of the reduction of taxes and duties. * * They were in favor of the theory of reduction in taxes and duties, but against its enforcement. They professed to want moderate duties. What they did want was free-trade. They called themselves revenue reformers. What they wanted to make themselves was revenue destroyers. We heartily rejoice that without their aid, and in spite of their false friendship, the Republican Party has been able to add to the financial honors of this Administration by offering a reduction of sixty-five millions in the popular burdens. * * The bill passed is not altogether such as we would have it; but it is a measure of substantial, and, in the main, judicious relief,—opposed, wherever opposition seemed safe, by the revenue reformers, and carried by the persistent efforts of the tariff men. We joyfully announce its passage, and look confidently to the Senate for approval."

So the Tribune applauds a bill which, roundly speaking, strikes forty-five million dollars off the internal taxes, and twenty million dollars off the tariff. We are delighted to know that our contemporary is happy.

For six months or more the Tribune has constantly, not seldom violently, opposed the movement for a reduction of taxes. It has insisted that the people did not desire the change, and that there should be no diminution of their burdens until after a much larger reduction of the debt. It has applauded Mr. BOUTWELL'S disposition to keep up taxation at its present mark, and has assailed with epithet and sneer every proposition to lighten the load. It has demanded the extinction of the income tax, but without saying how the revenue thus cut off should be replaced. Apart from this item, the Tribune has been ceaseless in its protests against relief. Nay, after the introduction of the very bill whose adoption by the House it now extols, the Tribune assailed "the tax tinkerers at Washington" in no measured phrase. Thus it talked eight days ago, Tuesday, May 31:

> "Our conviction that it is unwise materially to reduce the national revenue until the public debt shall be funded at a lower rate of interest is radical. * * * These are the principal items of reduction provided for; but there are other small matters which show the drift and folly of the bill, such as the repealing of the taxes on luxuries like carriages, gold watches, and gold and silver plate. Instead of learning anything from experience, the bill indicates that we are going backward. As a whole, with all its glaring faults, and its disrespect for the wishes of the people, it is well worthy of its reputed parentage, as the child of that profound builder of financial air-castles, Special Commissioner Wells. As the income tax—the only seriously objectionable feature in the present law—expires by its own limitation at the end of the present year, the best thing Congress can do is decently to bury this new bill under the table as soon as possible, and proceed with more legitimate business."

Only eight days ago, therefore, the Tribune was firm in its old faith. It cherished a "radical" conviction adverse to any material reduction of the revenue. It derided the "folly of the bill," the passage of which yesterday elicited its admiration. It declared that the bill which it yesterday indorsed as a "measure of substantial, and in the main, judicious relief," was an indication that "we are going backward." The bill which it yesterday asserted had been passed in spite of the revenue reformers, eight days ago it pronounced "well worthy of its reputed parentage, as the child of that profound builder of financial air-castles, Special Commissioner WELLS." To crown all, it now claims credit for the adoption of a measure which eight days ago it called upon Congress to "bury under the table." Even on Friday last it exulted in the hope that there was "little chance" of the adoption of the bill.

True, the bill as it stood when first assailed by the Tribune did not embrace the tariff sections which were on Monday incorporated into it. But these are its least important parts. More than two-thirds of the whole amount to be reduced are covered by the provisions which, according to the Tribune, emanated from no less eminent a revenue reformer than Mr. WELLS. These provisions were enacted by the votes of the revenue reformers, and were finally concurred in by the monopolists in the vain hope that they might thereby conceal the discomfiture which has overwhelmed them. The Tribune resorts to the same transparent artifice. It undertook to butt the engine off the track, and has suffered some damage in consequence. It made itself so conspicuous by its resistance to the demand, "Down with the taxes," that it finds subterfuge expedient. And by way of getting back into the current of popular feeling, it unsays all it has been saying for months, and after stealing the clothes of some revenue reformer actually berates the man it has robbed as a thief. How are we to explain so extraordinary a transformation?

The whole performance is a tribute to the growing strength of the revenue reformers, whose power to hold in check the action of the House has been made manifest this session, When the present tariff was enacted, the monopolists were masters of the situation. The revenue reformers were few and helpless. Today they are not far from being the controlling power. They do not pretend to approve in detail of Mr. SCHENCK'S tariff clauses, but the bill whose passage by the House we yesterday recorded, is the product of their agitation. The relief it affords has been extorted from the monopolists by the friends of reform; and though its tariff sections are not perfect as an expression of sound, economic views, its general scope as a means of largely reducing taxes is the result of their influence. The Tribune is welcome to "dissemble its love" if it can; but it cannot deny that it tried to kick the revenue reformers down stairs.

The New Funding Bill.

So far as this bill proposes to confine the new stock of the United States, in exchange for Five-twenties, to a single class of four per cents, in place of the Senate compromise proposition of five, four and a half, and four per cents, we believe it to be preferable to any scheme embracing a variety of bonds. Its recognition of the Sinking Fund obligation of 1862 is also better than the Senate proposition to apply the extravagant sum of $150,000,000 a year to interest and principal. Nor is there anything especially objectionable in the clause directing the principal of all bonds regularly purchased, and to be hereafter purchased for the Sinking Fund, and of all bonds heretofore purchased for Special Fund, to be canceled and deducted from the statements of the Public Debt—although the provision might be made something less obscure. The main obligation is the continued application of the interest, or a sum equal to the accumulating interest of the Sinking Fund, to the purchase of other bonds, additional to the one per cent. per annum regular contribution, and this is to be strictly observed. It is not even left to the discretion of the Secretary for the time being. The language of the bill is that—

> "In addition to other amounts that may be applied to the redemption or payment of the public debt, an amount equal to the interest on all bonds belonging to the aforesaid Sinking Fund shall be applied as the Secretary of the Treasury shall from time to time direct, to the payment of the public debt, as provided for in section five of the act aforesaid."

The novel feature of the bill is the fourth section, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to borrow gold on three per cent. interest, returnable on ten days' notice, for the purpose of applying three-fourths of the sum thus borrowed to the redemption of United States five-twenties of 1862, not due until 1869. We cannot see that this proposition has any other claim to notice than its novelty. It is otherwise surrounded with dangers to the public credit, from contingencies of conspiracy and distrust at home and trouble abroad, which far outweigh its supposed advantages. So far from being redeemed by the authority to the Secretary to stop the interest on these three per cent. gold deposits, if in his discretion, they are no longer desirable, we think that this extraordinary control is really an additional argument against the whole experiment.

The question behind the bill itself is, can a new four per cent. stock, thirty years to run, free of taxation of every description and pledged to gold coin, at the present mint standard, for principal and interest, be negotiated at par in gold or exchanged for Five-twenties? For this, we apprehend, the country must wait. Prudent financial legislation, and a continuance of fidelity and economy in the collection and expenditure of the ample revenues of the Government, will gradually so improve our public credit as to make funding at a low rate of interest practicable. Meanwhile, perhaps, the new stock may be introduced as our national banking basis, in place of United States Five-twenties,—not, indeed, forced upon the banks, but presented to them free of all taxation upon their circulation, when secured by the new four per cent. stocks. We would have Congress act a liberal part in the way of additional national bank circulation to the South and West, and without withdrawing greenbacks or greenback certificates.

A Murderer's Revenge.

Let any one who would "sup full of horrors," read the details of the murder at Uxbridge, England, as given in the TIMES of yesterday. The terrible calendar of modern crime furnishes no parallel to the atrocity of this barbarous deed. We can scarcely match it by referring even to that tale of horror which EDGAR POE has constructed on the theory of certain murders committed by a baboon. The slaughter of the KINCK family was executed with a well-defined purpose, and according to a prearranged method. The butchery of the MARSHALLS, in the English country cottage, was apparently the result of a deep-laid scheme of vengeance. Once entered within the fatal circle, the murderer in this case had no alternative but to kill every living being in the house, and it is evident that no compunction restrained him in his fearful work.

The scene of the murder was a neatly kept brick cottage, divided from a pleasant rural lane by a strip of garden; attached to the cottage was a smithy, in which the daily toil of the master of the house was carried on. The wedding of MARY ANN MARSHALL was arranged to come off on Tuesday, the 24th May, and her brother EMANUEL, of whose household she was a member, was hard at work late on the Saturday night before, so that he might better afford the time to assist at the marriage ceremony. It seems probable that the smithy forge was kept glowing, and that the strong man was still intent on his labor, when the gray dawn of Sunday morning began to break. Probably, while the finishing strokes of his labor were resounding from the anvil, the door was softly pushed open, and an assassin creeping up behind his victim snatched up a hatchet, and dealt him a savage blow on the back of the head. The stroke was not fatal, for there were marks on the earthen floor of a struggle which may have been short, but which was intense in its energy and despair. The murderer triumphed, and the work which was begun with the hatchet was ended with a sledge-hammer. Some strange and startling cry appears to have penetrated to the room of the wife sleeping within the cottage, for she was found with her gown hurriedly drawn over her night-dress, and bearing the marks of fatal blows which she had received on the spot where she was met by the murderer of her husband, as she was hurrying into the smithy. Another death-cry must have resounded through the house, and aroused the young woman who was to have been a bride in two days more, but who was felled as she reached the bottom of the stair by the already blood-stained hatchet. The old grandmother of seventy-seven had roused the three little children who slept in the room beside her, and, clutching the youngest in her arms, sought safety in the back kitchen. But the assassin, filled with a fierce appetite for slaughter, and moved with the determination to destroy every member of the family against which he wished to be revenged, struck down both age and youth with wild and relentless rage.

Such is the nearest approach to a probable narrative that can be gleaned from the scattered details afforded by the testimony of those who found the bodies, and from the description of visitors to the spot. The murderer seems to have locked himself in with his victims, and with a fiendish determination to have proceeded leisurely to hide the bodies from outside observation. After dressing himself in some of the clothes of the murdered man, and taking his watch and chain, he quietly let himself out at a window, and took the road to the neighboring town of Reading, so late, it would appear, as 7 o'clock in the morning. The neighbors thought the smith and his family had gone on a journey, and the door was not broken in till Monday night.

There can be very little doubt that this fearful crime was committed by a brother of poor MARSHALL, and that the motive was revenge. MARSHALL had caused this brother to be sent to Australia about eighteen years ago, on account of his dissolute mode of life. All this time the exile had been nursing his scheme of vengeance. It seems more like a scene out of a "sensation" play than a tragedy of real life. The man sent to Australia suddenly returns, and gradually makes his way through England to the village where his brother lived. Sometimes he was arrested by the Police as a tramp—sometimes he was lodged in jail for committing petty robberies. But whatever happened to him, the fierce flame of vengeance never subsided in his heart. He pushed on until he saw the homestead of his brother, and then he began his worse than hellish work, having pity upon none but staining his coward hands with the blood of young and old in one common slaughter. The passion of revenge is accountable for many terrible crimes, but for none more terrible than this. For eighteen long years, 16,000 miles away from his home, this murderer had cherished his burning desire for vengeance. His hour came, and nothing less than the annihilation of an entire family could satisfy him. His neices, his sister-in-law, his own mother, brother and sister, all fell beneath his murderous ax. It is believed that no one is left alive who can identify him. When he was sent to Australia he was a lad of nineteen. He is now thirty-seven, and there must be great changes in his appearance. There is still a sister living, and there is some slight probability that she will be able to identify him. In any case, the wretch cannot escape the gallows. No "political influence" will enable him to cheat the law. The key of the murdered man's house has been traced to him, and he was arrested dressed in the murdered man's clothes. Even the advocates for the abolition of capital punishment would probably find it hard to plead for mercy for this miscreant.

Brothers of the Mystic Tie.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of New-York commenced its annual session in this City yesterday, and will probably adjourn on Saturday. It is composed of several hundreds of delegates from the various lodges throughout the State, among whom are many of the most prominent and influential citizens of the interior. Today will be laid the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple to be erected at the corner of Twenty-third-street and Sixth-avenue. The occasion has called together a large assemblage of Masons from various parts of the country, and the public display promises to exceed anything of the kind witnessed in this City for many years past, several thousand visitors from abroad being in attendance.

During the past twenty-five years the Masonic fraternity in the United States has increased in strength and influence very rapidly, and it is now the most powerful and numerous secret Order among us. It can boast of at least 500,000 members. After the abduction of Morgan in 1827, the Order fell into disrepute in the Northern States, and most of the lodges were discontinued for nearly ten years, until the political excitement created by that event had died away. It was not till about 1840 that Freemasonry began to revive, but since then it has steadily prospered, until now it extends into every county, and into the great majority of towns in the State.

Freemasonry flourishes very extensively in other countries as well as our own. There is no part of the civilized world into which it has not been introduced. In Europe it is patronized by most of the Governments, and several ruling sovereigns and many of the nobility are members of the Order. There was a time when, in some of the States, it was prohibited, from an apprehension that it might be made an agency of political mischief; but we believe that the Pope is now the only ruler who openly denounces it. Several years ago he issued a Bull against the Order, threatening excommunication of all Catholics who joined it, the practical result of which is said to have been that the Roman communion lost more than the Freemasons. Quite recently the Order in the German States has taken decided action against the Pontiff. We are told that the Grand Lodge, "The Sun," at Bayreuth, has sent an open letter to all the other lodges urging them to keep a watchful eye upon the Vatican, and denouncing the recent Papal Syllabus as an assault upon the moral and spiritual development of the age.

There are various traditions as to the origin of Freemasonry, the one most generally accepted among the Order being that it was founded by King Solomon at the building of the Temple. Some writers trace striking analogies between it and the cabala of the Egyptian priesthood, the Eleusinian mysteries, and the Essenes; but the best authenticated tradition is that the Order was founded by the roving architects and masons who went about Europe during the Middle Ages, building Gothic cathedrals, monasteries, bridges, and other great works. These subsequently merged into guilds, which finally dropped the operative, and took on what is now known as "speculative" masonry. This was the foundation of modern Freemasonry, and upon it the work and traditions of the Order, as they exist today, have been constructed.

It is a great fallacy to suppose that there is any political or sectarian purpose sought to be accomplished by the Order, or that there is any unlawful bond of protection to criminals who belong to it. It is simply a moral, social, and charitable institution, which has prospered because it responds to the natural instinct of brotherhood, and because it is the means of accomplishing a vast amount of good in an unpretending manner.

Good News for American Travelers.

The very small and excessively uncomfortable steamers that cross the Straits of Dover have long been a subject of wonder, as well as of disgust, to American travelers. The excuse for employing such craft has consisted in the shallow and inconvenient ports on the French side. But we in this country have not carried railway trains on steam-boats in vain, for the House of Commons has just approved what is known as the "International Communication bill," the effect of which is that large steamers will be built capable of making twenty miles an hour, and of carrying twelve railway carriages on the lower and twelve on the upper deck, so that passengers can go from London to Paris without changing their seats. This new traffic will be carried on independently of wind and tide, and, from the great size of the vessels, there will be little cause to fear sea-sickness. In order to accommodate these vessels, special harbors are to be prepared at Dover, on the English side, and at Andrecelles, near Boulogne, on the French. Short railway trains will run to these harbors, which will be fitted with hydraulic lifts for embarking and disembarking the trains. The Commons' approval of the bill is subject to the assent of the French Emperor, which, it is said, is certain to be given. Thus, then, a nuisance which seemed destined to be everlasting is likely to be swept away, and European travel will be attended with one disagreeable incident the less.

The Appeal of the Red Man.

We might search in vain through a month's file of the Congressional Globe for a speech so interesting as that delivered by RED CLOUD at the Indian Council yesterday. The Chief comes to the point without any periphrasis, and states his grievances without ambiguity. "Whose voice was first heard in this land?" is a question wrung from the depths of a nature more finely touched than we are apt to ascribe to the red man. "Our nation is melting away like the snow on the side of the hills when the sun is warm," bespeaks the mournful presage of coming doom. "Tell the Great Father to remove Fort Fetterman," is the Chief's mode of redressing what he believes to be a great wrong, and is as concisely stated as his demands to keep "Black Hill" and "Big Horn" free from the invasion of the railroads, and to remove the stakes that have already been driven into the ground. The Chief firmly rejects the proposed reservation on the Missouri, since he has learned by experience that his children and old men die there like sheep. With a certain quiet dignity he refers to the man—Gen. MITCHELL—who, eighteen years ago, dealt truthfully with him, intimating at the same time his conviction that various subsequent transactions have scarcely deserved a similar compliment.

A plain and dispassionate statement of the Indian view of the standing problem between barbarism and civilization, is precisely what most people required, and it is what this oration of RED CLOUD, endorsed as it was by his companions, affords. It is not a little startling to hear the bold reminder of the Chief, "You are the people who should keep peace," and one-sided as it is, there is in it much matter for reflection. The clear conception which this unlettered savage possesses of what he claims as his rights, and what he is disposed to resent in his wrongs, shows very plainly the necessity for treating with the leader of the aboriginal "nations" on some straightforward and intelligible principle. The attempt to cajole and bamboozle them, as if they were deficient in intelligence, ought to be abandoned, no less than the policy of hunting them down like wild beasts. Whatever may be the theories we hold about the ultimate future of a decaying race, we cannot fail to recognize the wisdom of meeting RED CLOUD and his people in a spirit of frankness and firmness. In this respect we need not be above learning a lesson, even from the savage.

The residents in the neighborhood of Murray Hill are reduced to a very unpleasant dilemma. A number of them succeeded about two years ago in checkmating Commodore VANDERBILT in his plan for laying the Madison-avenue Railroad along their immediate section of Fourth-avenue. As a set-off against the injunction still hanging over him, the Commodore threatens to open the top of the tunnel which runs beneath the parks between Thirty-fourth and Forty-seventh streets, and so destroy the peculiar charm of this portion of Fourth and Park avenues. On the principle of choosing the least of two evils, it would almost seem that Mr. MIBANK and the others at whose instance the injunction was granted, had better abandon it, and so prevent a piece of vandalism which would be a disgrace to the City.

There certainly seems to be no good reason why any person claiming to be a member of Congress, and who is ousted from his seat by a successful contestant, should be paid either in full or in part. The action of the House in such cases is equivalent to a verdict that the member has occupied a position to which he was not entitled, and the loss of pay and perquisites would be a very proper penalty. Yet we were told by Mr. DAWES yesterday that during the present session $150,000 had been paid to persons who had taken their seats as members, but had subsequently been superseded. The plan proposed, of paying half compensation in such cases, seems to us to be indefensible, for the reason that it places a premium, so far as it goes, upon fraudulent returns. The true course would be rather to impose some penalty, like the costs of an action at law, in order to discourage untenable claims.

A correspondent of an evening contemporary calls attention to the most intolerable of up-town nuisances—the stench arising from the works of the Manhattan Gas Company. There may be an intimate connection between the manufacture of inferior gas and the dissemination of evil odors, but it is too much to expect people to put up patiently with the bad gas and the bad smells at the same time. If the Board of Health cannot protect the City from the horrible and pestilential smells which overwhelm it at certain intervals, of what use is such a Board in this world at all?

The Republican State Convention of Maine will be held at Augusta on the 15th inst., and considerable discussion is taking place in regard to the relative claims and fitness of the various aspirants for the nomination for Governor. Gov. CHAMBERLAIN having positively declined a renomination, but two other names are prominently brought forward at present. Others may, and probably will, be suggested, but Hon. SIDNEY PERHAM and Gen. HERSEE now have the field to themselves, and each has strong supporters. Mr. PERHAM is the representative of the temperance wing of the party, which is still very strong in the State; while Gen. HERSEE is strongly urged by the volunteers in the war, and is thought to be very popular with them. The Press of the State is discussing the comparative merits of the two very freely, and the balance of opinion seems to favor the chances of Mr. PERHAM.

There is an important omission in the construction of our City roadways, the bad effects of which are continually apparent. It is that their foundations are not properly solidified and shaped to the curve and form which the road is intended to present when finished. Structures which should be permanent are built upon layers of mud, sand, or loose earth; and the consequence is that before they have been long in use, portions of the roads become depressed, and costly repairs are rendered necessary. A correspondent mentions a remedy for all this, which has been adopted with perfect success by French and English road surveyors and engineers. Instead of the old hand or horse roller, a steam roller, weighing from fifteen to thirty tons, is used, and with this machine the foundation of the road is pressed into uniformity, and rendered solid. This method is adapted to all kinds of roads, and is said to save half the expense of keeping them in good condition. The subject is one of moment to this or any other city where the traffic is heavy and destructive, and it should receive attention from contractors and others who are intrusted with the care of our great thoroughfares.

No Government can be expected to find brains for all the simpletons living under it sway, but is it wise to allow fac similes of United States paper money, in any shape, to be printed and sold? For instance, we have received from a Georgia banking firm a lithographed letter sent to it by "W. H. Wood & Co.," and offering spurious greenbacks at a small percentage of the value of genuine notes. Of course, any person accepting the offer would receive something very different from the article expected, and he would be, very properly, unable to obtain redress. But this form of swindling is an offense which calls for punishment. The offer to supply counterfeits should be regarded as evidence of intent to defraud the Government, and the offenders ought to be made to smart for their misconduct.

There are few tests of success more certain than that which is afforded when a work supplies material for popular songs. A ballad has just been sung in London by Mme. SHERRINGTON, called "Corisande; suggested by the garden scene in Mr. DISRAELI'S Lothair." The dialogue is so very limited at this point in the novel, that it is not easy to conceive whence comes the material for the words. Lothair, it is true, forgetful of Theodora, and regardless of Miss Arundel, assures Corisande that he never loved any one but herself; so that we have to remember "when the blood burns how prodigal the soul lends the tongue vows," in order to preserve our respect for him; and the lady responds to this with only the eloquence of silence. However, there are songs that are potent to move the heart with very few words, and some in truth with none at all, thanks to MENDELSSOHN, SCHUBERT, and others; and the song of "Corisande" may be of this character. Lothair has not yet been dramatized, although it probably soon will be, nor has it yet received the honor conferred upon SARDOU'S Fernande, which has been burlesqued at the Varieties. With the accomplishment of these distinctions, Mr. DISRAELI'S latest novel will attain the pinnacle of fame.

AMUSEMENTS.

"FERNANDE" AT THE FIFTH-AVENUE THEATER.

SARDOU'S long announced "Fernande" was acted last night at the Fifth-avenue Theater for the first time in America. The piece made a decided hit. The acting was surprisingly good for a first performance, and the scenery and appointments are more creditable to the management than even the elaborate setting of "Frou Frou." We may add that the adaptation has been in many respects exceedingly well arranged, and that the applause of the audience was uncommonly hearty and long-continued. About the moral tendencies of the play—either in the original French or the English version—there will be various opinions; but that "Fernande" is destined to attain a great success here we have no doubt. The manager and the scenic artist received last night the unusual compliment of a call before the curtain; a compliment also profusely bestowed upon all the performers engaged. We shall speak particularly of "Fernande" at a more convenient opportunity. The lateness of the hour at which the performance ended last night, prevents our making elaborate mention, at this time, of a representation that in a singular degree has claims to it.

BEETHOVEN FESTIVAL.

Additional gossip in relation to the Beethoven Festival cannot fail to be interesting, when it is remembered that it relates to a week of festivities, on each day of which fully 25,000 persons will tenant the Coliseum. The salient points of the programme are now at hand, but the leading numbers of each afternoon and evening being printed elsewhere, they need no recapitulation here. We may, however, call attention to the special interest of the oratorio entertainments, which will have the principal co-operation of Mme. PAREPA ROSA, of the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, (six hundred strong,) of Dr. PECH'S Society of Choirs, (with seven hundred voices,) and of the New-York Mendelssohn Union, the Brooklyn Choral Union, the New-Jersey Harmonic Society, the Williamsburg Mendelssohn Association, and the Plainfield Harmonic Society. This statement of choral aid insures the interpretation of the concerted parts of "The Creation" and "The Messiah," by no less than 2,000 singers, all familiar with the text. The miscellaneous arrangements for the Festival, we have only to say, are progressing most favorably. Yesterday the new organ, weighing upward of forty-two tons, was placed in the Coliseum. A tariff of reduced fares, agreed upon with the principal railroad and steam-boat companies, will soon be made public for the benefit of suburban persons desirous of attending the Festival. For the information of West-side residents, it is announced that the Belt Line will cause numerous cars to be run between Third and Eighth-avenues, and half fare to be collected from passengers. There can be little doubt, we think, of the success of an affair, the preparation for which has been so complete. The daily sale of tickets, we learn, is extremely large.

An Emancipated Slave's Gratitude.

Gov. ALCORN, of Mississippi, recently appointed W. G. HENDERSON to a Judgeship, and in sending his nomination to the Senate said he selected him from several gentlemen equally well qualified, solely on account of the letter which we print below. The Governor added that he could not refrain from saying, "on an occasion so touching to every man of the South, that there is an elevating sense of 'the good old world when labor toiled for duty, not for meet,' in this spectacle of an emancipated slave consenting to sacrifice all other favorites for office, in order to concentrate the influence of his position as a worthy member of the Legislature to bestow honor on his late master." This is the letter:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
JACKSON, Miss., March 26, 1870.

To His Excellency Gov. J. L. Alcorn:

GOVERNOR: I was a slave of Col. W. G. HENDERSON. Boys together as we were, he is the center of the tenderest associations of my life. Arrived at manhood's estate, I was still intimately connected with him in the relation of his body servant. When he was wounded at Upperville, Va., en route for Gettysburg, he languished in the valley of Virginia, in the hands of the Federal authorities, until it was my privilege to take him away, secretely, through the lines to his own people. The affectionate relation of our childhood having ripened into a fixed friendship in our manhood, has been invigorated still further by a mutuality of service and devotion which makes him dear to my soul.

My friend and loving master is a candidate for the office of Circuit Judge of the First District. He is a man of unblemished honor, is a lawyer of high standing at the Bar, and having stood out for you boldly during the late canvass, is a good Republican.

Now, Governor, I, by the mysterious providence of God, am a member of the Legislature; I want no office, no honor, save that of standing here in my place as a duty to my race. But I believe my position gives me some claim upon the patronage you are about to dispose; and I now place, without reservation, all the credit of that claim to the account of my earnest prayer that you appoint to the Judgeship of the First District the playmate of my boyhood, the companion of my manhood, the generous friend of my whole life—my former master, Col. HENDERSON.

Hoping you will grant this first and last prayer which I, as a member of this House of Representatives, make to you as Governor of Mississippi.

I have the honor to be, your Excellency's very humble servant,
AMBROSE HENDERSON.

JEROME PARK RACES.

Second Day of the Spring Meeting

Unfavorable Weather but Large Attendance and Splendid Racing—Bohannon Wins the Steeple-Chase, Helmbold the Westchester Cup, Climax the Selling Race and Sanford the Heat Race.

Yesterday was the second day of the Spring meeting at Jerome Park, and combining as it did the double attraction of the steeple-chase and the Westchester Cup, we were not surprised at witnessing a larger assemblage of visitors than was present on the opening day. This, too, was in despite of unfavorable weather, for throughout the morning heavy showers of rain fell, and although it ceased to come down about midday, it looked very gloomy and threatening about the time of starting from the City for the course. Notwithstanding this disadvantage of bad weather, the receipts for admission exceeded those of the first day, (Saturday,) although on the latter all the money for tickets for the meeting was included. The result of yesterday's racing has conclusively proved that Mr. LEONARD JEROME was right in consulting the popular taste last Fall, in the establishment of the steeple-chase in the programme of sport at the meeting. The success which has attended these kind of races must be highly gratifying to the managers at Jerome Park, for the two run over this course have produced the finest, closest and most exciting contests ever witnessed. Yesterday, Bohannon won, with Oysterman, Jr., second; thus just reversing their respective positions in last year's steeple-chase. This result was confessedly due to the superior jockeyship of Capt. ELWES, the owner and rider of Bohannon, who has proved a cheap investment for the Captain, who only gave $300 for him last season, and he has already won two races with him, and ran second for a third. Viley sadly disappointed the hopes of his friends, and Messrs. LLOYD & ALLOWAY must be by this time thoroughly dissatisfied with their purchase. W. F. Bacon ran a fair horse for a patched-up animal, while Oysterman, Jr., showed himself a first-class jumper and a fine stayer.

The second race was the most interesting event of the meeting, being for the Westchester Cup. Of the six colored on the card, only five horses started; the other one, Mr. CAMERON's filly, Invercauld, having fallen lame on the morning of the race. Although the grand-looking son of Australian and Lavender was firmly backed, yet Vespucius and Abdel Kader had a great many strong friends. The race, however, was never in doubt, for Helmbold came away from his horses when PATSY HENNESSY called upon him, and won under a hard pull by three clear lengths, Vespucius and Abdel Kader second and third. Throughout his Winter and Fall campaign Mr. BABCOCK has overlooked his horse's training himself; but this Spring the veteran, TOM. PATTERSON, has had charge of him.

The selling race had five runners for a purse of $600, one mile and five-eighths, viz.: Climax, Edenton, Scotia, Eldorado and R. B. Connolly. The Virginia horse, Edenton, who was the favorite last Fall for a smaller race, had the call in the pool-betting, Climax being next in estimation, closely pressed by Richard B. Connolly. Climax won the race from end to end, with Connolly two lengths behind. No one claiming the winner for the advertised price of $1,500, he returned into WYNDHAM WALDEN's stable, and bids fair to carry off the Members' Cup to-morrow.

The fourth race was one of heats, mile and three-quarters, with Sanford, Regards and Glengary forming the field. Sanford won the first heat in 3:15¾ after a good race with Glengary, who led for over a mile and three-quarters. He won the second heat by a neck and shoulders only from CROUSE's filly Regards, who laid up for the first heat. Properly ridden it is very probable that the Ohio filly would have won the heat, for her rider made his run half a mile too soon, instead of waiting for the decisive brush up the homestretch. The winner was ridden by the clever jockey, PATSY HENNESSY, who scored three victories during the day, having ridden beside Climax and Helmbold. The Virginia stable of Mr. DOSWELL was peculiarly unlucky; for both Abdel Kader and Edenton failed to carry his colors to the front. The regular trainer, GARRY BELL, has been sick for some days past, and the horses were under the temporary superintending care of EPH. SNEDIKER. The easy victory of Helmbold makes chance a promissory one for carrying off the Saratoga Cup, in which race his only formidable opponents are Cottrill and Hamburg. His owner, Mr. BABCOCK, was warmly congratulated on his victory in the Westchester Cup, although he did not win a very large stake on him; for, fancying his price too short, he did not buy him in many pools, and at the start he found no one to respond to his offer to bet $800 against $1,000 as often as any one would lay the odds. Still he is peculiarly lucky in becoming the possessor of two such great race-horses as Helmbold and Pompey Payne in his first season on the turf, and with the handsome son of Australian and Lavender he bids fair to sweep away many of the rich stakes of the season. Although unsuccessful, Vespucius showed himself a good race-horse, and in this race manifested none of that balking propensity he has previously displayed. In connection with the selling race it may be noticed that Climax had, the night before, managed to get his muzzle off and eat a great portion of his bedding. Still it did not seem to affect him much, for he won his race in a canter; but it prevented his owner, Mr. SHEA, from investing $1,000 on him, as he originally intended.

The steeple-chase, for a purse of $1,000, of which $250 went to the second horse, had four entries; D. MCDANIELS' br. h. Oysterman, 6 years, 153 pounds; LLOYD & ALLOWAY's b. h. Viley, 5 years, 144 pounds; H. B. TODD's b. h. Bacon, aged, 150 pounds; and C. F. ELWES' b. g. Bohannon, 158 pounds. Oysterman had the call in the betting, with Bohannon next in demand. Bohannon, with Bacon in attendance and Oysterman third, led over the different jumps for the first mile, the leaps over the double posts and rails and the water leap being viewed with the deepest excitement by the assembled thousands. Viley was last from the start, and soon falling far behind, the hopes of his backers were quickly extinguished. Coming over the crest of the hill, opposite the stables, and through the trees at its summit, Capt. ELWES took a strong pull at Bohannon, and allowed Oysterman and Bacon to go in front. When the horses entered the regular track at the foot of the Club house hill, Bohannon went up, and the race was from that point confined to him and Oysterman, for Bacon was fairly outpaced when the struggle commenced between the other two. A magnificent finish resulted, thanks to the cool judgment and brilliant jockeyship of Capt. ELWES, in favor of Bohannon by a neck; Oysterman beating Bacon twenty lengths, and Viley far in the rear. Time—4:41¾.

FIRST RACE—Steeple-chase—Handicap for all ages; premium, $1,000, $250 of which to owner of second horse.

The Westchester Cup was the next race. It was a sweepstakes for all ages, $50 each, pay or play, two miles and a quarter. The value of the Cup was $1,500, besides the entrance money, and there were seventeen entries, of which the following five ran: PURDY & WITHERS' ch. c. Vespucius, 4 years, 108 pounds; A. BELMONT's b. c. Glenelg, 4 years, 108 pounds; D. J. CROUSE's ch. h. Plowman, 4 years, 108 pounds; T. W. DOSWELL's b. c. Abdel Kader, 5 years, 114 pounds; and W. R. BABCOCK's ch. c. Helmbold, 4 years, 108 pounds.

In pools, Helmbold sold for $2,100, Vespucius and Abdel Kader $500 each, Glenelg $230, and Plowman $160. Plowman went off with the lead, but as they passed the stand Vespucius was head and head with him, Glenelg third, and the favorite last. At the quarter-pole Abdel Kader became third, but the others were as before, and they ran thus around the hill. Reappearing in sight, Glenelg was in possession of the lead, with Plowman next, Abdel Kader still third, and Helmbold in the rear. As they passed under the string the second time, Glenelg was in front, with Vespucius at his quarters, Abdel Kader third, and the favorite next, ten lengths before Plowman, who was beaten thus early. Before reaching the quarter-pole Helmbold ran through his horses, and taking up the running he led them a couple of lengths around the hill, Glenelg there being three lengths before Vespucius. Coming in sight again, after disappearing behind the bend, Helmbold was seen leading a dozen lengths, with Vespucius second, six lengths before Glenelg. The race was now virtually over, for Helmbold galloped home the easiest of winners of the covered trophy, Vespucius beating Abdel Kader by six lengths, with Abdel Kader as far before Glenelg and Plowman beaten off. Time—4:11.

SECOND RACE—Westchester Cup, value $1,500; a sweepstakes for all ages, $50 each, play or pay, two and a quarter miles.

Time—3:15¾, 3:17½.

THE BAPTISTS.

Annual Meeting of the New-York Baptist Association—Separation From Other Denominations in Missionary Work.

The annual meeting of the New-York Baptist Association was begun in the Fifth-avenue Baptist Church, at 10 o'clock A. M., yesterday. There was a very full attendance of delegates. Rev. Dr. ISAAC WESTCOTT preached the annual sermon, taking his text from Matthew xxvii., v. 19, "Go ye, therefore, teach all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." It became every man acting under authority, he said, to fully understand the words of his commission, for the proper discharge of his duty often depended on this understanding. The preacher then took up the command "to baptize," as cited in the above text, and went on to argue that the doctrine of the Baptists, holding that immersion is the proper form of baptism—is the only one, on this point, that can be sustained by Scripture, by the writings of the early Christians, by the practice of the Christian Church for over fifteen hundred years, and by reference to the ablest commentators on the Bible; that the usage of pouring or sprinkling in the administering of this ordinance is nowhere sanctioned, either by Scripture or by the practice of the early Church. He referred to CHRYSOSTOM, HERMES, CLEMENT, GREGORY, AMBROSE, and others of the early Christian fathers; also to CALVIN and WESLEY in later days, as corroborative authorities in this particular.

A collection in aid of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Association was then taken up, after which the following gentlemen were elected officers of the Association for the ensuing year: Moderator, Rev. W. H. PENDLETON; Clerk, GEORGE H. HANSELL; Treasurer, S. T. TILLMAN.

A committee on devotional exercises (Rev. Dr. ARMITAGE, Chairman) was then appointed, and subsequently reported, recommending that at the afternoon session the subjects discussed be the Bible Union, Home Missions and the Lay Preachers' Association, and that the evening session be devoted to a discussion of City Missions, Messrs. GOODWIN and BROUNER being invited to address the Association with respect to this subject.

The following committees were then appointed: On Obituaries—Rev. T. D. Anderson, W. W. Hillker and J. D. Browner. On Applications of Churches—Rev. J. L. Hodge, Messrs. Raymond, William Spellman, J. Nicoll, and J. F. Conrey. On Next Anniversary—Rev. J. T. Smith, Messrs. J. Conrey, L. P. Crane, Dr. W. F. Thoms, Henry Winston. On Digest of Letters—Rev. Mr. Greaves, S. T. Hillman, and G. H. Hansell. Letters were then read showing the operations during the past year in the First Church, New-York; First Church, Staten Island; Abyssinian (colored) Church; Hempstead Church, Rockland County; First Mariners' Church, New-York, and West Church, Staten Island; after which the morning exercises were closed with prayer by Rev. M. WEED, of South Carolina, and the Association adjourned till 3 o'clock P. M.

At the afternoon session, Rev. Dr. WESTCOTT gave an account of the Bible distribution in Mexico, and Rev. Dr. WYCKOFF spoke at length as to the Bible work and evangelization in foreign countries, especially instancing Spain as a field of labor that gave promise of a fruitful harvest for Protestantism. In connection with this subject, the reverend preacher said that the Spanish translation of the Bible was done so well that, on careful examination of it, eminent Spanish scholars had declared that there was only one word in it that could be said to be wrongly translated.

A newly-organized Church was received into the Association, after which an adjournment was had until 7½ o'clock P. M.

The evening session, beginning at 7½ o'clock, was devoted to the subject of Sunday-schools and City missions. After religious exercises a Committee on Nominations was appointed, consisting of Messrs. HILLMAN, COMEY and HITCHLEY, who subsequently reported Messrs. J. B. BRUNER as President, M. J. M. MEADE as Vice-President, M. C. LOCKWOOD as Secretary, and THOMAS H. HARRIS as Treasurer of the Baptist Sunday-school Union, which nominations were agreed to.

A Committee on Digest of Letters from the various schools was then appointed, whose report will appear in the printed minutes.

The Committee on Applications for Membership reported in favor of admitting the school of the Second Baptist Church of Harlem into the Association, which report was adopted.

Mr. CHARLES T. GOODWIN then spoke as to separation of the Baptist Church from other denominations in missionary work. Till within this year a connection had been sustained with the American Sunday-school Union; but now the pastors of the Baptist churches had been compelled to recommend separation from Pedo-Baptists. The ground of this movement is the admission of the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's Supper into the mission stations; the consequence of which is, that the Baptists are driven out of the Sabbath-school Union in the same manner as they have been driven out of everything else where they have been associated with Pedo-Baptists. There is a radical difference in the interpretation of Scripture between Baptists and Pedo-Baptists. The Baptists claim that we must bring children to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ before we confer the ordinances of the Gospel. The Pedo-Baptists make baptism the initiation into the Gospel faith. Baptists cannot do this. In a convention the speaker once attended he heard one man say that Baptists were the leavings of the devil; if this be so, then the devil has many good men and women on his side. He honored the Presbyterians for demanding that the ordinances be introduced into the mission chapels. If he were a Presbyterian he would demand it, too; but, being a Baptist, he could not give the demand his sanction. The speaker closed by urging all Baptists to support their own missions in accordance with the plan newly proposed.

The subjoined resolutions were then read. They were unanimously adopted at a meeting of the Baptist pastors on Monday, and were approved by the Association:

Whereas, The New-York City Mission and Tract Society has recently adopted the recommendation of its Executive Committee, that "it is highly important for the proper care and growth of the converts gathered by its missionaries that the Christian ordinances be administered in its mission stations," and has obtained from the State Legislature such modification of its charter as will enable it practically to carry out these recommendations; and

Whereas, There is between the Baptists and other Christians connected with this Society, a radical difference of opinion as to the administration of the Christian ordinances; therefore

Resolved, That while we do not deny the desirableness of ultimately forming these mission stations into Christian Churches, we nevertheless deem it inexpedient for the Baptists of this City any longer to engage in the support of union missions, the inevitable issue of which, for the most part, must be the organization of Churches on a basis radically opposed to their cherished convictions.

Resolved, That we urge upon the Baptists of this City such a vigorous prosecution of City mission work as will be worthy of their increased strength, and will compare favorably with the efforts of other denominations which have successfully carried on this work on an independent basis; and that we recommend the Baptist Sunday-school Union as the society under whose auspices this work can, for the present, be most successfully performed.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Corresponding Secretary of the New-York City Mission and Tract Society; that they be published in the Examiner & Chronicle, and be recommended to be read from the pulpit of each Baptist church in this City.

Rev. JOHN J. BROUNER, of the North Baptist Church, then addressed the audience in favor of the resolutions. He liked to see every man work in religious matters as if his denomination was the only one which has the truth. If he cannot act in this way, he should leave it, and get into one which he feels is the true one. He was glad this movement had been started, and he felt confident it would succeed.

Rev. Mr. BACON, of the Baptist Sunday-school Union, followed. He likened this new movement to the Declaration of Independence. The time was, he said, propitious, and if Christians would only enter into this work as a heart-work, God would give His blessing to the enterprise, and it would go on in its labor of evangelization among the poor of this City at a greater rate than can be imagined.

Short addresses (the time for each being limited to five minutes) were then made by Mr. HATCH, Mr. HART, Mr. HILLMAN, Rev. Mr. BUCOCK, of England, Rev. Dr. ARMITAGE and others, after which the services were closed with benediction, and the Association for 1870 adjourned sine die.

German Republican Central Committee.

The German Republican Central Committee of this City held a special meeting at the Steuben House last evening, Mr. WM. GELLMANN presiding. After a lengthy debate on reconstruction of the Republican Party in this City and State, it was resolved to refer the matter to the Executive Committee, and to instruct the same to report on the subject at the next regular meeting of the Central Committee. A letter from Gen. FRANZ SIGEL, resigning as President and delegate of the Committee was read. A committee was appointed to request him to withdraw it.

A special committee was appointed to draw resolutions of respect to the memory of the late JULIUS HOERBER, who was a prominent and distinguished member of the Central Committee, and it was resolved to attend the funeral from the last residence of the deceased, No. [illegible] West Twenty-ninth-street, at 9 o'clock this morning. The meeting then adjourned.

SLAUGHTER-HOUSE HOMICIDE.

A German, Assailed with a Revolver by an Irishman, Stabs His Assailant to the Heart.

A deadly affray occurred yesterday on the Weavertown road, near Union Hill, between a German, named FREDERICK KELLING, and four Irishmen, one of whom, JAMES EGAN, was stabbed to the heart and instantly killed. KELLING and the Irishmen were fellow-workmen in a slaughter-house on the Weavertown road, just back of the Floral Hall, at Union Hill. For some time past the German has had quarrels with the Irishmen, all four of the latter taking part against him in any dispute that arose. In the slaughter-house, yesterday, a fresh disturbance broke out between the men over some trivial question of work. EGAN and KELLING had the hottest words, the other men looking on from a short distance, and occasionally putting in a word to help on the quarrel. The Irishman called the German a liar, and the latter retorted with an oath and an insulting epithet. EGAN then took down a revolver that was hanging in his coat pocket, and presented it at the breast of the German, threatening to "blow out his heart." KELLING gave the Irishman no time to fire, but instantly plunged at him with his already gory butcher-knife. The blade penetrated EGAN's breast to the hilt, and the latter fell dead upon the floor. KELLING drew forth his knife, EGAN's heart's blood gushing out as it came. The German went immediately around the corner, took a "gin cocktail" at a saloon near the Floral Hall, and delivered himself up to Justice NEUSCHALER. He was committed to await the result of the Coroner's inquest.

The Education of Women—Meeting at Dr. Crosby's Church.

A small assemblage greeted the gentlemen who had been invited to speak on the broad subject of the higher education of women, at Dr. CROSBY's Church, last evening. On motion of Prof. MARTIN, Hon. W. A. DARLING was appointed Chairman, Mr. EVARTS, who was expected to preside, being unavoidably detained. After prayer by Dr. HALL, Mr. DARLING said that the object of the meeting was to create a feeling in the public mind more in favor of the public education of women.

Dr. THOMPSON, as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Rutgers College, was the next speaker, and he stated that he did not advocate any so-called rights of women, nor did he propose any new sphere for her. The better woman's mental training the better her qualification for her existing spheres. The speaker spoke at some length on the advantages of a special training for women, and then gave the following as the plan agreed on for educating women:

An institution adapted to the real wants of New-York, should present the following features:

A full and regular college course of four years, similar and equal to that pursued at Vassar, Columbia and Yale. A series of additional and separate schools of instruction, wholly apart from the under-graduate course, the aim of which should be, either (1) more elaborate instruction in languages, literature, history or science, or else (2) a training in practical arts, with the aim of affording the students a support. Rutgers has only the regular collegiate course at present, and that is not yet fully in operation. It is the desire of both faculty and trustees to make the institution a university for women. The new or enlarged departments should be a school of technology, a school of art, a school of commercial training, a school of mathematics and astronomy in connection with an observatory. The details of these departments have been intrusted to certain Committees to report at some future time. The school of technology for women should embrace chemistry, organic and domestic; photography, electro-magnetism, painting, engraving, lithography, sewing-machine instruction, china, porcelain, glass, &c., and the natural history, carving, &c., of ornamental woods. Any of these branches, faithfully carried out, would enable their mistress to obtain a good position and support.

Rev. Mr. THURSTON and Rev. Dr. CROSBY made a few remarks, after which President PIERCE moved the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed by the Chair, with power to increase their numbers, for the purpose of promoting the objects of this meeting, and enlisting the co-operation of prominent men and women known to be interested in the cause of the thorough education of women, and with power to call a meeting at some future time, at which the results of their labors can be laid before the public.

Messrs. E. A. P. Barnard, A. S. Webb, M. O. Roberts, E. C. Benedict and J. P. Thompson were appointed such a Committee. The meeting then adjourned.

Threatened Railroad Innovation on Murray Hill.

The proposed opening of Park-avenue between Thirty-fourth-street and Forty-second-street by Commodore VANDERBILT, for the use of a surface railroad, has not merely met with general disapprobation on the part of the property-owners and residents of Murray Hill, but has caused wide spread indignation at the threatened innovation. The Commodore, it is said, is desirous of extending his Fourth-avenue line by building a track over Murray Hill, thereby connecting it with his new depot at Forty-second-street, and also with his contemplated street railroad on Madison-Avenue, for which he obtained a charter some time ago. He made an attempt to do this a few years ago, but was enjoined from laying any rails on the Hill on application of Mr. MILBANK. Now he proposes, it is claimed, to allow the owners and occupants of the private marble mansions on the Hill one of two things—either to procure the repeal of the old injunction against him and submit to the construction of a track along the avenue, or else to witness the obliteration of the beautiful parks which now embellish the spot. This last measure can be accomplished by unroofing the top of the Harlem tunnel, and then filling it in with dirt in order to make the foundation for a surface track. It is reported that the Commodore asserts his right to make such a change, under the identical charter which authorized the erection of the tunnel. The Murray Hill people are confident, however, that no change of the sort proposed can be made without arousing strong political and social influences of an adverse nature, and are of the belief that it will be overthrown should it ever be seriously urged. It is mentioned by its opponents that it will lessen the value of real estate on Murray Hill to an almost incalculable extent should it be inaugurated, and that it will destroy one of the finest dwelling sites in the City. A house which is now worth $70,000, would then bring about $30,000—so it is claimed by one of the residents. Among the prominent persons at present living on Murray Hill, are Recorder HACKETT, Ex-Senator MURPHY, Controller CONNOLLY, Mr. MCELROY, Ex-Commissioner of Emigration, and others.

The Great Railroad War.

The following letters in regard to the disagreements between the New-York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company on the one hand, and the Erie and Pennsylvania Railroad Companies on the other, alluded to in the TIMES, yesterday, explain themselves:

NEW-YORK CENTRAL AND HUDSON R. R. R. CO., }
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE,
NEW-YORK, June 1, 1870. }

Jay Gould, Esq., President Erie Railway Company:

DEAR SIR: The understanding in regard to passenger fares, excursion tickets and live stock, between Chicago, Buffalo, Pittsburg and New-York, having been entirely disregarded by the Pennsylvania and Erie Railroads for the past two or three weeks, without consultation with the lines I represent, I am obliged to give you notice that from this date all arrangements between us in reference to the above will cease. Very truly yours,

WM. H. VANDERBILT, Vice-President.

NEW-YORK, June 3, 1870.

Wm. H. Vanderbilt, Esq., V. P.:

DEAR SIR: I am in receipt of your note of June 1, advising of your withdrawal from the arrangement in regard to live stock. While accepting your conclusions, I have to say that you are in error in assuming that we have disregarded any agreement or understanding with your Company. We have done nothing of the sort. Yours, truly,

JAY GOULD, President.

GENERAL TICKET OFFICE OF THE HUDSON }
RIVER RAILROAD COMPANY,
NEW-YORK, June 6, 1870. }

William R. Barr, General Passenger Agent:

DEAR SIR: I am directed to notify you that we shall decline to accept your coupon tickets between Buffalo and Niagara Falls or Suspension Bridge after this date. Respectfully, &c., C. H. KENDRICK,
General Ticket Agent N. Y. C. and H. R. R. R.

Quarantine Commissioners.

A regular meeting of the Quarantine Commissioners was held yesterday, WILSON G. HUNT in the chair. Commissioner BARTON reported that he had written a letter to the Health Officer, requesting him to appoint a time when he would accompany Mr. BARTON to view the site selected by the Board for the new residence of the Health Officer, but had not received a reply. He would write again, describing the site and repeat the request. A communication was received from the Chief Clerk of the Department of State, at Washington, informing the Board that Congress had passed a resolution authorizing the Secretary of War to place the steamer Illinois at the service of the New-York State Quarantine Commission for an indefinite time, without remuneration. The counsel of the Board said that the resolution did not convey a title of the ship to the Commission, and suggested that the Secretary of War be requested to define what rights the Commission had to alter, repair and use the vessel for its work. A motion to this effect was adopted. A communication was received from Dr. CARNOCHAN, submitting the pay-roll of men employed on the steamer Governor Fenton, for work on the Upper Quarantine Station. It was laid on the table, as the Board appointed by law to fix the rate of compensation had not taken action thereon, and Commissioner BELL thought that the rate of $75 to $80 per month for deck hands and firemen was twice as much as the men could be obtained for. A communication was received from the New-York Towage, Lighterage and Steerage Company, submitting rates for work if the Commission should employ them. It was placed on file with others of the same nature. It was ordered that the hull of the steamer Falcon be sold at the Exchange Sales-rooms, Trinity Building, on June 15. The Board then adjourned without action on the matter of boarding vessels in the Lower Bay for ship news.

Jersey-City Common Council—The Board of Education—The City Treasury—The Fire-alarm Telegraph—The Salary Ordinance.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Jersey-City Common Council, held yesterday afternoon, a communication was received from the Mayor, nominating two men from each ward to serve as a Board of Education. An excited discussion arose, concerning the fitness of the nominations made. Several members contended that some of those nominated were unable to write their names. A motion was made to confirm the nomination by wards, but the matter was laid over for one week. The report of the City Treasurer shows a balance of $108,857 in his hands on the 31st of May. The Finance Committee were authorized to borrow $300,000 at seven per cent. for five years for the payment of improvement certificates. The Committee on Fire and Water was directed to advertise for proposals for supplying Jersey City with the Fire-alarm Telegraph. The names of WILLIAM MURRAY and JOHN F. FLANIGAN as Assistant Street Commissioners, were laid on the table. The ordinance regulating the salaries of city officers was amended and passed. The following are the annual salaries as amended: Mayor, $3,000; City Judge, $2,500; Overseer of the Poor, $1,200; Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, $1,500; each Assessor, $800; Corporation Counsel, $2,800; Corporation Attorney, $1,800; Street Commissioner, $1,500; City Clerk, $4,000; clerk hire in City Clerk's office, $5,500; City Marshal, $1,500; Sergeant-at-Arms, $1,200; Controller, $3,000; Collector of Revenue, $3,500; City Treasurer, $1,500; each City Physician, $600; Engineers of Steam Fire-engines, each $1,000; Clerk of Fire Commissioners, $600; Mayor's Clerk, $1,200; for each local paper (six) publishing the proceedings of the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Education, $1,000; each Judge of Election, $15; each Clerk of Election, $17; each Police Justice, $2,000; each Police Commissioner, $500; School Superintendent, $2,600. The section giving each Alderman a salary of $1,200 created much discussion. Alderman EGE's motion to strike out the section, and that of Alderman SHEERAN to make it $1, and again $500 were voted down. The original was then put when Aldermen Sheeran, Hagan, Meehan, Sweeney, Clarke, Toffey, President McNulty, Campbell, Eagen and Ege voted in the negative and the remainder in the affirmative. Most of those voting in the negative explained that neither themselves nor their constituents expected that a salary would be attached to the office. The ordinance was then finally passed—yeas 22, nays 9. Most of the members voting negatively are comparatively poor and the most attentive and able of the Board.

Greenpoint Sabbath-School Anniversary.

The Sabbath-schools of Greenpoint turned out en masse to celebrate their anniversary yesterday. At 2 o'clock the procession formed at the corner of Union-avenue and Meserole-street. Dodworth's Band led the procession, after which the various schools, some ten in number, proceeded in the following order:

1. Methodist Episcopal Tabernacle Sunday-school, of which Mr. JAMES HENRY BIRD is Superintendent, numbering some 600 children. A fine blue satin banner, borne by WALTER L. BENNETT. On the face of the banner was painted a portrait of Rev. J. F. BOOTH, founder of the Society.
2. First Baptist Sunday-school, of Greenpoint. Banner of blue silk, with the design "Christ Blessing Little Children;" borne by HARRY CORNELL and JIMMY RALSTON. 400 children.
3. Greenpoint Presbyterian Sunday-school, organized 1869, J. M. STEARNS, Superintendent. Banner, blue silk, with design "Shepherd and Sheep;" borne by R. W. KENNEDY. Emblem of school, "Cross and Crown." 500 children.
4. Dutch Reformed Sunday-school, C. H. TIEBOUT, Superintendent, numbering 425 children, with banner of blue silk, with design "Feed my Lambs;" borne by JOSHUA and MARCELLUS ARTHUR.
5. Union avenue Baptist Sunday-school, FRANCIS S. STREET, of the New-York Weekly, Superintendent, numbering 279 children, organized four months. Banner of blue silk, borne by SAMUEL POTTS.
6. Ascension Sunday-school, of Greenpoint, J. K. GITTENS, Superintendent, 275 children. Banner of blue silk, with design "Ascension of Christ."
7. German Lutheran Sunday-school, of Greenpoint, R. H. KOEPPEN, Superintendent, 100 children.
8. First Methodist Episcopal Sunday-school, of Greenpoint, HENRY PAINE, Superintendent. Banner of blue silk, with design "Hope of the Church;" borne by CHARLES LICH and C. W. CLARKE.

A vast number of people witnessed the procession, numbers of the spectators being residents of New-York. After making the tour of Greenpoint, the various schools returned to their respective churches, where collations were spread for the children. Hymns were sung by the children and congratulations given by the teachers, on the manner in which they conducted themselves.

The Alexander-Gardiner Bond Mystery.

The investigation into the circumstances connected with the Alexander-Gardiner bond mystery was resumed yesterday morning at the Surrogate's office.

Dr. HARVEY H. MCGREGOR was examined, and, in reply to Mr. FULLERTON, testified that he had been in attendance on Mrs. GARDINER for the past two days; she was suffering from a severe attack of colic, and was unable to be present in Court; he was unable to say when she would be sufficiently recovered to be in attendance, but probably it might be in three or four days; witness called in to see Capt. ALEXANDER during his illness, but could not say by whose request, as the message had been delivered at the office in his absence; could not remember the day he visited him, though he might be able to ascertain it by a reference to his private record; he appeared to be suffering from softening of the brain; attacks of that nature do not always come suddenly, but he had known cases where the manifestations were comparatively sudden; where the disease was not the result of acute inflammation it was generally of slow process; on the occasion of his visit Capt. ALEXANDER seemed to understand the questions he put to him, and answered them, but invariably in the affirmative or negative; he appeared to be in a sort of lethargy; he was in a low, weak condition, but there was no evidence of typhoid; he should be spoken to sharply and directly to get an answer, and should sometimes be spoken to more than once; his physical condition was very much debilitated; this was perhaps four or five days before his death, and witness did not think he would recover; did not visit him more than once, as he considered him beyond the reach of human skill; during his visit he saw no property belonging to Capt. ALEXANDER, nor did he hear anything from which he could form the opinion that he was a man of wealth; witness was called simply in a professional manner, and nothing beyond that; the deceased at this time could not hold a conversation for any lengthened period; in ordinary cases, when this disease manifested itself, mental weakness exhibited itself before the person took to his bed.

To the Surrogate—The disease would grow daily worse.

The Court then adjourned until 11 o'clock on Thursday morning.

The Walberg Case.

In the case of SIEGMUND, JOSEPH and JULIUS WALBERG, brothers, charged with making false revenue returns as brokers, Hon. JNO. H. WHITE, counsel for the accused, yesterday made a motion for their discharge before Commissioner WHITE. He mentioned that the offense of which they were accused was alleged to have been committed previous to the statute of 1866, and then contended that they could not be prosecuted under that statute. He also held that they could not be held under the statute of 1864, as that had been virtually repealed by the statute of 1866, citing an opinion of Judge MCCANDLESS, of Pennsylvania, in support of his view. The case was adjourned until today, in order to give Assistant District-Attorney JACKSON an opportunity to reply.

The Laurens-Street Extension—Sale of Building Materials.

Yesterday, by order of the Department of Public Works, Mr. B. FAIRCHILD sold at auction, in the vestibule of the City Hall, the buildings and parts of buildings on the property taken by the City for the proposed extension and widening of Laurens-street, from Canal-street to Waverley-place. Most of the buildings are old and poor, and many of them are in a most dilapidated condition. About 1,500 persons attended the sale, and 127 lots were disposed of at prices ranging from $25 to $1,000. The sale realized about $20,000. Some four or five of our largest contractors purchased the bulk of the material, and the remainder was knocked down to the owners of property on the street.

The Reformed Church National Synod.

In the Synod of the Reformed Protestant Church at Newark, yesterday morning, Rev. Dr. WISNER, Corresponding Delegate of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, bore the salutations of that body, and alluded to the recent reunion. The recently-healed separation originated in questions of policy rather than of doctrine, particularly the policy of the Church in its benevolent work.

The President, in replying, discussed the question of union, and thought that we had reached an era where Christian bodies are no longer seeking heresy, but union; still, there are reasons why there should be organic union.

Rev. Dr. JOHN DOUGLASS was received as Corresponding Delegate of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The case of Rev. Mr. DEMAREST was again called up, and the discussion was attended with deep interest. Rev. J. A. TODD and Rev. Dr. COLE argued the case. The President, Rev. Dr. VERMILYE, said the constitution provides for the case, and no claim of inherent right need be urged, but there had been no adjudication of the case under the constitution. Messrs. BAHLER and STANBROUGH also made speeches upon the case. The Synod then adjourned to attend the laying of the corner-stone of the Clinton-avenue Reformed Church. In the evening the consideration of the case of Rev. Mr. DEMAREST was resumed, but no conclusion was arrived at. Rev. E. P. LIVINGSTON and R. H. PAYNE, of Albany, and Dr. TODD addressed the Synod on domestic missions, and Rev. J. H. BALLAGH, a Japanese missionary, and EZEKIEL SCUDDER, an East India missionary, discoursed on the progress of the cause in those countries. The Synod then adjourned till this morning.

Strawberries and Cream—First Festival of the Season.

The season of strawberry festivals was very pleasantly inaugurated last evening at the Methodist Church, in Thirty-fourth-street, where a large gathering partook of the delicious combination of the favorite berry of the season, with the equally enticing compound known as vanilla ice-cream, after having been regaled with a musical entertainment of peculiar sweetness. The delicious quality of the concert was due to no saccharine product, such as was essential to the success of the latter portion of the entertainment, but to the charming appearance and dulcet voices of several young ladies, whose songs for the most part made up the programme of the evening. Prof. ELDER, however, played the organ in the intervals in a manner which elicited considerable applause. The songs were all of a light and pleasing character. Misses LIBBIE ROBERTS and ALICE LANE sang the duet, "Listen, 'Tis the Woodbird's Song," with charming effect, the former particularly displaying much taste and spirit. Miss M. LOUISA LEE, a miss of fifteen, also displayed decided talent in her singing.

At about the middle of the exercises Miss MARY E. FORSYTH read TENNYSON's poem "Enoch Arden." The young lady read with considerable taste and feeling, but if she had chosen a shorter piece or taken selections from "Enoch Arden," instead of reading the entire poem, it would evidently have been more satisfactory to the audience.

After this part of the entertainment was concluded, the entire audience adjourned to the vestry for the delicacies, which had doubtless been the main attraction in bringing them together, and for which the children had been anxiously waiting for two hours. The strawberries and ice-cream were dished out with promptness to every holder of a ticket and received with remarkable alacrity, but as no second dish was allowed, the process of eating strawberries and cream lasted a marvelously short time. An array of bouquets was, however, disposed of, and social converse served to fill up the time with great enjoyment. The company dispersed at about 10½ o'clock, with the consciousness of an evening spent in innocent pleasure. Another festival of a similar character was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Seventh-street, and for a few weeks to come these pleasant occasions will be multiplied in the churches of this City.

The ice-cream and strawberry festival of the Second Presbyterian Church of Jersey City passed off very pleasantly and profitably as well, last evening. About 300 persons were in attendance.

Fatal City Car Accident.

Yesterday afternoon a Mrs. SNOWDEN stopped car No. 51 of the Grand-street and Forty-second-street line, in order to get off with her two little girls and son, WILLIAM, aged eight years. She got the girls safely off the car, and on looking for the boy saw him getting off the platform while the car was in motion, the driver, FRANCIS REILLY, apparently pushing him off. The boy fell and was run over, sustaining such injuries as caused death in a few moments. The driver was arrested to await the result of a Coroner's investigation.

Bold Robbery—Diamonds Worth $4,000 Stolen.

Yesterday afternoon an adroit thief entered the jewelry-store of ADOLPH FRANKFIELD, while the two clerks were busily engaged in attending to customers, and succeeded in gaining possession of a case of unset diamonds, valued at $4,000, which he carried off unobserved, the larceny only being discovered at a later hour in the day. The clerks are unable to afford the Police any clue to the perpetrator of this most daring larceny.

Southern Woman's Bureau.

The first meeting of a society recently formed for the purpose of affording Southern women an opportunity to prepare themselves for the useful professions, was held yesterday afternoon in Room No. 24 Cooper Institute. Mrs. CHARLOTTE FOWLER WELLS was elected President, and LAURA C. HOLLOWAY, Secretary. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, to which all interested in a good cause are invited.

The Pennsylvania Sinking Fund—An Appeal to the People.

Gov. GEARY has published an address to the people of Pennsylvania, appealing to them to instruct their candidates for the Legislature whom they are now about to nominate, to vote against any and all attempts to divert any money from the Sinking Fund, by which their public debt is to be reduced and finally extinguished. He says that the bill to distribute securities from this fund among several newly-incorporated railroads, and to substitute for them inferior, if not worthless, obligations, was sent to him only on the day before the adjournment of the last Legislature, although it had passed both Houses two weeks previously; and that as no action was had on his veto, the matter still remains open, and may be brought up at any time in the next Legislature.

A Remarkable Invention—Petroleum as a Fuel—Practical Operation of the Process.

From the Philadelphia Press, May 27, 1870.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, we were present at the foundry of Messrs. BARROWS, SAVERY & Co., at the corner of Reed and Front streets, to witness the practical operation of Messrs. WHIPPLE and DICKERSON's new process for converting petroleum to the production of motive power. A large number of persons interested in a discovery so pregnant with importance as affecting the whole question of fuel in the future, were present, and were perfectly well satisfied of the value and feasibility of the same.

The new process does not bring the petroleum in contact with the fire at all. By a most ingenious and exceedingly simple machine, it is first evaporated into hydro-carbon gas or vapor, and that gas is conducted to the fire-box by ordinary pipes, and there burned as you would burn ordinary gas under a kettle in a gas stove. The process of evaporation, and its product, is the secret of this new discovery.

The objection which was urged in 1867 by the Secretary of the Navy, that in all tests of the value of petroleum as a fuel, it had been discovered that carbonization resulted to such an extent as to stop up the tubes used in a short time, cannot be raised against the present mode of burning petroleum, as the fire does not come in contact with the crude petroleum, but merely with its vapor, as stated.

In regard to its perfect safety, also, there can be no question for the same reason.

At the foundry which we visited yesterday, and in which this process is in operation, there has been a saving of nearly one-half in coal, with an increased efficiency. The same boiler is in use as before, and while by the use of coal a pressure of not higher than forty pounds to a square inch could be obtained, with a great decline in this pressure when there was heavy work being done in the foundry, with the use of petroleum by this process a constant pressure of sixty pounds is attained, never varying, no matter how great the call upon the motive power.

These engines, aggregating sixty-horse power, are driven by the steam generated in this way. This will show the great demand for a large and invariable supply of steam, and also the efficiency of the newly utilized fuel.

Of the solid value of the invention we have no doubt, and believe that the new process is destined to revolutionize the entire question of fuel, at least as a generator of steam.

THREE REQUISITES OF HEALTH.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, there would not be doctors enough to attend them, nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz.: A good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eighths of the many thousands who suffer from indisposition, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "can't eat," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor is it necessary, inasmuch as a course of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise. This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia, (or incapacity to sleep,) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a soporific, or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all these medicinal properties and many others are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowels are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized. It is believed that there is no other restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time; and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The attendance at the Exchange Salesroom was moderate yesterday. Six lots on the south side of One Hundred and Nineteenth-street, between Avenue A and the East River, were sold by A. J. BLEECKER, SON & Co. for $2,500 each. The bidding was not very lively, and the price obtained was regarded as low. The sale was made by order of A. A. WINEGARDNER, assignee in bankruptcy for A. B. & T. A. DEMAREST. The property is now used for a lumber-yard.

ROBERTS & McGUIRE sold, by order of GRATZ NATHAN, referee, two lots on Ninety-eighth and Ninety-ninth streets, between Eighth and Ninth avenues, adjoining in the rear, for $5,550.

The premises No. 220 Seventh-street, consisting of a lot 25 feet front by 90 feet 10 inches in depth, with a three-story and basement brick store and dwelling, 25 feet by 44, on the front, and a four-story brick house, 25 feet by 21, on the rear, were sold by JAS. M. MILLER. The entire property brought $13,100, of which $9,950 remained on existing mortgages.

The same auctioneer disposed of a country residence in the village of Westchester, consisting of between three and four acres of land with a frontage of 500 feet on Union-avenue, well laid out, and a house 42 by 52 feet, together with barn, carriage-house and stables. The property formed a part of the McDermott property, and brought $18,050; STEPHEN PRITCHARD, Esq., being the purchaser.

Sales are announced for to-day by MULLER, WILKINS & CO., BLEECKER & SON and BELLAMY & STRATTON. The first-mentioned firm will offer the premises No. 17 Morton-street, and two lots on the south side of One Hundred and Second-street, between First-avenue and Avenue A, and the last-mentioned will sell a lot on Madison-avenue, between Eightieth and Eighty-first streets. BLEECKER'S sale will be of a single lot on Third-place, Brooklyn.

WM. H. RAYNOR has sold three lots on Ninety-seventh and Ninety-eighth streets, between Ninth and Tenth avenues, for $7,000; one lot north side One Hundred and Thirty-second-street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, 37x100, for $4,000, and seventy lots in Roseville, between Newark and East Orange, N.J., for $16,500.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

O. H. PIERSON, Auctioneer.

BY A. D. MELLICK, JR., & BRO., auctioneers and dealers in New-Jersey real estate, No. 6 Pine-st., New-York.—SATURDAY, June 11, at 2½ P. M., on the premises, auction sale of a desirable residence at Englewood, N. J.

This property is well located on the corner of the Tenafly road and Ivy-lane, three minutes' walk from Highland Station, and on an elevation commanding extensive views of the valley and overlooking the Town of Englewood; the dwelling is a gothic cottage containing thirteen rooms in good order; the grounds comprise about two acres, very handsomely improved and laid out, with lawns and walks, a good garden and an abundance of fruit, shade and evergreen trees; stable room for three horses.

Parties wishing to attend the sale will take the 1 P. M. train by Northern Railroad from the foot of Chambers-st. to Highland Station, returning at 4:27 P. M.

Maps, permits and full particulars can be had of the auctioneers, No. 6 Pine-st., New-York.

O. H. PIERSON, Auctioneer.

BY A. D. MELLICK, JR., & BRO., auctioneers and dealers in New-Jersey real estate, No. 6 Pine-st., New-York.

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, at 1 P. M., on the premises.

Positive sale of the Muelegan estate, fronting on the Passaic River, near Belleville, N. J., by order of Jas. W. Elliot, Esq.

Comprising thirteen building plots, varying in size from two to eight acres.

Handsomely situated on very high ground and commanding extensive views of the river and surrounding country. This is a rare chance to purchase property in large plots, as the location is a most beautiful one, and the vicinity handsomely improved; stations on the Montclair (Midland,) Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, and Newark and Paterson Railroads will lie near this property.

Parties wishing to attend this sale will take the 12 M. train by the New-Jersey Railroad from the foot of Cortlandt and Desbrosses sts., getting out at Centre-st. station, Newark, and taking steam-boat from the foot of Centre-st., direct to the property.

Maps, free passes and full particulars at the office of the auctioneers, No. 6 Pine-st.

BY MALLORY & BLACKWELL, NO. 55 Liberty-st.,

WEDNESDAY, June 8, 1870, at 4 P. M., on the premises.

Positive and unreserved sale, to close an estate. The well-known

KNOWLTON PLACE, TARRYTOWN,

consisting of a superior brick house, containing eleven rooms, in perfect repair, and about one and one-half acres of land, with a great variety of choice fruit and shade trees. The location being retired, with fine river views, and being surrounded with finely-improved places, and yet only five minutes' walk from depot and landing, churches and schools, makes it a very desirable residence. Two-thirds of the purchase money can remain. Parties can leave New-York on the 2 P. M. train, and return after the sale on the train arriving in New-York at 6½ P. M. Further particulars of MALLORY & BLACKWELL, No. 55 Liberty-st., or opposite the depot, Tarrytown.

PUBLIC NOTICES.

ORDINANCES OF THE CENTRAL PARK.

The Board of the Department of Public Parks do ordain as follows:

All persons are forbidden

SECTION 1. To enter or leave the Park except by the gateways.

SEC. 2. To climb or walk upon the wall.

SEC. 3. To turn cattle, horses, goats or swine into the Park.

SEC. 4. To carry firearms, or to throw stones or other missiles within it.

SEC. 5. To cut, break or in any way injure or deface the trees, shrubs, plants, turf or any of the buildings, fences, bridges or other constructions upon the Park.

SEC. 6. Or to converse with, or in any way hinder those engaged in its construction.

SEC. 7. Two pounds are hereby established within the Central Park, for the impounding of horses, cattle, sheep, goats, dogs, swine and geese, and other animals found trespassing upon said Park. All such animals found at large upon the Park may be taken by any person or persons, and driven or carried to one of the said pounds, and may be kept inclosed therein during five days, at the end of which time, if not previously claimed, they may be sold at public auction; provided that two days' previous notice of the sale thereof shall have been conspicuously posted at the pound.

The owner of any animal so impounded by virtue of the ordinances of the Central Park, may redeem the same before the day of sale, by the payment to the Treasurer of the Board as follows:

For each animal other than goats and geese, two dollars, and the expense of keeping.

For each goat, four dollars, and the expense of keeping.

For geese, twenty-five cents each, and the expense of keeping.

The expense of keeping shall be reckoned as follows:

For each horse, dog or head of neat stock, fifty cents per day.

For each goat, swine or sheep, twenty cents per day.

For each goose, five cents per day.

If, within one month after the sale of any impounded animal, their former owner shall appear and claim the same, the Treasurer shall, after deducting the full amount of the charges provided for, pay over to him the proceeds of their sale.

SEC. 8. No animal shall travel on any part of the Central Park, except upon the "ride," or equestrian road, at a rate exceeding seven miles per hour. Persons on horseback shall not travel on the "ride," or equestrian road, at a rate exceeding ten miles per hour.

SEC. 9. No vehicle shall be permitted on the "ride," or equestrian road, the same being devoted exclusively to equestrians; nor shall any vehicle, horse or animal of burden go upon any part of the Central Park except upon the "drive" and other carriage and transverse roads, and upon such places as are appropriated for carriages at rest.

SEC. 10. No animal or vehicle shall be permitted to stand upon the "drive" or carriage roads of the Central Park, or any part thereof, to the obstruction of the way, or to the inconvenience of travel, nor shall any person upon the Central Park solicit or invite passengers.

SEC. 11. No hackney-coach, carriage or other vehicle for hire shall stand upon any part of the Central Park for the purpose of taking in any other passengers or persons than those carried to the Park by said coach, carriage or vehicle.

SEC. 12. No person shall expose any article or thing for sale upon the Central Park, except previously licensed by the Board of the Department of Public Parks, nor shall any hawking or peddling be allowed on the Central Park.

SEC. 13. No omnibus or express wagon, with or without passengers, nor any cart, dray, wagon, truck or other vehicle carrying goods, merchandise, manure, soil, or other article, or solely used for the carriage of goods, merchandise, manure, or other articles, shall be allowed to enter any part of the Central Park except upon the transverse roads.

SEC. 14. No threatening, abusive, insulting or indecent language, shall be allowed on the Central Park, whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned.

SEC. 15. No person shall be allowed to tell fortunes or play at any game of chance at or with any table or instrument of gaming, nor to do any obscene or indecent act whatever on the Central Park.

SEC. 16. In case of an emergency, where life or property are endangered, all persons, if required so to do by the Superintendent or any of his assistants, shall remove from the portion of the Central Park specified by the Superintendent or his assistants, and remain off the same till permission is given to return.

SEC. 17. The Central Park shall be open daily to the public during the months of December, January and February, from 7 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock in the evening; during the months of March, April, May, October and November, from 6 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock in the evening; and during the months of June, July, August and September, from 5 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock in the evening.

SEC. 18. The Superintendent may direct that any of the entrances to the Park be closed at any time, and may, on special occasions, also direct that the Park, or any portion thereof, remain open at other times than those above specified.

SEC. 19. No person other than employes of the Board of the Department of Public Parks shall enter or remain in the Central Park, except when it is open as above provided.

SEC. 20. No dog shall be allowed upon any portion of the Central Park, unless led by a chain or proper dog-string, not exceeding five feet in length, nor shall any person be allowed to lead any quadruped (except dogs) in the Central Park.

SEC. 21. No person, except in the employ of the Board of the Department of Public Works, shall bring upon the Central Park any tree, shrub, plant or flower, nor any newly-plucked branch, or portion of a tree, shrub, plant or flower.

SEC. 22. No person shall bathe, or fish in, or go, or send any animal into any of the waters of the Park, nor disturb any of the fish, water-fowl, or other birds in the Park, nor throw, or place any article or thing in said waters.

SEC. 23. No person shall fire, discharge or set off in the Central Park, any rocket, cracker, torpedo, squib, balloon, snake, chaser, or double-header, nor any fire-works or thing under any other name, composed of the same or similar material, or of the same or similar character, as the fire-works above specified.

SEC. 24. No person shall place or propel any invalid-chairs or perambulators upon any portion of the Central Park, except upon the walks.

SEC. 25. No person shall post or otherwise affix any bill, notice, or other paper, upon any structure or thing within the Central Park, nor upon any of the gates or inclosures thereof.

SEC. 26. No person shall, without the consent of the President of the Board of the Department of Public Parks, play upon any musical instrument within the Central Park, nor shall any person take into, or carry or display in the Central Park, any flag, banner, target or transparency.

SEC. 29. No funeral procession, or hearse, or other vehicle or person carrying the body of a deceased person, shall be allowed on any part of the Central Park except upon the transverse roads.

SEC. 30. No person, except in the employ of the Board of the Department of Public Parks, shall light, make, or use any fire upon the Central Park.

SEC. 31. No person on foot shall go upon the grass, lawn, or turf of the Central Park, except when and where the word "common" is posted, indicating that persons are at liberty at that time and place to go on the grass.

SEC. 32. No person arrested in the Central Park for violating any ordinance or any regulation of the Board of the Department of Public Parks shall be conveyed before any Magistrate, nor shall any complaint be entered against any person until they shall have been brought before the Captain of the Central Park Police, or the chief officer in charge, and his approval of making such complaint first obtained by the officer making the arrest.

By order of the Department of Public Parks.

PETER B. SWEENY,
President of the Department of Public Parks.

Dated NEW-YORK, May 26, 1870.

SUPREME COURT.—IN THE MATTER of the application of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New-York, relative to the opening of Ninety-fifth-street, from the Fifth-avenue to the East River, in the City of New-York.—We, the undersigned Commissioners of estimate and assessment in the above-entitled matter, hereby give notice to the owner or owners, occupant or occupants, of all houses and lots and improved or unimproved lands affected thereby, and to all others whom it may concern, to wit: That we have completed our estimate and assessment, and that all persons interested in these proceedings, or in any of the lands affected thereby, and who may be opposed to the same, do present their objections in writing, duly verified, to Thomas J. Barr, Esq., our Chairman, at the office of the Commissioners, No. 82 Nassau-street, (Room No. 42,) in the said City, on or before the 18th day of June, 1870, and that we, the said Commissioners, will hear parties so objecting within the ten week days next after the 18th day of June, 1870, and for that purpose will be in attendance at our said office on each of said ten days, at 2 o'clock P. M.; that the abstract of the said estimate and assessment, together with our maps, and also all the affidavits, estimates and other documents which were used by us in making our report, have been deposited in the Street Commissioner's office, in the City of New-York, there to remain until the 28th day of June, 1870; that the limits embraced by the assessment aforesaid are as follows, to wit: All those lots, pieces or parcels of land, lying and being on Ninety-fifth-street, between the Fifth-avenue and the East River, in the City of New-York, and extending on either side of said Ninety-fifth-street, half the distance to the next street thereto; and that our report herein will be presented to the Supreme Court of the State of New-York, at a special term thereof, to be held in the new Court-house, at the City Hall, in the City of New-York, on the 11th day of July, 1870, at the opening of the Court on that day, and that then and there, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard thereon, a motion will be made that the said report be confirmed.

A SAFE INVESTMENT.

First Mortgage Bonds of the Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville Railroad Company.

These bonds are part of the first and only issue of the Company for $1,000,000, covering its entire property, and are at the rate of $12,700 per mile. Of the whole amount $600,000 have been already placed, leaving but $400,000 to be sold. They are 7 per cent. coupon bonds due in 1887, interest payable 1st January and July in New-York. The Road is in operation. It is 73 miles long, extending from La Porte on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern to Peru, where it connects with the Toledo, Wabash and Western and the Peru and Indianapolis Roads. It runs through one of the finest sections of Indiana, and makes a connecting link in the best through line from Chicago to Indianapolis, and thence to Cincinnati and Louisville.

We confidently offer these bonds as a desirable security to investors, AS THE NET EARNINGS OF THE ROAD FROM THE OPENING HAVE BEEN IN EXCESS OF THE INTEREST ON ITS BONDED DEBT, AND ARE CONSTANTLY INCREASING. Besides it is designed to extend the Road to Lake Michigan at New Buffalo or Michigan City the coming season, which will also greatly increase its earnings.

FINANCIAL.

INDIANAPOLIS, BLOOMINGTON

AND

WESTERN RAILWAY

SEVEN PER CENT. GOLD LOAN.

The bonds are in denominations of $1,000 each, secured by a first mortgage on 205 miles of road, from Indianapolis, the largest city and most important railroad center in the State of Indiana, to the City of Pekin, in Illinois.

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY MILES of the line are now IN FULL OPERATION, equipped with new first-class rolling stock, and already EARNING MUCH MORE THAN THE INTEREST ON THE WHOLE ISSUE OF BONDS. The balance, thirty-five miles, is being rapidly constructed, is nearly all graded, and UNDER CONTRACT TO BE FINISHED DURING THE PRESENT MONTH.

There are thirty-six depots on the line, LOCATED IN CITIES AND TOWNS THAT CONTAIN, IN THE AGGREGATE, A POPULATION OF ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY THOUSAND, averaging over 930 to each square mile, within a radius of half a mile of the track; and WITHIN TWENTY MILES OF THE TRACK THERE IS A POPULATION OF ABOUT SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND.

It passes through the counties of Marion, Hendricks, Montgomery, Fountain, Warren and Vermillion, in the State of Indiana, and Vermillion, Champaign, De Witt, Piatt, McLean and Tazewell Counties, in Illinois, on the line of the old emigrant State road, which was laid out in the best portion of those States before the time of railroads, was then the main line of Western travel, and consequently became more thickly settled than other sections of the West, as the numerous cities, large villages, and products of these counties demonstrate.

Besides the large agricultural productions of this section the manufacturing interest is very extensive in the large towns, and is rapidly increasing.

The coal-mines at Danville on this line are extensively and profitably worked, and FURNISH BUSINESS FOR OVER THREE HUNDRED COAL CARS on this line at present, and MORE THAN TWICE THAT NUMBER WILL BE REQUIRED to carry coal on completion of the remaining link.

From the present earnings on 170 miles it is safe to assume that the LOCAL BUSINESS ALONE WILL BE AMPLE NOT ONLY TO PAY THE BONDED DEBT, BUT LARGE DIVIDENDS ON THE STOCK.

In addition to the population and wealth of the country, and all that is necessary to support a first-class road and make it a profitable investment through local traffic, it forms a grand central trunk line FOR THROUGH BUSINESS, NOT SURPASSED BY ANY ROAD OF EQUAL LENGTH IN THE WEST.

At Indianapolis it connects by main lines with the cities of Columbus, Cleveland, Pittsburg, Cincinnati—and with the Pennsylvania Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio, and other important railroad lines. At Pekin, the western terminus, connections are made with Peoria, Quincy, Keokuk, Burlington and Omaha. At Bloomington with the Illinois Central Road, which runs north-west 800 miles to Fort Dodge, Iowa. A very large business will be done with this line. At Danville it connects by rail with Toledo on Lake Erie. A map will show all these to be very important connections in making through lines over this route.

THE LOAN IS PLACED BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY BY THE PRESENT EARNINGS FROM LOCAL TRAFFIC ON ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY MILES, which must necessarily be doubled when the trains run through.

THE BONDS ARE CONVERTIBLE at the option of the holder into stock at par at any time, which adds greatly to their value. They may be registered at the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, if desired.

Coupons payable April and October, free of tax.

Total issue $5,000,000—$2,000,000 of which are placed in trust with the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company to redeem and cancel $2,000,000 bonds issued to the Danville, Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin Railroad, now merged into this road, making the loan only $3,000,000, OVER HALF OF WHICH HAS BEEN SOLD IN EUROPE AND THIS MARKET. The balance we offer at 92½ and ACCRUED INTEREST. At this low price the Bonds, being so amply secured, will be quickly marketed.

We have been thoroughly posted in regard to the road from the start, have closely inspected it from time to time during construction, and being familiar with the wealth and resources of the country, the responsibility and integrity of the officers and directors of the Company, and the present earnings of the road, it is with pleasure that WE RECOMMEND THE BONDS AS ONE OF THE CHEAPEST AND SAFEST INVESTMENTS IN THE MARKET, sure of a high standard among the best railroad securities in the country.

All marketable securities received in exchange at market rates. Bonds delivered to all points FREE OF EXPRESS CHARGES.

ELIZABETHTOWN & PADUCAH

RAILROAD,

OF KENTUCKY.

FIRST MORTGAGE

8 Per Cent. 20-Year Bonds

Coupons payable on the 1st days of March and September at the BANK OF AMERICA, in New-York, where the principal is also payable at maturity.

These Bonds are issued in sums of $1,000, Coupon Bond, under the First Mortgage of the road, covering its entire property and franchises, and are due 1890. They have the privilege of conversion into stock by the holder for seven years after the first through train has been run. The Bonds can also be registered, if desired.

The length of the line of the Elizabethtown and Paducah Railroad is 185 miles, running from Elizabethtown, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, 40 miles south of Louisville to Paducah, at the intersection of the Ohio and Tennessee Rivers, forming the outlet of the tobacco-growing counties of Grayson, Butler, Ohio, Davies, Marshall and McCracken, and passing through the rich and extensive bituminous COAL-FIELDS situated in Grayson, Hopkins, Caldwell and Muhlenburgh Counties. Along the entire route is found an unlimited supply of the finest LUMBER, and in many counties rich deposits of IRON ORE exist.

The road is now nearly all under contract, and in course of construction, 100 miles having been graded and 25 miles put in running order. The capital stock amounts to $3,095,000, of which the City of Louisville subscribed $1,000,000 in 7 per cent. Bonds, all of which have been sold, yielding in cash upward of $900,000, and the balance in individual subscriptions and County Bonds. Of the latter, $800,000 have been disposed of at 85 per cent.

To lay the rails and completely equip this road, there will be issued THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS of First Mortgage Bonds.

These Bonds will pass through the hands of the UNITED STATES TRUST COMPANY, of New-York, where the proceeds of sales will be deposited, to be paid over to the Company only as each mile of the road is completed. The most rigid care has been exercised to protect by every legal safeguard the interests of the Bondholders. With the capital already secured and the proceeds of the Bonds now offered, the road will be finished and equipped at an early day.

The management of this road is in the hands of the most responsible and favorably known merchants of Kentucky. With the guarantee of their able and faithful direction, and the large amount of stock subscribed, these Bonds form a very safe and desirable investment.

The price is 87 1-2 and accrued interest.

GENTLEMEN: I beg leave to inform the trade and the public in general that I propose to sell at public auction, through Messrs. J. H. DRAPER & CO., at their store, No. 112 Pearl-st., Hanover-square, New-York, on

FRIDAY, June 10, WEDNESDAY, July 13,
WEDNESDAY, June 15, WEDNESDAY, July 20,
WEDNESDAY, June 22, THURSDAY, July 28,
THURSDAY, June 30, WEDNESDAY, Aug. 3,

my entire stock of 5,000 packages of the following well-known goods:

JULES MUMM & CO., CHAMPAGNE.
ESCHENAUER, BENECKE & CO., LOUIS UZAC & CO., BORDEAUX, CLARETS, SAUTERNES, OLIVE OIL.
A. C. GODARD, COGNAC BRANDIES, in glass and wood.

All these goods will be offered at each sale at the agent's cost price, in full assortment, and in small or large quantities to suit purchasers. An opportunity will then be offered to the TRADE, HOTELS, RESTAURANTS, STEAMBOATS, CLUBS AND PRIVATE FAMILIES, to obtain their supplies from week to week, without investing large capital and loss of interest. Every article offered at these sales will be guaranteed by me, and I desire to state that never were better wines shipped to America than those to be offered at these weekly sales. The clarets and brandies were selected and put up under my own personal supervision during my last visit to Europe. The finer wines have been four to five years in bottle. The champagnes, "Dry Versenay," extra dry and private stock of fresh importation, are all of the superior vintage of 1865.

In conformity with the above, I respectfully announce the first sale of the season,

PICTURE-FRAMES AT AUCTION, new and second-hand, in gold and black walnut; also, shadow boxes, with plate-glass, and lined with velvet, a great variety, will be sold THIS (Wednesday) AFTERNOON, at 4 o'clock, by BANGS, MERWIN & CO., No. 694 Broadway.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the City of New-York that, pursuant to the provisions of the act entitled "An act to authorize the construction of a railroad in One Hundred and Twenty-fifth-street, and in certain other streets and avenues in the City of New-York," passed April 28, 1870, they will sell at public auction, in the "Governor's Room" of the City Hall, in said City, on MONDAY, July 18, 1870, at 12 M., to the highest bidder for the same, the right, privilege and franchise to construct, operate by animal power, and use a railroad with a single or double track as hereinafter provided, and to convey passengers thereon for compensation, through, upon and along the following streets or avenues, route or routes, in the City of New-York, viz.: Commencing on the North or Hudson River, at the foot of One Hundred and Thirtieth-street; thence through and along One Hundred and Thirtieth-street, with a double track, to Manhattan-street; thence through and along Manhattan-street, with a double track, to One Hundred and Twenty-fifth-street; thence through and along One Hundred and Twenty-fifth-street, with a double track, to the East or Harlem River; also, from One Hundred and Twenty-fifth-street, thence through and along the Third-avenue, with a double track to the Harlem Bridge; also, from the Third-avenue, thence through and along One Hundred and Thirtieth-street, with a double track, to the Harlem River; also, from One Hundred and Twenty-fifth-street at its intersection with Tenth-avenue; thence northerly, through and along the Tenth-avenue, with a double track to the terminus of said Tenth-avenue, together with the necessary connections, turnouts and switches, for the proper working and accommodation of the said railroad, on the said streets or avenues, route or routes, said road to be completed within two years from the passage of said act, except upon and along Tenth-avenue, and upon and along said avenue as fast as the same shall be opened, graded and paved, from One Hundred and Twenty-fifth-street. Such sale will be conducted in the ordinary manner of sales at auction, and the person or corporation who shall offer to pay into the City Treasury the largest sum of money for such right, privilege, or franchise, shall receive from said Commissioners a certificate that he or they is or are entitled to such grant, and are authorized to construct, operate and use the same in accordance with the provisions of the said act; such certificate to be issued on the payment, within ten days, into the City Treasury of the amount of the bid and of the execution of a bond to the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New-York, in the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Controller of said City, conditioned that the person or corporation receiving such certificate shall, within two years, finish and complete said road and equip the same with the requisite number of cars and horses, except along Tenth-avenue, as aforesaid; but should he, or they, be restrained or prevented by any legal proceedings from completing and constructing the same, the time for which they are so restrained shall not be deemed, or taken to be part of the time within which the same is to be completed. But the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund are authorized and reserve the right to reject any bid, if, in their judgment, it is not for the interest of the City that they should do so, and offer the franchise for sale again. A copy of the Act of the Legislature under which this sale is to be made, can be procured at the Finance Department.—Dated, New-York, June 1, 1870.

A. OAKEY HALL, Mayor.
RICHARD B. CONNOLLY, Controller.

PROPOSALS.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

BAHAMAS' MAIL CONTRACT.

Tenders addressed to the Colonial Secretary, Nassau, New-Providence, will be received by the Government of the Bahamas, until the 16th day of September next, for the conveyance by a steam vessel, or vessels, of Her Majesty's mails between Nassau and New-York.

The service will have to be performed either fortnightly, or every four weeks, as may be ultimately decided on by the Bahamas Government, and the parties tendering must consequently state the rate at which they are willing to contract for the different modes of service, or may tender for both, or may confine themselves to either separately. Every contract vessel must be of not less capacity than five hundred tons net measurement, i. e., exclusive of space required for machinery, &c., of at least seven and one-half knots average speed, be able to accommodate at least thirty first-class passengers, if the service be a fortnightly one, and a proportionately larger number if a monthly, with space for the stowage of from forty to sixty tons of cargo, and be of such a draught of water when loaded as to enable her in ordinary weather to enter the Harbor of Nassau for the purpose of landing and taking on board mails, passengers and freight.

A form of tender and the conditions of contract may be seen at the Secretary's office in Nassau, and at the office of H. B. M.'s Consul in New-York.

The proposed contract will commence in February next. By order of the Governor,
G. C. STRAHAN, Colonial Secretary.
COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE, 18th May, 1870.

OFFICE CHIEF QUARTERMASTER,
FIRST QUARTERMASTER'S DISTRICT,
NEW-YORK CITY, May 16, 1870. }

SEALED PROPOSALS IN DUPLICATE, with a copy of this advertisement attached to each, are invited, and will be received at this office until 12 M., June 18, 1870, for supplying the Quartermaster's Department with one thousand three hundred and eleven (1,311) bushels of corn, best quality, fifty-six pounds to the bushel; twenty-one thousand five hundred and ninety-three (21,593) bushels oats, best quality, thirty-two pounds to the bushel; nine hundred and eight thousand two hundred and seventy (908,270) pounds good merchantable timothy hay, four hundred and thirty-five thousand three hundred and twelve (435,312) pounds straw of the best quality, and three thousand (3,000) pounds bran, best quality, the whole to be delivered in such quantities and at such times as may be desired by the Quartermaster's Department during the year ending June 30, 1871, to be delivered at the following-named posts:

Fort Columbus, New-York Harbor—318 bushels oats, 6,000 pounds hay, 63,000 pounds straw. Fort Wood, New-York Harbor—127 bushels oats, 5,110 pounds hay, and 6,000 pounds straw. Fort Hamilton, New-York Harbor—536 bushels corn, 938 bushels oats, 60,000 pounds hay, 50,000 pounds straw and 3,000 pounds bran. Fort Wadsworth, New-York Harbor—71 bushels corn, 1,038 bushels oats, 45,990 pounds hay and 27,888 pounds straw.

Fort Schuyler, New-York Harbor—1,095 bushels oats, 40,880 pounds hay and 29,600 pounds straw. Willett's Point, New-York Harbor—704 bushels corn, 1,612 bushels oats, 137,970 pounds hay and 46,338 pounds straw. Fort Trumbull, Conn.—1,125 bushels oats, 40,000 pounds hay and 20,000 pounds straw. Fort Adams, R. I.—15,330 bushels oats, 572,320 pounds hay and 191,088 pounds straw. Plattsburg Barracks, N. Y.—1,348 pounds straw.

The corn and oats must be entirely free from dust or other impurities, and put up in good and substantial sacks, securely sewed to prevent wasting; and the hay and straw must be put up in bales free from surplus wood or other foreign matter.

These supplies must be delivered at the wharves of the respective posts, and payment will be made according to the weights, as certified to by the Post Quartermasters at the places of delivery. Bidders must state separately the prices at which they will deliver the corn, oats, hay, straw and bran, herein called for, at each of the places. The prices of the sacks necessary for the corn, oats and bran must also be stated separately.

Each bid must be accompanied by a guarantee, signed by two responsible persons, that in case the bid shall be accepted, and the contract entered into, they will become sureties in a sum equal to one-fourth of the amount of the contract for the faithful performance of the same.

No bid will be entertained that is not made in accordance with this advertisement, and bidders have the privilege of being present at the opening of the bids.

The Government reserves the right to reject any or all bids regarded as disadvantageous to the Department, or to accept such portion of any bid, not less than for one post, that may be deemed of advantage to the public interests.

Bids may be made and will be entertained for delivering the forage and straw herein called for at any one or more of the posts.

Proposals must be indorsed, "Proposals for Forage and Straw," and addressed to the undersigned, of whom any other information can be obtained.

THE MASONIC FRATERNITY.

Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge.

THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.

Brilliant Display of Knights Templar.

RECEPTION OF VISITING LODGES.

Complete Programme of the Ceremonies Today.

Yesterday the note of preparation for the imposing Masonic ceremonies of today—the laying of the corner-stone of a grand Masonic temple to be erected in this City—was sounded. The business of yesterday was the assembling of the Grand Lodge and the reception, in fitting form, of the members of the fraternity from Philadelphia and elsewhere, who had resolved to visit this City for the purpose of taking part in and assisting on this grand occasion. The weather was unpleasant, and, therefore, the imposing procession of Knights Templar was not witnessed by as great a throng as it would otherwise have been, but the programme was fully carried out notwithstanding.

Today, it is expected, will be a grand epoch in the annals of Masonry in this City, and the display will be well worth seeing and will long be remembered by those who witness it. Doubtless over 40,000 Masons will be in the ranks. Herewith are published full reports of everything relating to the occasion.

Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge.

The first session of the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons of the State of New-York, was held in this City yesterday afternoon at Apollo Hall. The attendance was very large, nearly 700 lodges being represented by about 2,000 delegates. As the officers of the Grand Lodge entered the hall a march was played by St. Cecile Lodge, No. 568, of this City, after which an anthem was well rendered by the same Lodge, all the members of which are musicians. Grand Chaplain SCHOOMAKER then offered a prayer. Upon calling the roll the following officers of the Grand Lodge were found to be present:

M. W. JAMES GIBSON, Grand Master; R. W. John H. Anthon, D. G. M.; R. W. Christopher G. Fox, S. G. W; R. W. Edmund L. Judson, J. G. W.; M. W. John W. Simons, G. Treas.; R. W. James M. Austin, M. D., G. Sec'y; R. W. and Rev. R. L. Schoomaker, R. W. and Rev. John G. Webster, G. Chaplains; R. W. Charles B. Foster, G. Marshal; R. W. Cornelius Esselstyne, G. Std. Bearer; R. W. R. H. Huntington, G. Sword Bearer; R. W. John Boyd, R. W. Philip Merkle, R. W. Wm. Sinclair, R. W. James M. Fuller, G. Stewards; R. W. C. A. Marvin, G. S. D.; R. W. Charles E. Young, G. J. D.; W. Johnson Fountain, G. Pursuivant; W. John Hoole, G. Tyler.

After the Lodge was duly opened, and the rules to govern the body during its sessions read, the following representatives of other Grand Lodges were introduced and received with the appropriate honors: M. W. Robert, Rusling, Grand Master of New-Jersey; R. W. W. E. Pine, Deputy Grand Master of New-Jersey; Daniel B. Brum, Past Grand Master of New-Jersey; William Mead, Grand Secretary of New-Jersey; R. W. Noble D. Larned, Grand Secretary of the District of Columbia; R. W. R. L. Dodge, Grand Treasurer of Arkansas; R. W. Robert White, Deputy Grand Master of West Virginia; M. W. Bro.' Stephenson, Grand Master of Canada; The latter, upon being presented to the Lodge, expressed his gratification at being able to be present. In referring to the fact that Canada had recently been attacked by a band of men "falsely termed a brotherhood," he said that he himself was in command of a military force on the frontier, and had feared that his desire to attend the annual communication of the Grand Lodge of the State of New-York would be thwarted. Fortunately, quiet had been restored and he was thus able to be present, after having suffered only "a severe sun-scorching." In closing he invited the New-York body to visit the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Canada, to be held in Toronto July 13.

At the conclusion of Mr. STEVENSON'S remarks, Grand Master GIBSON, in an impressive manner, read his annual address, the greater part of which was devoted to matters pertaining to the craft. A brief abstract of such points as are of public interest only is given. He spoke as follows:

The annual recurring general assembly of the Master Builders of this Masonic jurisdiction, required to be held not only by the ancient landmarks, but by our own special regulation, has been regularly opened in ample and ancient form, for the eighty-seventh time; and I now, in accordance with our custom, present for your inspection an account of my work as your Grand Master since your last annual communication, with suggestions for future action, shown by experience to be necessary for the permanent welfare of our beloved fraternity. Two beloved brethren having gone to their rest within the past year, being members of the Grand Lodge, has twice required the summoning of an emergent special communication for their burial. I refer to the decease of M. W. Brother ROBERT D. HOLMES, and R. W. Brother WILLIAM R. MERRIAM. During the last annual communication of the Grand Lodge the following duties were specially assigned to the Grand Master, or taken in charge as its executive, and have been performed as herewith reported: The expenditure of $250 to procure a portrait of the late Past Grand Secretary of this Grand Body, R. W. JAMES HERRING, and the same to remain the property of the Grand Lodge. To appoint a committee of nine members, to consider and report upon the subject of the establishment of District Grand Lodges. This Committee was appointed Aug. 5, 1869, as follows: M. W. John L. Lewis, W. Samuel Jones, W. Joseph J. Couch, W. Jesse B. Anthony, R. W. George Tobey, M. W. Clinton F. Page, W. L. H. Conklin, W. Charles A. Budd, W. Benjamin Flagler. In the course of the year past, the requests to the Grand Master to officiate in the laying of corner-stones for public edifices, and in the dedication of lodge-rooms, have been numerous. The corner-stone of the main building of the Cornell University, at Ithaca, was thus laid in ancient form, on the 30th day of June last, at the request of Hon. EZRA CORNELL, the munificent founder of that institution. On my dispensation, the M. W. CLINTON F. PAGE officiated as Grand Master, assisted by an emergent Grand Lodge specially summoned for the occasion. The Firemen's Monument in Buffalo being in course of erection, and the proper authority having requested the corner-stone to be laid with suitable Masonic ceremony, R. W. Brother CHRISTOPHER G. FOX, the Senior Grand Warden was designated to officiate, and the duty was ably and faithfully performed by him in June last. New and beautiful lodge-rooms have been dedicated to Masonry for the following lodges, viz, Gratitude Lodge, No. 674, at Nassau; Steuben Lodge, No. 112, at Bath; Schoharie Valley Lodge, No. 491, at that village; Auburn Lodge, No. 431, at Auburn; Sincerity Lodge, No. 200, at Phelps; Peacock Lodge, No. 696, at Mayville; and Hamilton Lodge, No. 713, at Canojoharie. In addition to these, which were dedicated by dispensation, the Grand Master personally officiated at the dedication of a new and beautiful lodge-room at Peekskill, for Cortlandt Lodge. [The Grand Master here referred to a number of cases of a private nature which had been referred to him during the past year, and which had been decided by him subject to a review by the Grand Lodge. Two of the most important decisions were: One that a member who had been suspended from his lodge for testifying as a witness in a Court of justice that he would not believe a man who was a brother under oath; that he should be restored to his Masonic standing, the Grand Master holding that it was a Masonic duty to be obedient to civil law; the other that it was the duty of a lodge to bury a member who had died of delirium tremens, on the ground that it was the duty of the lodge either to have reformed the brother or, failing in this, to have disciplined him in his life-time.] In closing his address the Grand Master remarked that their relations with the Grand Lodges of the other States are of the most fraternal nature. Representatives have been accredited to this jurisdiction from the several Grand Bodies, and their credentials will here be presented as follows: From the M. W. Grand Lodge of Florida, credentials accrediting M. W. JOHN L. LEWIS as Grand Representative near this Grand East. From Pennsylvania, credentials accrediting R. W. JEROME BUCK as its Representative near this Grand East. From the Grand Orient of Brazil, (Do Lavradio,) accrediting R. W. ALBERT G. GOODALL; and the like, in his favor, from the Grand Orient, of the Argentine Republic at Buenos Ayres. From the Grand Orient of Peru, accrediting W. Bro. C. S. VAN ZANDT. From the Grand Lodge of Nebraska, accrediting R. W. GEORGE W. HARRIS. And from the Grand Lodge of Texas, accrediting R. W. HENRY C. BANKS. I have caused letters to be issued accrediting W. Bro. ROBERT R. LIVINGSTON as the representative of this jurisdiction, near the Grand East of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Nebraska. Also, R. W. Bro. D. C. DAWKINS, of Jacksonville, near the Grand East of the W. M. Grand Lodge of Florida.

On motion of JOHN W. SIMONS the address was referred to the usual Committee for division into sections, &c. Before the address was delivered a beautiful silver trowel was presented to the Grand Master, G. B. W. JEROME BUCK, as the gift of Brother JOHN COOK, of Pyramid Lodge, No. 490, of the City of New-York, to be used in laying the corner-stone. On one side was engraved the seal of the Grand Lodge, and on the other the following inscription:

Presented to M. W. Grand Lodge of the State of New-York, F. A. M., by Brother JOHN COOK, of Pyramid Lodge, No. 490, on the occasion of laying the corner-stone of the Temple, on June 8, 1870, A. L. 5870.

The annual reports of the Grand Secretary, Treasurer, Trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund, and New-York Board of Relief, were then received, and in brief were as follows:

Grand Parade of Knights Templar.

Manhattan Commandery, No. 31, of this City, accompanied by Wannamacher's Band, paraded yesterday afternoon through Broadway for the purpose of escorting Vaux Lodge, No. 393, and Mozart Lodge, No. 436, F. and A. M., of Philadelphia, who visit this City with the intention of participating in the grand Masonic ceremonies of today. The Knights were officered by A. PHILLIPS, Commander, and C. V. R. ACKERMAN, Captain-General, and numbered 108. The Commandery proceeded to the foot of Cortlandt-street, where the Philadelphia lodges were in waiting. The procession then formed, the Knights taking the right and Vaux Lodge following with JOHN CURTIS, Master, 140 in the ranks, and Mozart Lodge bringing up the rear, JOSEPH H. LIVINGSTON, Master, 117 in the ranks. Mozart Lodge were the guests of St. Nicholas Lodge, and were entertained at the Astor House. Vaux Lodge were the guests of Manhattan Lodge, were entertained at Kane Lodge-rooms last evening, and subsequently went to the Metropolitan Hotel. The procession passed up Broadway and attracted considerable attention.

About 5½ o'clock, Morton Commandry No. 4, preceded by Downing's Seventy-first Regiment Band, marched down Broadway to the Battery to receive Lodge No. 2, of Philadelphia, W. H. BITTING, Master, who were expected by the Camden and Amboy line. Accompanping the Knights were H. CLAY PRESTON, Grand Commander of the State; JOHN A. LEFFERTS, of Palestine Commandry; A. C. WILMARTH, of Clinton Commandry, No. 14, of Williamsburg, and thus representing various Commandrys in the City and suburbs. The Knights were under the command of THOS. C. CASSIDY as Commander and WILLIAM EDWARDS Captain-General. The boat arrived at about 6½ o'clock, when the procession was formed—Lodge No. 2 numbering seventy-two men—and passed up Broadway to HENRY MAILLARD'S hotel, where the guests were entertained with a splendid collation, given by St. John's Lodge No. 1 of this City—the oldest Lodge of New-York entertaining the oldest of Philadelphia.

Later in the evening the principal officers of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania arrived in the City, but no formal reception was given them.

The line will move promptly at 9 A. M. The following is the order of march:

Fifth-avenue, Twenty-third-street, Madison-avenue, Forty-second-street, Fifth-avenue, Forty-sixth-street, Sixth-avenue, Thirty-fourth-street, Fifth-avenue to Twenty-third-street, where the right of the column will halt. Upon halting, the Marshals will simultaneously open their divisions without delay.

The Ceremonies at the Laying of the Corner-Stone.

The following is the full programme of the ceremonies to be observed at the laying of the corner-stone of the Masonic temple today:

When the left of the procession arrives at the corner of Sixth-avenue and Twenty-third-street the Grand Lodge will pass through the opened line and the Grand Officers will at once take their places upon the platform. The Grand Chaplain will, when order is restored, offer prayer.

After the introduction, the anthem will be sung. The Deputy Grand Master, addressing the Grand Master, will say:

MOST WORSHIPFUL: The trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund, after many years of labor, have at last arrived at that point of the undertaking when they are justified in putting into execution so much of the original plan as requires that a hall shall be built in the City of New-York. In discharge of their trust, they have purchased the ground whereon we now stand, and under resolutions of the Grand Lodge, adopted at the annual communication of 1869, have made suitable preparations for commencing the work at this time. I now have the pleasure of presenting to you the Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements.

The Chairman of the Committee, M. W. JOHN W. SIMONS, will then say:

MOST WORSHIPFUL: The Committee charged with making arrangements for laying the corner-stone have completed their labors. I now have the honor to announce to you that all things are in readiness for the solemn ceremonies of placing the foundation-stone of our temple.

This will be followed by an invocation by the Grand Chaplain, after which an ode will be sung.

The Grand Master will then direct the Grand Treasurer to place in the corner-stone the articles prepared for the purpose, of which the following are the principal:

Constitution of the Grand Lodge, transactions of Grand Lodge, 1869; the various orders and programmes of the occasion, photographs of Grand Officers, Masonic and daily papers, specimen set of United States coins, 1870; silver dollar, 1870; two silver medallions, copy of seal of Empire Chapter, No. 170; collection of coins, anniversary medallion from St. John's Commandery, No. 4, Philadelphia; Japanese coins, medallion of Board of Relief, Williamsburg; Washington cent, Maximilian dollar, silver medallion, Hiram Lodge No. 449; silver medallion, Scotia Lodge No. 634; silver medallion, Templar Lodge No. 203; a committee badge, Masonic Fair, JOHN W. SIMONS; collection of coins, a Pine tree shilling, collection of coins, silver medallion, Tabernacle Lodge No. 598; collection silver coins, Mount Cantlon Lodge, No. 516.

An anthem will then be sung during which the stone will be lowered into its place. The Grand Master will then direct the Deputy to apply the square, the Senior Grand Warden the level and the Junior Grand Warden the plumb to the stone, after each of which ceremonies the officers will make the proper responses. The band will then perform an overture; the Senior and Junior Grand Deacons then advance to the stone, bearing the trowel and gavel; the Grand Master, preceded by the Grand Marshal and Grand Sword-bearer, advances to the stone, takes the trowel and spreads cement; the gavel, and strikes three blows on the stone; returns to his station, and says:

We, JAMES GIBSON, Grand Master of Masons in the State of New-York, do declare this stone to be plumb, level and square; to be well-formed, true and trusty; and duly laid according to the ancient customs, usages and forms of our Craft.

An anthem will then be sung by St. Cecile Lodge, after which the Grand Stewards will bear to the stone the elements of consecration—corn, wine and oil—which will be severally applied with the following invocations after each:

May the blessings of the Supreme Architect be upon the people of this State, and the Craft be nourished with the Corn of Peace.

May the health of the Craftsmen employed in erecting this edifice be preserved; and may the Giver of all good keep them from accident, and bless and prosper their labors.

May the Creator and Ruler of the world vouchsafe His blessing upon our Craft, wherever dispersed; bless our country, preserve the Union, give peace and prosperity to the people of New-York, and to all the nations of the earth.

The Deputy Grand Master then presents the architect, who is provided with the plumb, level and square and a plan of the work, and is directed to proceed with his labors. The Grand Master then delivers a brief address to the Craftsmen assembled and proclaims the corner-stone laid "in accordance with the forms and ceremonies of our ancient Craft."

Rev. E. S. PORTER will then deliver an oration, after which the anthem will be sung, to the tune of "Old Hundred"—the entire assemblage joining, as well as the bands upon the ground—and the ceremonies of the day will be concluded with the benediction.

Preliminary Steps Toward the Establishment of a World's Museum in New-York.

A meeting was held last evening at the private residence of Prof. DOREMUS, in Union-place, for the purpose of taking the initiatory steps toward the establishment in this City of a World's Museum of Art, Science and Literature, and thus developing the industry and resources, not only of this country, but of all other nations on the habitable globe. Owing to the brief notice given the attendance was not so large as expected. Gen. WEBB occupied the chair. Dr. G. NAPHEGUI gave a general plan of what it was proposed to do, and read quite a number of letters from some of our leading citizens, expressive of their approbation of the objects of the meeting, and sending their regrets that previous engagements prevented them from being present. Among this number were Judge C. P. Daly, Mr. A. T. Stewart, Prof. Lieber, Judge Hilton and Mr. A. A. Low. Letters, offering contributions of all the natural and artificial productions of their native countries, were exhibited from the Governors and other high officials of the following nations on this and the eastern continent: Nicaragua, Mexico, Yucatan, Panama, Constantinople, Guatemala, Costa Rica, Brazil, and one also from Prince NAPOLEON. After some discussion, in which the Chairman, Dr. NAPHEGUI, and others took part, it was finally resolved to have from 300 to 500 circulars printed and distributed among our leading scientific and enterprising citizens, in which the main features of the plan shall be set forth in detail.

Chess by Telegraph.

A match at chess of one game was very recently contested between the Cities of Jackson, Natchez and Vicksburg, all of Mississippi, and the City of New-Orleans, (excluding PAUL MORPHY.) Mr. J. A. GALBRAITH represented Jackson, Mr. W. E. TINNEY represented Natchez, and Messrs. J. A. TINNEY and J. HARDY were the champions for Vicksburg. New-Orleans was represented by Messrs. BLUCKMAN, MAURIAN, TARRANT and STRONG. The game, after a contest of twenty-six moves, was declared in favor of the Mississippi champions.

A Pertinent Inquiry.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

PATRICK HERNAN, who was shot the other night by Police Officer BURKE, was a member of the Mark Lanigan Association, one of the most effective Tammany Hall organizations, and was identified with the roughs of the City. When he was killed he was associated with the brother of "Reddy the Blacksmith," and kindred people. What we wish to know is this, what Republican appointed PATRICK HERNAN a mail carrier? It should be the earnest inquiry of every Republican who is sold out in this City at each election by Republican leaders, working for the Democratic Rings, to trace up the influence and get the names of those men who gave this man HERNAN an office in the gift of the Republican Party. We should like to have the scores of healthy, one-armed soldiers, who are starving in the City, inquire why they cannot have these Post-office places, instead of men who are opposed to GRANT'S Administration, and who deserve nothing of any party, in the way of assistance and patronage. Very possibly, the thorough ventilation of this matter may give the key to the problem, "How it happens that the Republican Party has no power in New-York or Brooklyn?" Yours, A READER.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF.

NEW-YORK.

The Department of Public Parks announce that if the weather be fine there will be music by the Central Park Band in Washington-square on Wednesday, the 8th inst., from 6 to 8 o'clock P. M. Musical entertainments will also be given on Thursday at Madison-square, from 6 to 8 o'clock P. M., and on Friday at the Battery, from 6 to 8 P. M., should the weather be fine.

On Monday evening a reception was given by the members of the Bible Class No. 2, of the Alanson Methodist Episcopal Church, Norfolk-street, at the residence of Mrs. REYBERT, No. 312 Madison-street. The proceedings of the occasion were very interesting and the company well pleased. After prayer by the pastor of the church, Rev. JOHN PARKER, a hymn was sung, and immediately afterward Mr. N. WARD CADY, the popular teacher of the class, delivered an appropriate address. Then followed a song by Miss ADELIA BOUTON, and the reading of the Secretary's report, after which a trio was sung by Messrs. MIDDETON, MABIE and LUNNIN. Mrs. MCALLISTER then sung, and Rev. Mr. PARKER and Superintendent THOMAS spoke briefly. After a tempting collation had been fully enjoyed Mr. GEO. L. LANE entertained the company with some fine magic lantern views, which were greatly admired. A few more songs were indulged, and at a late hour the happy assemblage dispersed. The Committee of Arrangements deserve the utmost credit for the manner in which they performed their duties. Their names are as follows: Messrs. George E. Lane, N. W. Taylor and John A. Cornell, and Misses S. A. Fitzpatrick, L. S. Seal and M. E. Roberts.

An unusually pleasant affair last evening at Washington Heights was a concert given by the Sabbath-school of the Presbyterian Church of which Rev. CHAS. A. STODDARD is pastor. A large and highly respectable audience attended it. While the exercises, consisting of vocal and instrumental music were much enjoyed, the part of the programme best appreciated was a surprise presentation of two beautiful silver portemonnaies filled with gold pieces to two young ladies, as a testimonial from the congregation in acknowledgment of their devotion to the Sabbath-school. The recipients were the Misses FULLER and FAY. The pastor presented the gifts in a happy speech, which was responded to by Mr. LAWSON J. FULLER.

At a regular meeting of the Gideon Loyal Orange Lodge, last evening, at Lamartine Hall, Mr. S. B. GOUGH in the chair, Miss ANNIE BUNTING, on the part of a number of lady friends, presented the lodge with a banner of the finest texture, which had been purchased at a cost of $350. An appropriate address accompanied the presentation. After a reply from the Chairman several addresses were delivered in support of Protestant faith and Protestant freedom.

There were fifty cases heard before Justices DOWLING and SHANDLEY, as the Court of Special Sessions, yesterday. They were mostly of a petty character and of very little interest. Several young women of questionable character were sent to the Penitentiary for small terms for having robbed men of watches, money, &c., at houses of ill-repute.

Yesterday Marshal SHARPE sent out his commissions to the Assistant Marshals appointed to take the census in the districts outside of this City. The work of enumeration will not commence here for several days, owing to the difficulty which has been experienced in securing good men as enumerators.

The meeting of Israelites that was to have been held last evening to take measures of relief for the Jews of Roumania did not take place, the impression prevailing that the stories about the "massacre" and other atrocities were canards.

Last evening, at about 10½ o'clock, Officer HEAVISIDE, of the Second Precinct, observed two suspicious-looking characters following a well-dressed gentleman who was greatly intoxicated. He pursued them through Nassau-street, and when near Beekman-street overtook them, just in time to save the stranger's valuable watch and chain and well-filled pocket-book.

MICHAEL WALSH, thirty-three years of age, living at No. 61 West-street, who, on Sunday last, when under the influence of liquor, made a savage assault upon his wife REBECCA, and stabbed her with a large knife in the left breast, inflicting a wound which is now believed to be dangerous, was arraigned, yesterday, before Justice DOWLING, at the Tombs Police Court, and committed to await the result of the injury.

FREDERICK A. GOODALL was arraigned before Justice DOWLING, yesterday, on a charge of passing a worthless check for $45, on the Long Island Bank, purporting to have been signed by S. STANBERRY. The prisoner handed the check to Messrs. CLARK, DODGE & CO., at No. 51 Wall-street, and received the face value, the check being thrown out by the bank, as there were no funds to meet it. The Magistrate recognized GOODALL as an old offender, and committed him.

There was a rumor on the street, yesterday, that cannot be traced to any trustworthy source, that the steamer Dacia, of the Central American Telegraph Corps, has recently been lost near Bermuda.

The annual reunion and dinner of the alumni of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., residing in the City of New-York and vicinity, will be held at the Astor House on Tuesday, June 28.

CLARA MARSHALL, an infant, died yesterday at No. 246 East Forty-seventh-street, from an abscess of the brain, caused by a fall through the skylight. Coroner SCHIRMER held an inquest.

MARY A. L. HAMILTON, aged four years, died yesterday at No. 200 East Thirty-first-street, from the effects of scalds accidentally sustained on Sunday.

Coroner FLYNN held inquests yesterday on the bodies of an unknown man and JOHN DAVIS, who were found drowned in the East and North Rivers.

BROOKLYN.

The Eleventh Brigade N. G. S. N. Y., Brig.-Gen. MESEROLE commanding, were reviewed yesterday at Prospect Park Parade Ground. There were about 780 officers and men turned out.

JOHN and CLAUS ANDERSON, Swedes, were arrested, yesterday, for a felonious assault upon JOHN MASTERSON, of No. 21 Dunham-place, E. D. The assault was committed with a hammer, by which severe injuries were inflicted on the head.

FREDERICK SAUERLAND, of No. 542 Columbia-street, was garroted on Monday night while returning home from the direction of Atlantic-avenue, and was robbed of a silver watch and $14. Of the three men implicated in the deed one, named RICHARD MYERT, was arrested yesterday afternoon.

At a meeting of the Republican General Committee, last evening, an effort was made by GEO. H. FISHER to have a resolution passed indorsing the official career of MOSES H. GRINNELL and urging the President to keep him in his present position. It was laid on the table.

A man named FLANDON became engaged in an affray last night with several loafers in a liquor saloon on Atlantic-avenue, near Bond-street, and was stabbed in the back by one of them so severely that he had to be taken to the City Hospital.

Prospect Park was visited last week by 128,820 persons, and on Sunday by 24,130.

A fire occurred yesterday evening in the carpenter-shop of A. HART, No. 11 Hicks-street. Damage $500.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

The Colombo Guard, a rifle association, and the only Italian military organization of New-York, celebrated their third annual pic-nic at KARL'S Germania Park, Melrose, on Monday afternoon. The festival was attended by a number of prominent Italian citizens of New-York City, and was a very creditable affair throughout. The music was furnished by the band of the Twenty-third Regiment N. G. S. N. Y.

The town officers of West Farms yesterday granted fifty-seven licenses to sell liquor in the town, and it is expected that the number will be considerably increased at the next sitting of the Board.

WM. BURNS, of Yonkers, was arrested yesterday and held to bail in the sum of $500, to answer for fast driving and maliciously driving against the vehicle of THOS. RADFORD.

LONG ISLAND.

The Greenpoint Presbyterian Church, Rev. W. H. TAYLOR, pastor, admitted thirty-one new members last Sabbath, eighteen of whom were upon profession of faith. This church, one year old, now numbers 100 members, with 500 in the Sabbath-school.

NEW-JERSEY.

On Monday a report was published in these columns of the finding of the body of a woman, by two policemen, on a projecting ledge of rock half way down a precipice of 100 feet, in Hudson City, N. J. An inquest was held by Coroner BURNS, yesterday, and testimony was taken which tended to show that her most serious wound was not caused by her fall upon the rocks, but that it was caused by a sharp instrument. The husband, CHARLES HOLMES, who was suspected, was arrested, and held to await the result of the investigation. The jury afterward rendered a verdict that the deceased came to her death by falling down the precipice at the foot of Broad-street.

The imposing ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the Clinton-avenue Reformed Church, Newark, was performed yesterday afternoon in the presence of about three hundred spectators, including the members of the National Reformed Synod, now in session in that city. The stone was laid by Rev. Dr. VERMILYE, President of the Synod, and appropriate addresses were delivered by Drs. TERHUNE, VERMYLYE, HUTTON and CAMPBELL. The new church is built of Newark stone, with Ohio stone dressings. The building is 108 feet long, 60 wide, exclusive of the present building erected some time since. It will contain 172 pews and 28 compartments, each of the latter designed to accommodate ten persons. The estimated cost is $120,000.

The new wing of the New-Jersey State Prison, at Trenton, was formally opened yesterday to the public for inspection. Among the large number of visitors present were Gov. RANDOLPH and a few other State dignitaries. The new wing just finished is designed as a workshop, and will accommodate about 600 convicts. Another new wing is immediately to be added for additional cells, under authority of a recent act of the Legislature. Proposals for materials and work have been advertised for by the Supervisors.

An indignation meeting was held in Oreton Hall, Newark, last night, the object of which was to condemn the action of the Morris and Essex Railroad for their treatment of their patrons and passengers. Resolutions to that effect were passed by a large majority. The interest and indignation manifested was deep and earnest. Speeches were made by several persons strongly supporting the resolutions.

The trial of Dr. CAREY for manslaughter in having caused the death of Mrs. REHILL by malpractice, was concluded in the Hudson County Court of Sessions yesterday. The case was given to the jury late yesterday afternoon, and a verdict of "not guilty" was rendered.

The proceedings in the United States District Court against JONAS LANGFELDT, the Morris and Essex news agent, for defrauding the revenue, have been discontinued by District-Attorney KEASBEY. The prosecution was satisfied that there was no evidence to convict.

Mrs. MARY KILLEEN, a widow, aged thirty-five years, who has been for some time past employed as cook at the Aged Woman's Home, in East Broad-street, threw herself from the third-story window of that building, early yesterday morning, and was killed. She had been suffering from fever, and was delirious.

The property of the Bloomfield and Newark Horse Car Company has again been seized, this time upon a larger debt than those upon which the former seizures were made. The bonds of the Company, amounting to $220,000, are held by Mr. [illegible], who directed the seizure to be made upon the Company's failure to pay interest.

ARMY AND NAVY RECORD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—The Secretary of War makes known his commendation of the good conduct displayed by Lieut. William R. Harmon, Tenth Cavalry, who pursued and captured eleven robbers—one of them a deserter—and recovered 127 Government mules, three horses and two wagons, which were stolen from Bluff Creek, Indian Territory.

7 Per Cent. Gold Interest
(FREE OF GOVERNMENT TAX)
FIRST MORTGAGE
SINKING FUND BONDS
OF THE
West Wisconsin R. R. Co.
FIFTEEN YEARS TO RUN FROM JANUARY, 1870, AND CONVERTIBLE INTO STOCK AT PAR.
LAND GRANT OF OVER 1,000,000 ACRES FROM GOVERNMENT,
upon which, together with the Road and all its property, these Bonds are a First Mortgage.
EXEMPTED FROM TAXES UPON ITS LANDS FOR 15 YEARS.
70 MILES FINISHED AND RUNNING, from which income is derived, with rapidly-increasing receipts.
An air-line from St. Paul's to Milwaukee and Chicago. These Lands estimated worth $8,000,000. Total amount of mortgage when Road is completed, $4,000,000. The Road is divided into four sections, and $1,000,000 Bonds are issued upon completion of each section. As these lands are sold, the proceeds are held by the Trustees as a Sinking Fund for the liquidation of the bonded debt. These Bonds, we confidently assert, are the safest and cheapest security offered in this market.
THE PRICE WILL BE 90 FLAT UNTIL THE 15TH JUNE, BUT ON AND AFTER THAT DATE IT WILL BE 90 AND ACCRUED INTEREST.
The coupons are payable January and July, making them the first year, with accrued interest and gold at 115, a 12 per cent. investment, and about 9 per cent. thereafter. Pamphlet, with full particulars, and map can be obtained at the office of
